CARL HEACH HOSPINGS

Chief of Station, Buenos Aires

Chief, SB via Chief, WH Division REDTOP/AEXICK/AEBOOR Operational Possibilities against ABBOOR

Reference: IICSW 7866, 11 February 1969

- 1. With the departure of AEBOOR and his wife on home leave, we would like to offer a few comments about him for possible future action by the Station when he returns. The impetus for these thoughts was a recent examination of the files of all those Soviets on the priority target last to determine if, perhaps, one of them offers more of a potential for intensive development than another. The purpose of this review was not to discard the agreed-upon target list, since this list is the rationale behind the entire conceut of selective targetting; but rather, to attempt a narrowing of the Station's focus on the one particular Soviet who appears to be the best selection for operational development among the priority group. We have looked at such factors as susceptibilities (known or potontial), contacts, accossibility, etc. and, for reasons discussed below, feel that AEBOOR may be the best solection for a determined Station effort mised at his eventual recruitment. Thus, the Station's focus on the other priority Soviets would continue at its present level but at the same time, ABBOUR would be placed "under the microscope" as the object of a more intensive Station effort simed et gaining multiple accoss to him.
- 2. With the imminent departure of BIBANDIT/12 from Buenos Airee and the resulting elimination of our one good contact with AUVULTURB, the choice of AUUOUR became easier to make. His selection, however, was based on several considerations which, from our vantage point, seem to offer the bast potential for Station action when he returns to the country.
 - a. Accompibility: ABBOOR is one of the very few Soviets with whom direct Staffer contact has been made. The social evening spone with him and his wife in January showed excellent promiso because it appeared that foundations for rapport and Rurther contact had been laid. We note, however, that there has been no mention ... further meetings since the initial one, Rour and one-half menths ago. Due to the elapsed time, we assume that Subject and his wife are not planning to reciprocate the invitation; on the other hand, enough time will have passed since the initial contact for the Station to take the initiative again and instigate a second meeting soon after Subject returns from home leave. Since there are no other access agents now in touch with Subject, the potential for assessment of our target personality by direct Staffer contact becomes crucial in the selective targetting procedure. Through the advantages of direct assessment, we should be able to make a good judgment concerning the susceptibilities (or lack thereof) of ALBOOR and accordingly, determine the value in pursuing him as a priority target.

The impressions of ABBOOR and his wife from the one meeting thusfar seem to offer some possible avenues of approach which the Station may wish to consider in their planning. in particular, was described as being more relaxed than ABBOOR and through her professed interest in theatre, mus and ballet, it might be possible for Nina T. MARGANDE to exploit this interest and invite her to selected cultural If ALBOOR does not share his wife's proclivities for the "arts", then she might appreciate the presence of a female companion who shares her interests. AbBOOR's wife also claimed to like both American songs and dancing. This too, might open the door to some form of imaginative approach too, might open the door to some form or imagence to built around a future invitation whereby the incipient social depth needed for a thorough assessment of the target. Culti-Vation of the wife appears to be particularly appropriate because of the apparent conflicts and tensions between her and her husband. The accounts of this relationship from their Tevious tour in Mexico and also the current transcripts from ABLANYARD paint a picture of an irascible and foul-mouthed husband constantly doing battle with a dominoring wife. It seems likely that the impression of "sweetness and light" watch they generated during their evening with the Station case officers was atypical and manufactured for the benefit of their hosts. This, of course, is natural with most couples who choose not to air their personal differences in public, but from our point of view, this lack of harmony between ABBOOR and his wife offers distinct possibilities for the Station to contact the wife independently and offer her welcome diversions from the regimented and turbulent life with her husband. (We call your attention to the reference since it may provide some useful points in devising an approach to ABBOOR's wife). Their present home leave in the USSR would seem to offer a ready-made situation for renewed contact when they return sinds natural curiosity about their activities and time spent at home could be sufficient grounds for an invitation either to both or singly to spend an evening together We offer those thoughts only because they appear to us as good opportunities not only to maintain Staffer contact with a target of priority interest, but to also develop this contact further to the dogses of intimacy needed for a recognition and withatig exploitation of his susceptibilities.

