The title is marked "Changed" on the basis of information furnished by ERNESTO ARRIZURIETA to the effect listed below.

On 12/18/63, ERNESTO ARRIZURIETA FERNANDEZ, 467 State St., Brooklyn, NY, was interviewed at his place of employment as an elevator operator at 39 West 67th St., NYC. He furnished the following information:

When he first came to the US in 1962, he personally saw an individual at Opa-Locka, Florida, in August 1962, known to him as CELSO HERNANDEZ. He knew no other name of this individual. He knew this individual to be a Communist who had joined the Orthodox Party in Cuba and that he was employed by the Allied Base Syndicate as a driver in Cuba. He also knew that this individual had a son studying in Russia. He described this individual as being approximately 42 years of age, 5' 5", 185 lbs., black wavy hair, black mustache, and constant smoker of cigars. He has since received letters from friends of his in Cuba informing him that this person whom he saw in Opa-Locka, Florida, in August 1962, is presently in Cuba and employed at Transporte Nacional, Personnel Department, San Jose y Belascoain 362, Havana. He has a niece named SARA ARRIZURIETA who formerly worked with this person in Cuba and last saw him in January 1963.
