Title: CELSO MACARIO HERNANDEZ MACHADO

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED

(JFK)

Synopsis: A photograph of CELSO MACARIO HERNANDEZ MACHADO was exhibited to FELIPE ALONSO at Miami, and to SARA ARRIZURIETA of Hialeah, Fla., both of whom positively stated that HERNANDEZ MACHADO is not identical with CELSO SALVADOR HERNANDEZ MEDINA. ERNESTO ARRIZURIETA FERNANDEZ was interviewed at New York and he advised although the photograph of subject HERNANDEZ MACHADO was a perfect likeness of what CELSO HERNANDEZ looked like at the time the picture was taken, he realized he could have mistaken the photograph as being that of a person he saw in Opa Locka, Florida, since the photograph was taken a few years ago. JULIO BRINGUIER advised that HERNANDEZ MACHADO told him he was never connected with a bus company, nor did he ever drive a bus in Cuba or anywhere else.

-C-

DETAILS:

On October 31, 1963, SARA ARRIZURIETA, 129 West 8th Street, Hialeah, Florida, stated she was formerly employed by the same bus company in Havana as was CELSO SALVADOR HERNANDEZ MEDINA. She advised she arrived in the United States on January 25, 1963, and that during the entire year of 1962 she had been an employee of the Allied Bus Cooperative in Havana, Cuba, as was CELSO SALVADOR HERNANDEZ MEDINA. She stated she had seen HERNANDEZ MEDINA in Havana, in January, 1963, just prior to her departure in for the United States. She further advised that HERNANDEZ MEDINA is a much younger man than the individual in the photograph.

F12, Cuba
On October 31, 1963, FELIPE ALONSO, 836 S.W. First Street, Miami, stated most emphatically that the individual in the photograph, who was CELSO MACARIO HERNANDEZ MACHADO, was not identical with CELSO SALVADOR HERNANDEZ MEDINA. He stated that he had been acquainted with HERNANDEZ MEDINA since 1948 and had worked with him for a number of years as a fellow employee at the Allied Bus Cooperative in Havana, and was certain that CELSO SALVADOR HERNANDEZ MEDINA and CELSO MACARIO HERNANDEZ MACHADO are not one and the same individual. He also advised HERNANDEZ MEDINA is a much younger man than HERNANDEZ MACHADO.

It should be noted that the names of the two individuals are different as well as their general background. Another indication they are not one and the same individual is the difference in age.

On December 18, 1963, ERNESTO ARRIZURIETA FERNANDEZ, 467 State Street, Brooklyn, New York, was interviewed at his place of employment as elevator operator at 39 West 67th Street, New York City. He furnished the following information:

When he first came to the U.S. in 1962, he personally saw an individual at Opa-Locka, Florida, in August, 1962, known to him as CELSO HERNANDEZ. He knew no other name of this individual. He knew this individual to be a Communist who had joined the Orthodox Party in Cuba and that he was employed by the Allied Base Syndicate as a driver in Cuba. He also knew that this individual had a son studying in Russia. He described this individual as being approximately 42 years of age, 5'5", 185 pounds, black wavy hair, black mustache and constant smoker of cigars. He has since received letters from friends of his in Cuba informing him that this person whom he saw in Opa-Locka, Florida, in August, 1962, is presently in Cuba and employed at Transporte Nacional, Personnel Department, San Jose y Belascoain 362, Havana. He has a niece named SARA ARRIZURIETA who formerly worked with this person in Cuba and last saw him in January 1963.

He feels quite certain that the individual referred to above was actually seen by him in Opa-Locka, Florida, in August, 1962. He does not know what disposition was made of this person. A photograph of an individual named CELSO MACARIO HERNANDEZ MACHADO, exhibited to him by the FBI, was a perfect likeness of what this person named CELSO HERNANDEZ looked like at the time the picture was taken. He never did know the full name of this person and realizes that he could have mistaken the photograph as being that of the individual he saw in Opa-Locka, Florida, since the photograph was taken a few years ago.

On February 5, 1964, JULIO BRINGUIER, owner of Casa Roca, a novelty store located at Decatur and Canal Street, New Orleans, advised that HERNANDEZ MACHADO told him that he was never connected with any bus company nor did he ever drive a bus in Cuba or anywhere else. He further stated that HERNANDEZ MACHADO told him he was not aware of anyone by the name of CELSO HERNANDEZ, who was employed in such a position.

BRINGUIER said that HERNANDEZ MACHADO stated he had been employed at the Public Works in Cuba, but added again that he had never been employed by any bus company.