ABBOOK, we suggest, as a supplement to the direct Staffer contact and in order to obtain additional assessments of Subject from other angles, the Station consider "running" a controlled asset into AULOOR under suitably contrived circumstances. In other words, we would create a relationship where none previously existed. By this device, we are not suggesting a double agent operation in which our agent offers himself for recruitment; on the contrary, the rationale is simply to move a controlled asset into the path of the target and attempt to establish a contact through a commonth bond of social or business interests. If we agree that ABBOOK can be brought under a zero intensive acruetiny than the other Soviets, then this play would be a logical step in his development as a recruitment target if additional access to him is non-existent.

- d. AVDEFTH: The ability to monitor ABBOOR through this technical operation was a key factor in deciding to bring him under closer focus. It should be able to provide the necessary depth to any human assessment of the target and it gives us the singular opportunity to "observe" ABBOOR when he is relaxed at home and not exhibiting the official mannerisms and personality which he must display in public and around his other Soviet colleagues. If we are able to expand the burgeoning Staffer contact with Subject as well as place access agents in touch with him, then his reactions to these contacts can be monitored and our moves against him tailored accordingly.
- 3. As part of the total effort to build up a large amount of information on the selected target, we are including as an attachment, a copy of the new Personality Characteristic Questionnairo (PCQ) with instructions for its use. By employing it in conjunction with your direct assessment of AlbOOR, we should be able to slowly build up enough information on him so that the indirect psychological assessment techniquican also be applied. The PCQ is a new form and less time-consuming than others but we believe it should be an integral part of the entire assessment process focused on a target Soviet and that it can be an invaluable aid in attempting to evaluate the varied impressions of the target which have been obtained from multiple access to him. An initial review of the PCQ may give the impression that many of the questions are irrelevant and have no bearing on the determination of a persons susceptibility to manipulation. The questionnaire should not be perused piecemeal, however, but taken in its entirety since each portion will be interpreted and weighted by the indirect psychological assessment techniques until a very complete impression of the total personality emerges. We encourage the Station to utilize the PCQ and when sufficiently complete, forward it to Headquerters for evaluation.
- 4. Once again, we wish to emphasize that Headquarters is in a position to offer guidance and support to your efforts, but the direction of the case rests with the Station. The case officer involved is in the best spot to judge the progress of the case and make decisions accordingly. For this reason, we encourage a continuous and candid dialogue, concerning the various aspects of your eperations against the selected Soviet targets in order to insure prefessional development of each case. If our choice of ABBOOR is at wariance with your on-the-spot assessment of the priority Soviets, then we would appreciate your appraisal of him as well as any suggestions about a more logical candidate for closer focus.

((Readability is very poor. Music is playing very loudly.))

A., B., and C. continue their conversation. ((Reel 4))

They talk about clothing and dinner jackets. C. says he does not own a dinner jacket, and adds, "But according to regulations, I...

By official government regulations, a counselor is provided/allowed ((to have a dinner jacket)). I'll tell you, there are some people who think I don't know this. They keep quiet about it... but I'm embarrassed to say..." B. comments, "You chould have one made, and that's all." C. says that when he needed a dinner jacket, he talked to the Ambassador about it. He adds, "Concerning the dinner jacket, he ((the Ambassador)) said, 'Drive over; you have... well, get it from ALPERYEV.' That's an Ambassador!" ((Short portion unreadable.))

B. remarks, he ((probably the Ambassador)) is a etrange man."

They continue talking about dinner jackets. A. says that some diplomata at other embassies also do not have dinner jackets. He says to C., "Why don't you asks the French Ambassador if he what a tail cost..." C. comments, "What a comparison!" A. continues, "By the way, they rent ((tail costs))... Ask the French counsel if he owns a dinner jacket..." C. states, "And you go shead and ask how much they pay as ambassador -- $500, $1,000.

I know they get (26) ((a high salary))." ((Tortica unreadable; all talk at once.)) A. says, "He doesn't have once they rent ((evening clothes.))" C. disagrees, "No, Ivan; you're wrong. That doesn't bother me." A. says, "I realise that." C. explains, "This is a matter of representation ((diplomacy)). If a man has such a difficult, such a difficult... but I know that (XG)." ((Portion unreadable; all talk simultaneously.))

A. invisto, "Everybody rents ((evening elothes)); everybody rents." C. exclaims, "But I'm supposed to have it ((a dinner jacket)) according to the regulations. It's written, it's written. Why should I rent it. If you wish, I'll let you read it ((the regulation)).

