(JFK)

On February 19, 1958, Lt. Col. MARIANO FAGET, General Director of Investigation of the Cuban Bureau for Repression of Communist Activity and a valuable contact of this office, advised that the Cuban Government, and his agency in particular, has been considering captioned individual for possible employment as a public relations representative in Washington, D. C.

Col. FAGET advised that this individual has his office at Suite 1224 Wyatt Building, Washington, D. C., and claims to be a registered representative of the Nicaraguan Government. FAGET requested assistance of this office in obtaining background information on DAVIDSON. Inasmuch as FAGET is a valuable contact, it is requested that any information in Bureau files which might be made available to him concerning this individual be forwarded to this office. It is noted that Bureau letters to Havana dated October 2 and December 7, 1950, refer to one IRVING DAVIDSON who may be identical with captioned individual.
