2. [REDACTED]

3. During recent investigation of Subject, certain information was developed which appears to reflect adversely upon his character, professional activities and associates. This information, in addition to checks of the Office of Security indices, is summarized as follows:

a. Three developed informants commented favorably regarding Subject's character, reputation and loyalty but one informant stated that Subject had been married three times and his present marriage almost ended in divorce recently.

b. Subject was fined $45 for a 1954 traffic violation and his subsequent failure to appear at the hearing. One informant advised Subject had recently been the object of inquiries by local police officers. The informant believed this action resulted from unpaid parking tickets.

c. Subject's name appears numerous times in subversive files on the West Coast. These items contain information about Subject's activities in the Democratic Minority Conference and lists his professional associates. In 1949 he was listed as a member of the Bar committee against loyalty oaths for lawyers. He was shown as a close associate of Vanio SPENCER, described by the files as a leftist, and his activities were primarily concerned with local minority groups. These activities were extensively reported in the Communist Daily People's World.

d. Mrs. Vanio SPENCER represented Tassia FREED, a non-cooperative witness before the HCUA. Tassia FREED is the wife of Emil FREED, an admitted Communist member. Security Office indices also reflect that Emil FREED is an admitted Communist Party member and took part in various front activities in California over the years.

e. The Subject reportedly assisted Ralph H. NUTTER during the trial of Anthony P. RIGG and Alfred ULIOA, members of the Community Service Organization. NUTTER, according to Security Office indices, was a close personal friend of Harrison Scott BROWN, security disapproved in 1955, and favorably recommended him. NUTTER is also shown as a member of the Los Angeles County Conference on Committee Relations (LACCR) as of October 1953. This organization, although not regarded as Communist-dominated, sticks close to the Communist line and has spoken out against Los Angeles Police Department brutality, teacher firing, loyalty oaths, book-burning and witch-hunting by HCUA, thought control and UNESCO. NUTTER was also a member of the Community Service Organization, which was regarded as infiltrated by the Communist Party in 1954-55 and is influenced but not dominated by the Party at the present time.

f. In January 1959, the Subject was interviewed by a representative of the OSI concerning his association with Reinhold Joshua WULF, con-