A. and C. try to convince each other on the pro and con of renting a dinner jacket.

C. expresses his indignation about the situation and tells of his conversation with the Ambassador about a dinner jacket when they were due to attend a function: "I told him... if I find a dinner jacket... So, you will go ((alone)). You have one. But he asked me, 'But why don't you have one?' I said, 'Yuriy Ivenovich, you yourself know why I don't have one.' He shut up..." Later, B. agrees, "You should have your own ((dinner jacket)).

C. continues to be resentful, and says, "But the man ((unclear who, possibly the Ambausador)) is jealous, so that, I don't know...

that some sort of (?crooked - krivoy?) counsclor will have a dinner jacket. I... ((B. laughs)) I spit on you.... ((probably referring to a supposed critic)). C. adds that he frequently says that "if a dinner jacket is required, I will not go."

The three have a Crink. ((short pause)) They discuss music, and talk about an orchestra which they heard on TV. They comment on tickets which they have received for various concerts. ((Readability is very poor; the TV covers their conversation.)) They talk about the trical artists, the Bolshoi Theatre, and an orchestra. Mention is made of DUNAYEVERIY, the composer, and various records. ((Loud music govers their conversation.)) They talk about Oversakii and Ostropovich. B. flirts a bit with A. and C. All laugh frequently.

Parther, B. changes the subject and speaks irritably about her work. She make A., "Was my work at the Embassy normal, was it normal?" A. states, "It was normal." B. retorts, "Oh... it was normal. Yes, ((nareastically)) it was normal. I did not (30) normally when I was sitting in (?Pavlovich's?) ((not otherwine identified)) office. (20). And I'll tell anyone you please that it ((the work)) was not normal." A.'s brief comment is unrealable.

B. insists angrily, "I'll say it myself. And I won't ask (XG).

I know whom to tell. I'll definitely may it." A. onlis her "s fool!" B. rebukum him, "The word 'fool' is always at the tip of your tongue; 'fool,' 'fool.' All evening, all ovening." A. states, "That's the first time I said it." B. rants, "So, you said it for the first time! Really? You only said it once?"

C. attempts to sooth B., "Well, Ivan didn't want to say anything bad. I'm sure of that ... It isn't that ... It concerns some sort of.,. ((All talk at once -- unreadable)) A. states. "This is none of your business (4G) and I'm not planning to." B. shouts. "Right, so don't put/neat me where you shouldn't -- in the bathroom!" ((figuratively speaking)). C. interrupts, "Rosa, Rosochka, what are you saying!" B. yells, "Well..." C. continues, "Well, Rosa... Ross, mometimes..." B. returts sarcastically, "It's none of my business -- that's the main thing!" C. says, "Ivan is sometimes incorrect/unjust in his attitude toward you ((plural)) but you ((the informal "ty")) understand how difficult it becomes for married (36) ((ronnibly meaning "officials")), Rosa. Rozochka, you shouldn't... you should work some more/longer..." A. repeats to B., "It's none of your business." C. Adds, "You shouldn't be that way ... Later everything will be better." A. remarks, "She's not satisfied ... " C. continues, "Because we/you have to maneuvre somehow. Even if we were wrong, even if we were 100% wrong, you still have to wait. For you to see that we are wrong (1-26). Why is he wrong? Perhaps we are wrong, but there was some sort of precondition/reason for it. It's impossible for us to be wrong. According to his/our character, persuasion, (16)... desire... Do you understand what happens. Rozochka?" A. states. "Do you understand, when they announce ((unknown what)) to them. they have not decerved that. It's always that way... In order to cast asperdions on comeons, it is absolutely necessary (2-30)..." B. protents, "((Even)) if (Pan accusation?) is unjust? All wighti ((But if)) something is well done ... ((express)) some gratitude, if you planne..." C. comments, "Rezochka, don't you see, then the whole thing is that we then (16)." B. retorts, "At least he could have said that they were (?accusing?) me unjustly. At least he could have unid ... " C. mays. "Rosa! But here (20), do you understand, (XG) no auch attention is given. For him here, you understand, (40). He is not alone here. A number of people are there, thin one and that one ((collequial; the fifth and the tenth)). And then perhaps someons ... especially a wife. That becomes mest sensitive/painful. The is sort of the most sincere/frank person. But I wouldn't do it that way. There you are. And she will be correct. However, she did not see the one and the other person

