RE: Jack Anderson column -- Agency identifies Mr. X as Veciana. Indicates Veciana was first contacted by agency personnel in Dec 1960 when he asked COS in Havana, James A. Noel, to help in the assassination plot against Castro. Noel did not encourage him/ 11/23/61 the Miami Herald published an account of the unsuccessful attempt by Veciana, who reportedly arranged to assassinate Castro and Cuban Pres. Dorticos on 10/5/61 in Havana, but the bazooka he was using failed to fire.

POA granted Jan 62; expired Nov 62, for use in para-military affairs. 7/23/62 Veciana interviewed by Harry Real in New York DCD office. Asked Real to arrange meeting with senior CIA officer to discuss plan to assassinate Castro and to request CIA assistance. NO indication this request was ever acted upon by CIA.

Registered in ISR in Nov 62 and terminated without prejudice in July 1966.

April 1966, John R. Lucy, using alias John Livingston, met Veciana in NYC. Meeting arranged by retired naval officer James Cogswell, who had informed chief/ WH division, that he had information of value concerning Cuba. After Lucy introduction to Veciana, Veciana launched into discussion of assassination of Castro. Lucy said he was in no position to encourage Veciana. Veciana then mentioned his roommate in PR, Felix Zabala, who had excellent contacts in Cuba. Using this onfo to get agency support; requested $50,000. Lucy said he would look into Zabala matter, and arrange to have Zabala contacted in PR.

Executive meeting of SFNE-MRP-Alpha 66 held 10/13/65, attended by Veciana. Purpose to try to persuade Veciana to join the alliance again. Efforts to no avail. Veciana employed in PR in Christmas card business, said he had collaborated with SNFE because of his confidence in Menoyo, but had no confidence in present leaders.

Armando Fleites Diaz reportedly told Veciana he had prepared plans for attack on Cuba, but forced to suspend them because of Castro's open door policy.

Veciana reported resigned from alliance 6/1/65.
Menoyo captured and imprisoned in Cuba 1/65.

-- UFGA 21845/6 4/1/65 Bio data report

Veciana graduate of Habana School of Business Administration. Employed as CPA for Banco Financiero, loan company owned by Julio Lobo.; little knowledge English. Employed at Cuban national Bank 1956-57. Described as dark, of medium height, very thin, intense, active, nervous, speaks rapidly. Associated with action groups, but specialist in fund-raising and organization for alpha 66, really financial section for SFNE. Ordered to be restricted to Dade City in 1963 for being connected with hit-and-run activities. Claims liberal philosophy but biographer doubts whether he has any political philosophy at all.

-- UFG-7174 5/7/65

Veciana talked into temporarily withdrawing resignation from alliance by Aurelio Nazario Sargent, member of SFNE. Nazario said resignation now would have disastrous consequences to alliance. Will stay on in name only; resign when announcement won't hurt alliance.
