Periodic Activity Report
962 L

Presumably Dec 1963.

B. PAMELA

In addition to the regular bi-weekly schedules held on 10 and 24 November, a special schedule was held on 29 November, as was done in the case of AMAPOLA.

Among various matters dealt with in the message transmitted on 10 November, one, in particular, was of high interest/ This was the request for a man to be chosen to handle communications in cases of emergency, inasmuch as it would be more difficult to accomplish this as "the struggle worsens." An exhaustive report on all aspects of counterrevolutionary groups and activities was also requested of the agent.

On 24 November (1963), as in the case of AMAPOLA, a special code was set up to enable "A--CH" (illegible) to report by cable directly to drops in Cuba on the situation in Puerto Rico after the assassination of President Kennedy. "SANTOS", the agent ~~was~~ who actually receives all messages transmitted to PAMELA was to contact "AB--N" (illegible) and have him report on the development of any of the following situations: (1) - if a contingent of "GUSANO" Cubans has arrived there; (2) - if mobilization of resident "GUSANO" Cubans is noticed; (3) if mobilization of U.S. forces is noticed; (4) - if the Cubans who arrived and those who were there before have "developed circulation;" (5) - if activities of repressive organs against popular forces have increased. A special transmission was scheduled for the following Thursday at the same time.

As there were no adverse developments in the situation after the President's death, this subject was not dealt with in the special transmission made on 29 November (1963).

C. ROBERTO

(Para 3) On 25 November the agent was asked to report on the reaction to the assassination of President Kennedy by governmental, right-wing and left-wing circles. The agent was also asked to report of the status of plans of aggression against Cuba.

A. AMAPOLA CUIS AGENT IN THE U.S.

(Para 5) Cuban authorities were obviously concerned about reactions and possible repercussions against Cuba as a result of President Kennedy's assassination. In the message of 24 November a special code was set up for the agent by which he could report by cable to Havana any unusual activities such as "YANKEE" concentrations, mercenary concentrations, increase in repression of Cuban and leftist sympathizers, and any disappearance of active counterrevolutionaries. In addition a special schedule was set up for Wednesday, 27 November. The purpose of this schedule was undoubtedly to pass special instructions to the agent in case developments arising after the assassination adversely affected Cuba. A full report via Candi (probably in secret writing) was requested on the reaction of the "GUSANOS" (Cuban exiles) and the Republicans to Kennedy's death. -----

For information on Candi and a possible ~~identification~~ identification of Candi, refer to the Cuban teltaps. The taps show that the wife (~~Marta~~ Marta) of a known DGI officer, Oscar CONCEPCION Mendoza made the following statement: Tell LLAGOSTERA to tell Oscar not to forget the Candy. This statement is decidedly non-sequitor in the context of the conversation.

V. STATION CRYPTANALYSIS ACTIVITY1. Crypt School

Regularly scheduled clandestine voice broadcasts continue to be made to agents ANACON, PANDA and ANACON. The only other message noted in voice broadcasts was "POLICE LINE" and "END".

Dec 65

2. ANACON

In the transmission of 3 November, the agent control section in Havana requested that the agent was using information in his secret writing messages for which to gain both voice and text messages in Havana. Information was requested on one "BUTTA" in order to determine the name (in Cuba) in which he was located.

On 16 November, the agent was told that the plan to deliver $3,000.00 to the agent (see message transmitted on 1 October 1963) in New York had been cancelled. The plan is now to be delivered personally, supposedly in Mexico, Canada, after 20 January 1964. The agent was instructed to acknowledge receipt of the book "WAL, JAZZ" which was sent to agent, and of his letter drops (see message transmitted on 20 October), by sending a cable to the "Terror is well." Personal and family information regarding his new drop in Mexico was also included. This was done (Jama), his son Felix, and grandchildren, Maria, Sofia, Consuelo, and Tereza. This information was to aid the agent in writing extensive overt texts as a security measure in covering the secret writing included in such letters.

On 17 November, the agent was instructed to befriend Domingo Carriga with the ultimate aim of recruiting him for the cause of the revolution. Carriga works in an office at 57 N. W. 11th (actual address - 2007 West Flagler Street, Miami) and handles matters such as visas, visas, and travel. The agent was instructed to proceed very cautiously with the matter, guarding his true objective, and to find out all that he could about the subject. Carriga reportedly is devoted to helping the revolution and has access to information. His wife, Maria, was also labeled a "PROTESTANT." Again, a request was made for plain text values of information that the agent was using which were not held by official information and to proceed on the latest activities of Carlos Garcia.

The Agent was cautioned not to use secret writing, or discuss important matters, when writing to Garcia until further notice. Luita was moving and the agent was instructed not to write to her any more. As a point of interest, regarding Santiago Garija, the office in which he works is shared with the "Blanco Driving School." The owner of this enterprise is a Cuban named Roberto Blanco. On the evening of 27 November, a stick of dynamite was placed on the ledge of the large window in the front of the office. According to newspaper accounts of the incident, the window was damaged and the furniture inside was slightly damaged as a result of the explosion. He was not present in the office at the time, and it is not known if the act was committed against Garija or the owner of the driving school.