((the fifth and the tenth person)) ... and immediately did not (20) ... It's good at times. My Lord, Galka does that. At times I feel hurt ((but)) I won't say (2G). I won't begin saying it. Sometimes I feel so hurt that (XG)." B. tells C... everything will be clean, when everything will be put in order, then I/you/we can talk about gratitude. But now? ... There's chaos all around! And you talk about gratitude ... ((She sounds incensed)) Everywhere there is (1G)." C. tries to convince her, "Rosa! You shouldn't talk now. Do you understand? It has to be done gradually. After all, there is some sort of restraint/forbearance; there's a line... you have to (10). Rosa! How much more/langer will we (10). As er all, we haven't been together merely for one day. Take Ivan. (50) there are a minimum of 6 to 7 of us men in the Bureau. What I'm saying is that we must respect each other. We think, we discuss. We might make mistakes in something. But, neverthelous. 7 of us men won't be too mistaken as would be someone at (30). And then, a woman will sometimes not see/understand, Rozochka. (XG). Rosa, you shouldn't insult/hurt us that much. We have nerves and they (XG)." A.'s comment is unreadable. B. tells her husband, "Sit, sit, all right!" C. continues trying to convince B. that she shouldn't insult her husband.

A bit further, B. tells C. irritably, "He piles everything on me. You're blaming me, right?" C. continues telling B. to treat her husband better, and says, "I love my Galka very much, and I see that Ivan loves ((you)). I im firmly convinced of that." B. laughe enronationly. O. adds, "(XO) that means to indules ((your husband)). Rosa, how can you do that?" C. continuen, "What do you want to do -- do you want to see/think of your hisband" as a secundrel?" B. replies, "(26) in ((his)) attitude toward his wife." G. Adda, "Or that I should be a scoundrel? I won't be one. If dalka would throw me out. I wouldn't become a secundrel any way. I spit on that. No matter what anybody says about me, I won't become a modurated any way. And I won't be led by the mose by acesod ((Anymirantly, C. helieves that any her husband.)) B. remurks. "I'm talking about (This attitude?) toward his wife." G. states, "And I'm saying that they are scountrela." B. continues, "... personal attitude..."

C. states decisively, "They are scoundrels... Ivan, you shouldn't receive ((or, have anything to do with)) them. On the contrary, you should stay further away from them someplace, as far away as possible." C. continues lecturing B. about changing her attitude Toward her husband.

Further. C. tella B. about an incident which occurred where the were involved, saying that the been given incredients to make meat pastries (piroshki), and that they had not made the meat pastries but had said that the ingredients had spoiled. He asks B., "How could those people do that? What happened to the ingredients? Rozal You have to answer! Please enever!" B. nake, "I should answer?! Let them answer!" C. pays, "Aha... But they don't want to ((answer))." B. asks, "Why should I answer?" C. insists, "Go shead... answert What happened to them. How did they ... "B. says. "I defend them!" O. continues, "What happened to the ingredients? Please answer. They ... someone else, if you please ... Why? Did they take them ((drive them)) someplace? They volunteered to make them. What happened ((to the ingredients)). How did they spoil? When did they spoil? What applied? And where did they drive to? Answer that question. And (?automatically?) they twinted everything around. Do you know what I'm lending up to? And what happened later?" A.'s commont is unreminble. B. states extegorically, "Ivan will trast anything amound..." C. 's comment unreadable. B. reperto, "... he'll twist anything..." C. asks, "And then what about (90)?" A. enys, "This is the very best example..." B. asks, "What did you say ... ?!" A. says something unroadable. B. asks. "Why do you amoribe things to me that I did not may? By the way, your manner has long since been noticed ... has long since been noticed ... " C. trian to interrupt her, but she continues, "... you can blame a person for something he did not say, and you will keep on industing that he said that you (30) me. " A. 's remark is unreadable. B. maye, "... a good relationship. He has a very fine relationship/attitude toward his wife." Farther,

