SPECIFIC— Possible PCITLT Propaganda Campaign against U. S. Ambassador to Italy

- 02
1. OVERTURE reported on 28 January that a member of the PCITLT had brought to the attention of the Party a copy of Fiametta, published June 1926 by Nerbini, Via Faenza, Florence, which portrayed a nude girl covered by only a fan. This girl was identified as the American ballerina, Claire Luce.
 2. According to OVERTURE, the PCITLT believes that subject of the photograph may be identical with the United States Ambassador to Italy and is making inquiries of l'Unita in Rome relative to possible publication of the photograph.
