From: National Archives and Records Administration

Subject: Reconstructed FBI File BH 66-2280, Serials 39-40 and 1st NR 40

To: The File

This memorandum briefly summarizes the status of missing original Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) case files or portions of case files in the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection (JFK Collection) and documents the National Archives and Records Administration's (NARA) efforts to reconstruct these records, where possible, from duplicate copies of documents located in other FBI files.

As the JFK Collection was first compiled and reviewed in the 1990s, the Assassination Records Review Board and the FBI designated some records as "not believed relevant" (NBR) or "not assassination related" (NAR). The FBI retained custody of the NBR/NAR records and postponed their transfer to NARA until a later date. Every document or group of documents ("serials"), however, received an indexed Record Identification Form (RIF) and FBI inventory sheet for insertion into the JFK Collection.

After an extensive search, neither the FBI nor the National Archives could locate a small number of NAR documents or case files.

This compilation represents NARA's efforts to reconstruct the original file or portions of the file, as completely as possible, with duplicate copies of documents located in the FBI field office and headquarters files within the JFK Collection. Each reconstructed file or compilation contains a Record Identification Form, an explanatory cover memo, existing administrative documents available within the JFK Collection, and copies of identified duplicate documents. The table below summarizes the status of FBI file BH 66-2280 Serials 39 through 40 and 1st NR 40.

RIF Number	FBI File Number	List of Serials From Inventory Sheet	List of Identified Serials at NARA	Reconstructed Status (None, Partial, Complete)

$500 Worth Of What?

The Citizens Council of America, which used to be called the White Citizens Council, is an organization which, despite the dropping of the racial adjective, still seems primarily interested in promoting white supremacy.

The Alabama State Sovereignty Commission is a legislatively created agency which spends $100,000 a year from the public treasury.

Executive Secretary Eli Howell's rationalization notwithstanding, the Sovereignty Commission's spending of $500 for a survey to be conducted by the Citizens Council (with another $500 still to be spent) is highly questionable use of tax funds, some portion of which is paid by Negro citizens of Alabama.

Howell said the Citizens Council is to conduct a survey "on specific questions related to a general understanding of the basic principle of constitutional government and the basic premises of a free society."

He said that the commission hopes to get other viewpoints, but acknowledged that "our objective in this case is not to get a controlled response, but one that will reflect a conservative viewpoint."

In other words, the Citizens Council is getting tax money to conduct a "survey" to establish a predetermined position—which is a curious way to conduct a poll, even aside from the questionable allocation of public funds.

If the Sovereignty Commission wants a conservative view on constitutional government, etc., it can get it from people a whole lot more qualified as conservative spokesmen than the Citizens Council; and it can get it a whole lot cheaper.
