DISPATCH

MAUD: We have never discussed about people from Austria.

ALEX: Because we had no idea how to contact them.

MAUD: Yes, and also, because this was supposed to be a small meeting.

ALEX: Now it's smaller than small.

MAUD: Yes.

ALEX: There is a possibility to have a representative of the Austrian Cent-Organizations of Trade Unions. I have friends from Austria and I think

..... (Maud and Alex exchange several comments--ca

Bertil leaves for Parliament.

ALEX: ... (something about Hungary, DDR)... Why do you resist every idea I

MAUD: No, but this has to be agreed upon if they send you. I have never ev imagined that somebody would be available from Austria.

ALEX:

0572

MAUD: For instance, here you mention HAROLD (or Hal or Al??) GIBBONS (ph), International Teamsters-- As far as I know, this is JIM HOFFA's trade union.

ALEX: JIM?

MAUD: A real gangster trade union.

ALEX: I don't think so.

MAUD: Well, it is. Haven't you seen that film 'On the Waterfront'? It's mi up with the Mafia.

ALEX: No, they are very decent people.

MAUD: Perhaps this HAROLD GIBBONS (ph)--although I think I've seen that name somewhere and not on our side--because this is the most gangsteric trade union in the U.S.

ALEX: I like gangsters. (Back and forth on this. Then on a more serious lev Maud getting fed up with hearing that ALEX wants a Swedish trade unionist to send out personal invitations to this Prep Meeting.)

0618

ALEX: CURTIS MCLEAN.

MAUD: Well, anybody from the ILWU (International Longshoremen's and Warehouse Union, although your Big BORIS (AVERYANOV) didn't believe for a minute that somebody from there would come.

ALEX: But here CURTIS MCLEAN, did he participate in the Sixth Conference?

MAUD: Yes.

ALEX: Why didn't he come for the special 0629

MAUD: Because your Big BORIS said that this is exactly the trade union--their people--who are building the ships for Vietnam and if the war stops they will be unemployed and therefore in the last period said nothing about Indochina.
