During the initial interview with MIGUEL ANTONIO SANCHEZ RAMOS, he advised that (FNU) MENOYO was a Spaniard and a Communist from way back, and that he was in Cuba, and Major on the Escambray front. In about August, 1959, SANCHEZ was in JOHNNY ABBES' Office, when ABBES said, "MENOYO is with us." (u)

On January 13, 1961, SANCHEZ was reinterviewed by SAS STEVE D. EVANS and HEINRICH VON ECKARDT, at which time he elaborated on the original information given concerning MENOYO. (u)

There is enclosed an FD 302, dated January 17, 1961, in which SANCHEZ further identified MENOYO as captioned subject. (u)

A review of the New York Office Indices reflect that MENOYO is the subject of an IS-CUBA investigation in the Miami Office, and all information in the New York files has either been made available to Miami or is actually from investigative activity in the Miami area. (u)

SANCHEZ also made available two photographs of an individual in an army uniform bearing the caption, "ELOY GUTIERREZ MENOYO." SANCHEZ, however, is not positive that this photograph is identical with the MENOYO that he has mentioned above, in view of the fact that he has never seen, this individual. This photograph is being enclosed for whatever assistance it may be to the Miami Office. (X)(u)
