He was sent to the United States with a letter of introduction from "Cesar", national supply chief of the DRE in Cuba, to Juan Manuel SALVAJ, the acting secretary-general of the DRE in Miami, and to two student leaders known in exile as "Bruno" and "Diego". The letter gave RUIZ authority to represent the Cuban National Committee of the DRE while he was in the United States. RUIZ gave the following "war names" of members of the National Committee of the DRE, but refused to give their true names: "Anibal", secretary-general; "Miguel Angel", secretary of organization; "Angel", secretary of action and sabotage; "Chino", secretary of propaganda. He refused to divulge his mission here until he saw SALVAJ and other DRE leaders in the United States. He said he had no idea of the number of men they have organized, but he spoke convincingly of the strong and well-disciplined organization the DRE has in every province, except Pinar del Rio. He said he planned to return to Cuba soon with HERMIDA. He was very incensed at what he considered the mistreatment he had received at the hands of the U.S. Border Patrol and ODURGE in Key West. 3. He said he came to the United States with HERMIDA to find out the status of the group as far as being able to count on the United States aid for projects. He said that if aid is forthcoming, he will remain in the United States and act as coordinator-in-exile, if not, he will probably return to Cuba. He planned to stay with his brother, Leslie NOBREGAS (201-282504), at 6048 West 14th Court, Mialeah, telephone TU 8-4401. 4. They have three children who are with their mother at Playa 143, Matanzas. MORALES gave his address in the United States as Dorn Hotel, 155 SW 4th Avenue, Miami. Subject said he came to the United States in a boat with his brother and four other persons on 22 June 1961, and had returned to Cuba on 8 July on a mission for the Montecristi group and KUBARK. On this trip back he took two persons to Cuba, but after taking them safely to shore, he returned to the bay and found the boat had left. He was then forced to hide out in Habana until the present time. He too was critical of the treatment
