Reference is made to your letter dated October 19, 1970, your reference (OSIIE 07D127-0/12), suggesting an induced operation against the Cuban Intelligence Service (CuIS) in which an airman would walk into the Cuban Mission to the United Nations and offer a document for sale. (S)

This agency appreciates the interest which motivated this proposal. We believe, however, that such an operation currently possesses minimal chance of success and, therefore, cannot recommend same. (U)

As you are aware, the Orson Marfa operation also directed against the CuIS has utilized similar contact with the CMUN since 1968 without success to date. While Marfa has made no overt gestures to the Cubans, such as offering documents for sale, his military status and location, coupled with his Cuban background, combine to make him a most desirable target for the CuIS. (S)

Of yet more significance, insofar as any current approach to the CMUN is concerned, is the recent persona non grata (png) action taken by the United States Government against two CMUN officials, both of whom were connected with the CuIS.
This action will undoubtedly affect CuIS operations in the United States for many months to come, especially those emanating from the CMUN. In such an atmosphere, it is felt "walk-ins" at the CMUN will be regarded with the utmost suspicion for some time to come. (S) (S)

NOTE:

Operation proposed by OSI closely parallels our counterintelligence case involving Orson Marfa (OSI code name for TP 483-S), a Cuban-born airman currently assigned to McCoy Air Force Base, Orlando, Florida. Under our direction, with support of OSI, Marfa since 1968, has visited and corresponded with both the CMUN in New York City and the Czech Embassy in Washington, D.C. without attracting the attention of the CuIS. The pending action refers to the expulsion on 10/9/70 by U.S. Government of CMUN officials, Rogelio Rodriguez Lopez and Orlando Prendes Gutierrez, both of whom have been identified by us as CuIS officers. In response to OSI request for our feelings relative to proposed "walk-in" operation, we are going on record as positively opposed to same. (S) (S)

REPLY TO
ATTN OF: [OSIIE 07D127-0/12] (S)

19 OCT 1970

SUBJECT: Proposed Induced Operation (U)

TO: Honorable J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Attn: Domestic Intelligence Division

1. (S) Orson Marfa (File: 22D127-19) is the OSI cover name for a dangle operation which has been directed mainly against the Cuban Intelligence Service (CubIS) since May 1967. Except for a recent indication from an FBI source that a CubIS representative assigned to the Cuban Mission to the United Nations (CubMUN) showed an interest in Subject, there has been no positive input to indicate CubIS interest. However, intelligence information developed by your agency has showed that the CubIS has displayed intelligence interest in at least two Air Force bases in Florida, MacDill AFB and Homestead AFB.

2. (S) In view of the known CubIS interest in the above bases, the apparent future of the Marfa dangle operation, and the present lack of any viable operation involving USAF assets, we would like to determine your feelings concerning initiating an induced operation against the CubIS. We believe that a young, low ranking airman, Cuban born or of Cuban descent, who is or could be in the future stationed at Homestead AFB or MacDill AFB would fit our purposes. The asset, motivated by either monetary and/or ideological considerations, would walk into the CubMUN and offer a document for sale. A more detailed scenario would be developed once an asset is identified and recruited.

3. (S) The objectives of this operation would be to determine the EEIS as they apply to USAF installations, the degree of cooperation between the CubIS and the Soviet Intelligence Service, and the techniques the CubIS would use in handling USAF espionage assets.
