The Honorable Robert G. Torricelli
Ranking Minority Member
Subcommittee on the Western Hemisphere
Committee on International Relations
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Mr. Torricelli:

In response to your letter of February 28, 1995 regarding the whereabouts of Mr. Gilberto Lopez, we have examined Agency records and have found no reference to his activities after his departure from Mexico in November 1963. With regard to the Cuban Ambassador to Mexico, Joaquin Hernandez de Armas, our information is that he remained Cuba's Ambassador to Mexico. He was recalled to Cuba in July 1970 to attend the ending of the sugar cane harvest. Our records reflect that he died in Cuba in September 1972.
