MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, VI/4

SUBJECT : Resident of Rome, Italy, in Correspondence with George De MOHRENSCHILDT (201-725439)

1. In late November 1964 a letter was received in c/o the American Embassy in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, addressed to George De MOHRENSCHILDT. The letter bore the return address: J.M. Brandel, Stellare B-Vigna Clara, Roma, and was postmarked Roma, Italia.

2. A check with your Counter-espionage section revealed that one Joseph BRANDEL is listed at Piazza S. Jacini, Roma, the same area as the above address; there was no additional information available in the files of your office on either Joseph or J. M. BRANDEL. A check of RID/index failed to reveal any information on the above names. However, information is available on one Marcus Joseph BRANDEL (201-221963) who may be identifiable with the Subject. This person was born 13 May 1904 at Rotterdam, Netherlands; and was once a director of the Dutch electronics firm Philips NV, and a lieutenant-colonel in the Dutch Army. During the second world war, he directed the Dutch programs of the NBC, and was either in British or Dutch intelligence. The latest information in his file is dated 1958 and reflects that at that time he was living in Mevilly-sur-Seine, France, and was divorced from a United States citizen (name unknown).

3. George De MOHRENSCHILDT is a naturalized United States citizen currently living in Haiti, where he reportedly is doing a geological survey for the Government of Haiti. His mail is directed to the United States Embassy in Port-au-Prince. De MOHRENSCHILDT is known to have had connections with two foreign intelligence services and was an acquaintance of Lee Harvey OSWALD, accused assassin of President John F. KENNEDY. Accordingly, he is of extreme interest to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

4. The information concerning the letter from J. M. BRANDEL to George De MOHRENSCHILDT is being included in a COPY to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, with a request as to whether it desires this Agency to query the appropriate Italian authorities.