G. anks, "What kind of relationship is that? If I did such a thing, Galka would give me such a lecture... if I permitted such a thing, did such a thing, she would not live with me. She would never permit me to do such a thing -- never would she look ((at me)) if I would be able to do anything so vile." Referring to B.'s statement about the good relationship between the C. says. "How can you say that, how can you give such an example? ((He mimics B. sarcastically)) 'They have such ((a good relationship)); everything is done by them in a friendly manner. ((C. says maliciously)) loza, I despise them ... He continues expressing his indignation. He adds, "They have a four-some; the first are the and then, the ((the four are good friends))." C. says that "westerday I spoke with ((probably about the and the foul up on the meat pastries))." The three of them then calm down, converse quietly, and have a drink. The music covers a part of their conversation. They listen to the muoic and make intermittent comments. Later, A. begins picking on B. and says to C., "She doesn't think. She has been in a huff all evening. Instead of thinking, she ... " C. interrupts, "Vanya, don't talk that way. ((He changes the topic)) Where do you want to go ((take a trip, or trive))? Well, Rozochka... B. yells, "Well, when I get rid of you...! May I state my conclusion/decision, or not? Will that minute ever arrive, or not?" O. tries to calm her. "Rosochka..." B. continues yelling. "It's absolutely impossible ... " C. and B. talk that 'e simultaneously -- unreadable. B. then says correct. After you've talked with him, you leave. But for me this goes on with him eternally, from morning to evening, and during the night. It's absolutely frightening!" C. again tries wo calm her down. B. goen on, "Why should I wait to say what I want to. I say what I please." C. interrupts, "Rosa, Rosonka, Rosa! But all of this in ... B. adds, "He has a malicious soul..." 9. disagrees, "Nothing of the sort; nothing of the sort! He touched upon ((the aubject)); he asked ... " B. snaps back, "He touched upon it. .. so now let him listen to what I'm going to say since he touched upon it. If you object to him ((uncloar)), then shut up..." C. amin tries, "Ross, may I ask one question?" B. says, "You may..." U. begins, "Monce tell ma..." B. starts up again, "He poisons overything ... because even if he says one thing, he poisons overything." C. states, "Oh no... He (20).

I'll tell ((you)) that the nature of women is to exaggerate at times. And I would say not sometimes, but very often, very often. And why do you... don't you think that you (3G), that he is acting badly toward you? Let him make mistakes..."

C. continues soothing and lecturing B, and tries to convince her that her husband isn't so bad. A, remains silent.

C. changes the subject and suggests that Ivan finish his drink. He talks about food and snacks. C. and A. drink up and leave the room. The radio is on. B. is walking around the room, apparently cleaning up. A bit later, she turns off the radio.

A. egrees. B. comes into the room and greets C. very graciously, telling him that they have been waiting for him. Everyone talks at once, joking and laughing. A. calls B. "Rosochka.".

A short portion of the convergation is unreadable because the record player is on as well as a Spanish-language radio program.

Americans then become the topic of conversation. A. says. "They work with anyone, with the good and the bad (a khoroshimi i plokhimi.)" B. states. "It is my impression and opinion that, nevertheless, the imericans semenow understand us better, no to apeak. I don't know ... what to talk about ((or, what someone is talking about)) ... A. rewirks, "I don't understand yet what you are trying to may we that they simply... they (16) us very much. How do they understand ((?us?))?" B. explains, "Well among them there are more such progressives that you find here ... " C. neks. "Than in Washington?" B. continues. " ... Yes, than in Argentina." C. mays, " Ah... you ((informal "ty")) understand, I don't know anything about the USA; I only heard a lot about it. I'm not talking about their popularity right now .. ((Portion unreadable because all talk at once.)) A. says, "I do not agree with you on one thing ((uses the informal "ty"))." C. says, "Ivan, I wasn't there. I'm only anying... B. says, "But here, in general, the people are such. ((they're)) stupid. Right here in (?Argentina"), ((there are)) feetivities, restaurants, and everything. They have (29). Richt?" B. hasn't calmed down/angrily says to her husband, "Everything is falling apart. But you're living in a government-maid apartment. Everything in falling spart. Look, how can it be that way -- the handle. You can see that the handle is falling off; you should sorew it in, if you approach it like a man... Should I be the one to sorew things in... averywhere. 3. In the coming months Buenos Aires Station plans to examine and assess the AELANYARD transcripts with care in an effort to decide whether they truly are worth the great amount of time now devoted to their review by Station officers. It is our present feeling that alternative, hopefully more productive operations against 201-236701 should be considered funless we and/or the BIOGENESIS transcribers develop a greater facility for putting the product into a more meaningful context.