Cuban authorities were obviously concerned about reactions and possible repercussions against Cuba as a result of President Kennedy's assassination. In the message of 24 November, a special code was set up for the Agent by which he could report by cable to Havana any unusual activities such as "YATTA" conversations, secondary conversations, increase in repression of Cuban and leftist sympathizers, and any disappearance of active counterrevolutionaries. In addition, a special schedule was set up for Wednesday, 27 November. The purpose of this schedule was undoubtedly to pass special instructions to the Agent in case developments arising after the assassination adversely affected Cuba. A full message via cable (probably in secret writing) was requested on the occasion of the "YATTA" (Cuban office) and the departure to Kennedy's death. Havana acknowledged receipt of the instructions it had been lacking. Additional information of Garija was also included. He was born two hundred and seven years ago, his home address is "1505 N.E. Street (RIG)" and his telephone number is 28-64-11. He has two married daughters, one named Lily who was placed for a Miami divorce and more for being a "YATTA".

The special transmission mentioned in the preceding message was made at the regular hour and on the usual frequency. The message was not deciphered and the term "secretly stated" must mean the message to be transmitted to the Agent on that day.

In addition to the regular biweekly sessions held on 12 and 24 November, a special session was held on 23 November, as was done in the case of A-9PMA.

Among various matters dealt with in the session transmitted on 12 November, 1941, in particular, was one of high interest. This was the request for a plan to be drawn up to handle communications in case of emergency, inasmuch as it would be very difficult to accomplish this as "an emergency measure." An immediate report on all aspects of commercial radio, many groups and activities was also requested of the agent.

On 24 December, as in the case of AMBAMA, a special cable was set up to enable "ATKA" to report by cable directly to Diego in Cuba on the situation in Puerto Rico after the continuation of President Kennedy. "ATKA", the agent who actually receives all messages transmitted to AMBAMA, was to contact "ATKA" and have his report on the development of any of the following situations: (1) - if a contingent of "CUBANS" comes has arrived there; (2) - if mobilization of Puerto Rican "CUBANS" is noticed; (3) - if mobilization of U.S. troops is noticed; (4) - if the Cubans who arrived and those who were there before have "developed circulation"; (5) - if mobilization of revolutionary weapons against popular forces have increased. A special transmission was scheduled for the following Thursday at two o'clock.

As there were no adverse developments in the attention after the President's death, this subject was not dealt with in the special transmission made on 29 November. Ruseud, both in letters were covered in this message. The Dominican, José E. Vilma, of the 14 of June Party, was allowed to present himself at the Cuban Embassy in Mexico. José E. Salcedo, of the 13P (Party), was not given clearance (to do the same) until the matter was discussed with Paulo, because not enough data was held on him. The matter of Mario de la Cruz was approved and the agent was to indicate the route and date of the trip. The agent was requested to purchase $200.00 worth of internal revenue stamps from Santa Fe, in communications of $50.00. Paulo was to reply the agent (LNU) for this expenditure. Maria was to communicate all the foregoing matters in detail to Paulo, so that the right be discussed fully in New York.

1. SUMMARY

This agent traveled to an undisclosed country from San Jose, Costa Rica to meet "our man" from Havana. While he was away on this trip, a busy message of thirty groups length was transmitted on two of his regular schedules. The first of these messages was transmitted on his regular schedule for 4 November. The busy message was also transmitted on his next regular schedule on 11 November. The purpose of these busy messages was to cover the absence of the agent and make it appear that normal communications were being maintained with the agent during this time.

On 11 November, radio traffic was again passed to this agent. During this briefing, mention was made for a report on the trip. The agent was also asked to report on the situation and the possibilities of a coup d'etat (country unspecified). The cryptic phrase "cavalry is pending" (HALL IN PLAIN ENGLISH) was included in the text without further explanation. The meaning of this phrase is unknown. As much as Havana obviously did not know when the agent was returning to Costa Rica, he was advised that if he received the busy message passed on 11 November, he was to disregard it, as it was not valid.

On 15 November, the agent was asked to report on the situation to the assassination of President Kennedy by communist, right-wing, and left-wing radicals. The agent also asked to report on the status of plans of aggression against Cuba.

2. WIRE LINE NOTICES

The only voice transmissions intercepted other than the three regular and established activities noted in the preceding sections were those which used the callup "TRIGPS WASH DC-100." On 11 November, at 1500-1502, a 60 group message was transmitted on the primary frequency of 7.022 Mc, and repeated on the secondary frequency of 7.10 Mc. Normal communication procedure was utilized, with the exception that no sign off was sent on the secondary transmission. The message was taken from the station and they remained in place for transmission in the general Havana area.

later on 21 November, at 1500Z-1600Z, a 47 group message was transmitted with the same call. Again, normal procedure was followed, with the exception that there was a sign off at the secondary transmission. On 23 November at 1500Z-1600Z a 71 group message was transmitted on the primary frequency of 70.5 and repeated on the secondary frequency of 71.5. Again, no sign off was noted at the secondary transmission. On 25 November, at 1500Z-1600Z, an 81 group message was transmitted on the primary frequency of 70.5 and repeated on the secondary frequency of 71.5. As in prior instances, no sign off was noted at the end of the secondary transmission. The messages appear to be valid, and attempts to recover the system and keys have been unsuccessful as of this time. The nature of operation tends to identify this activity as being a radio intercept of CUB 5000, a warning net which usually has operation on normal hours only. (This net is covered in another section of the writing on clandestine activities) This activity does not appear to have any connection with past activity using the call "FIVE LIPS LIPS." As can be noticed, the transmitting calls are different.

Additional information from NSA indicates there was one other clandestine voice transmission made during the month. This was the single callout "LIP" asking for a readability check, with no further delay period. This transmission was made on 30 November at 0100Z on 70.5.