4. We should appreciate receiving any comments or ideas Headquarters may have on the separate cover material.

1. Perserved under separate cover for your information in a copy of a BILOCULAR report of 8 January describing a conversation between Ivan Garrilovich ALFKRYN and Society player Lev TARRIE (DPOB: 23 October 1929, Ensew, Passport 331422). TARRIE and the rest of the Boscow Lynamo team had just arrived at Escina Airport on Varig Flight 845 from Rio and were departing for Santiago on SAS Flight 985 after a layever in Argentina of three and one half hours. The team was on a latin American tour covering Chile, Peru, Colombia, and Equator.

2. During the conversation NGB officer ALFERTS and YASSIB, whom we believe in KGB, show that they are fairly close friends. They also mention mutual friends: Iwas Someowich ARRESPERSO (201-731434), a suspect KGB officer formerly stationed in Argentiza; and Vitally Borisovich ARRESPERS, the former Consul/EGB officer in Chile.

- 1. Subject arrived at 1930 tearing a Russian record as a gift from his wife and a bottle of vodka with a jar of caviar as a gift from himself. He apologized that his wife could not make it that evening because she had to attend a "command performance". Although Subject claims to be under a doctor's care for problems with his stomach and legs (blood pressure problems) and is supposed to avoid use of alcohol for four months, he did accept a drink (Scotch) and then proceeded to chat about various inconsequential topics. At about 2000 MARGANDE dropped in and a general conversation ensued. LEVERONE offered to prepare some Shashlik and Subject stated that it was one of the favorite dishes of his wife. He suggested that perhaps he could pick her up after the "command performance" and bring her to the apartment. This was readily agreed to but since there was an hour and a half remaining before Subject could fetch his wife, we continued with general conversation. The following points concerning Subject's past activity came to light.
 - a. Subject stated that he had spent some time in Argentina in 1958 and that during this time he had had a chance to travel freely and see something of the country. The people were friendlier, politer and less hurried then. He did not go into detail as to what he was doing in Argentina but it appears to have been an official visit.
 - b. His "high point" was Mexico and his fondest memories are of his time spent there. He claims that he was able to travel over the entire country and got to know it better than his own. He also had various close friends in the journalistic field including several Americans (sic). In Mexico he was a PRAVDA correspondent.
 - Length of time during the month when the annual Indian ficuta is held. He diamed to like the place very much and described at length the Indian practice of selling all their produce at the fair and then spending the money on liquor.
 - d. When Subject was ready to leave Mexico he applied for a transit vina to the United States. When its immunee was delayed for some time, he asked the American officials concerned if there were any specific problems regarding the visa or if it was being withheld simply because he was a Soviet. If the latter were the case, he said he would raise the question with the President of the United States (who was visiting Mexico at the time and was going to hold a press conference). Subject claims that as a result of this threat the visa was issued almost immediately. Due to completely fortuitous circumstances, Subject and three other Soviet correspondents met in New York on the 4th of July. LNERGO allegedly became excited about the presence of four Soviet correspondents in New York at one time and carried on a very tight surveillance which was quite annoying. During this time the notes compiled for books on Latin America were stolen from Subject and as a result his literary ambitions have not been realized.

- e. Subject stated that he has a 14-year old son in Moscow and although they miss the boy, there are no adequate schools in Argentina. This is the reason for the separation. In Mexico the Soviet Embassy has provision for the three primary grades. That is where Subject's son started his schooling.
- 2. At 2130 hours Subject left to thek up his wife saying he would be back in about 40 minutes. This was find since it gave MARGANDE and LEVERONE time to get everything prepared for the meal. At 2230 hours Subject called to say they were "on the way" and would be over shortly. At 2315 they arrived at LEVERONE's apartment.
- 3. A general four-way conversation continued during which Subjection and his wife's comments ran as follows:
 - a. Their son in Moscow is studying English and speaks it rather well. He also keeps fish in a 175-liter fish Lank. Subject was unable to recall the sort of fish in question.
 - b. There was a rather lengthy commentary an the system of sending single people abroad for assignment to embassies. Subject's wife was very surprised that the Americans would send single men and women abroad since this was very "dangerous". She stated that the Soviets occasionally sand a single girl to a foreign post but the implication was very strong that she was "well chaperoned".

- c. They were both interested in the linguistic abilities of individuals assigned to the American Embassy and stated that the Americans were often sent abroad with virtually no knowledge of the language whereas the Soviets were always well trained. (Subject's wife managed to get this point across in her halting Spanish and with assistance from her husband whom she kept asking for the Spanish equivalent of Russian words.) Subject did state that the Soviet language training system was not the greatest and seemed to give a point to the U.S. system when MARGANDE said that she had learned her Spanish from tapes and instruction.
- d. Subject and his wife agreed that Buenos Aires is a large, dirty, indifferent city. They talked with nestalgia about their Moscow apartment which was only a ten-minute drive from lovely forests and streams where "a person could really relax". They mentioned that they had a quinta to which they retired on weekends but that the quinta was noisy and full of mosquitos. (MARGANDE and Subject's wife agreed that haid and Off were the most important purchases in Buenos Aires in the summertime.)
- 3. Conversation and listening to music continued until about 0200 hours (with Subject's wife cohing and aching over American songs and arrangements). The evening was friendly and relaxed and there was no attempt to get into deeper political or ideological discussions since the primary purpose was to establish rapport and pave the way for future meetings.
- 4. Given below are MARGANDE's and LEVERONE's impressions of Subject individual with a fairly good sense of humor. He appears to understand a fair amount of English but it is hard to judge his speaking ability since he seems to be reluctant to talk at length in the language. He also appears to know some Georgian. He claims to know the Soviet Union west of the Urals rather well but gives the impression that he has never traveled in the eastern part of the country. From his comments and from observation it can be assumed that he enjoys Mexican and modern American records and perhaps even prefers them to the new, socially conscious Soviet music. His one detracting mannerism is a heavy and constant blink.

Subject's wife: Subject's wife is also attractive and has a warm personality. She dresses well and is interested in theater, music and ballet. She enjoys going to the Colon but thinks the ballet at the Bolshey is much better. She claims to enjoy dancing and apparently does not drink very much. Her Spanish is halting but adequate to make herself understood.

Their Relationship: Subject and his wife appear to be a couple who, if not in love, have grown used to each other and each other's ways.

Despite reports and direct evidence of their squabbling, it would be dangerous to assume that this constitutes a weakness or domestic problem; They appear to rely upon each other and complement each other in social situations to the point where a deeper understanding between them can be assumed. (An interest occurrence was the wife's flat declaration that the Soviet Union was rapidly becoming a matriarchal society. Subject agreed with a smile.) Although Subject does not take open issue with his wife on topics where he may not be in complete accord, he manages to get his point across with a joke and a smile. All in all, Subject and his wife appear to be two that could take part successfully in any social gathering.

MARGANDE thinks they are a "fun couple."

SURMARY OR ACTANYARD TRANSCRIPTS — OCTOBER 1968 (HADA-2008L, 27 November 1968)

Subject appears to be quite hen-pecked. His wife constantly mimics him, tells him what to do and how to six do it, finds fault with him for no apparent reason. She is over-be ring — doesn't give Subject a chance to answer her rhetorical questions before blasting him with accusations of never listening to her good advice.

On 30 Catober 1968 Subject mentioned that he would have to be going to Uruguay. There is no verification of his having made the trip.

Entire transcripts and covering dispatch filed in 74-120-221.

INTRODUCTION

- 1. As related out in Reference A we had hoped to mount an audio operation against 201-236071's (an identified ARTICE officer) apartment when his predecessor departed PCS. We failed in our initial attempt and had decided to wait until 201-236071 left the city for a vacation or a business trip. On 21 May 1968 we learned (via WILOCULAR) that 201-236071 was seeking a new apartment. BIBAFFLE promptly identified the real estate agent (IMMPITY A) responsible for the apartment and on 22 May calisted his cooperation.
- 2. With the sid of IDENTITY A. BIOGRAMMIS-14 and other BIRAFFLE agents onto ou the target apertment and unsurfacek a thorough caming and made photographs. After consultation with the Station, a procine technical plan was verbed ext.

Having gained account, the problem of a cuitable LP presented itself. A quick check of the occupants in the same bailding disclosed that the occupant directly above the target apartment has a military colleague (IDENTITY D) of BICCHEESE 66 (the BIEAFFLE chief). Contact was established immediately and although IDENTITY D was willing to belp, he had already rented the apartment to inother and could not resear. Its agreed however to hild it one sere menth and to great the BIHAFFLE took; access before he twend it over to the new company.

- 4. This still eaching a suitable LP, the BIRATTLEs west about and installed six mines (two socialist "poter" mines—5000 Offic—in such rism, these creating a bisoral installation). The boles were critical from the floor above to the coiling of the target apartment. Once the installative was completed, the target apartment was contered (191-196071 had not yot neved in) and photographs were to be forward them under separate cover as Attaches at B).
- 5. After considerable eserchies, a satisble LP van located at ILESTITE 1 which was few rest. After consistation with Electrical 44, as agreement was reached whereby BIRAYVIII-13 (one of the Station's unilateral conots) would rest the agreement of corve as LP monitor. The apartment was rested by BIRAYVIII-13 on 1 July 1848.
- 6. The remains of the vise from the apartment above the target to the L2 was delayed due to the product above the target to their priority tasks and by a chartege of enitable cable (we obtained the cable from Eradgastiste). This first phase of the operation was employed on 7 August 1988. The distance between the tempet and the LD in EAS foot. The L2 will be excluded by three floory extend topo recorders provided by floory extends.

EPLANTATION

7. To are just now buginalog to receive the tebe from this operation. The tapes cross directly to us from the LP and Matthew F. Christop processes them. The Special leaguest particle, which we assume will be light, will be presented by MANAPILE.

GLASSIF CATION PLOCESSING ACTION SRCRET KAPOK Chief, SB Division Chief, WI Division NO INDEXENS REJUIRED ONLY CHALLERED DESK CAR HEIGE INGENING Chief of Station, Buonos Airos KAPOK/REDTOP/BIOGENES IS Prospective Audio Installation Against Apartment of Ivan ALFERYEV Roforonces: A. BUENOS IRES 9864, 25 January 1968 BUENOS AIRES 9879, 26 January 1968 The Station has long been interested in the fact that but two Soviets reside outside of the Soviet "compounds." In the fall of 1967 we began a unilateral investigation and casing of the apartment then occupied by unilatoral investigation revealed that the lock on the door of this apartment was a Trabex -- a look which requires at a minimum several hours of picking. Simultaneous to our unilatoral investigation we learned of PCS departure. We also learned that the Soviets intended to koop his apartment and that it was to be occupied by replacement. In mid-January we desided to send BIBAFFLE-3 to the apartment building in order to belyiond the portero. We had hoped that the portoro would be able to furnish us with a key to the apartment. On 25 January we learned that Ivan ALFERYEV was arriving in Buenos Aires on 27 January. Unfortunately time had run out on us. We therefore decided to turn to BIOGENESIS. 2. There were several reasons for this decision. First of all, we do not doubt the operational value of having an nud! Installation in the apartment of an identified senior KGB officer. However, a unilatoral installation is a difficult and at times risky operation. Commidering this and matching it against the potential take of the operation we felt that a joint operation would be more practical. Cout also influenced our docision. At the mamo time our experience with BIOGENESIS in the "Vista" operation showed that BIOGENESIS was perfectly willing to give us and only us the tapes from the audio installation. - 3. As explained in Reference A we briefed BIOGENESIS in the early afternoon of 25 January. BIOGENESIS immediately issued instructions that the portero of the building be approached. This was accomplished successfully in the late afternoon of the same day. Unfortunately the portero did not have a key. The same night a BIOGENESIS team of three (including BIBAFFLE-3 and BIOGENESIS-14) attempted in vain to pick the lock. In the course of this lock-picking exercise PIBAFFLE-3 had to identify BIOGENESIS interest in the apartment to the owner of the neighboring apartment. Fortunately this individual is wealthy and was cooperative.
- 4. Once we had been forced to temporarily withdraw (ALFERYEV occupied the apartment on 27 January), we obtained through BIOGENESIS the bluoprints of the target apartment and the apartments which abutted. A study of those bluoprints shows that the apartment belonging to the wealthy cooperative neighbor has a maid's room which shares the wall of the living room of ALFERYEV's apartment. We pointed this out to BIOGENESIS and suggested that they onlist the further cooperation of the owner in order that a microphone could be installed through the common wall. Unfortunately the owner had departed for several wooks leave.
- 5. The owner should be back in Buenos Aires at this time and we have instructed BIOGENESIS to approach him again and to move on with the operation. We are also presently working on an LP.
- 6. We shall keep you advised of our progress in this operation.
