I. GENERAL INFORMATION

According to Juan PINO, the moving spirit behind the Spanish anarchists in France, the FAI (Federation of Iberian Anarchists) is not collaborating with either the Communists or the DRIL.

II. CUBA/BELGIUM/DRIL RELATIONSHIPS

A 29 July 1960 report stated that the Spanish-Belgian Friendship Society in Belgium receives financial aid from Humberto Rodriguez TORO, Cuban Embassy in Madrid.

The President of the Society is Felix FERNANDEZ Santistoban, and its Secretary is Eduardo TELL Mohet.

It is interesting to note here that Abderraman MULEY was requested, in a letter to "Che" GUEVARA, financial aid from the Cuban Government and a release of exile DRIL funds over which General BAYO had control. As a follow-up to this letter Eloy GUTIERREZ Monoyo went to Liege, Belgium, to make a first-hand estimate of DRIL leadership, capabilities, and potential, preliminary to the unfreezing of any funds in the National Bank of Cuba. Later as a result of some interrogations of DRIL members apprehended in Belgium, it was learned that Fidel CASTRO has agreed to release large amounts of Spanish funds blocked in Cuba to support the DRIL with the provision that CASTRO can be assured that the nature of this organization is purely revolutionary and is dedicated to the overthrow of the Franco Regime.

III. AFRICA/DRIL RELATIONSHIPS

Maximo PENA and Javier LASTRA, both DRIL members, have taken the initiative along with several Belgians sympathetic to the Spanish cause, of organizing a group called Liege-Ismagne. A meeting of this organization was held in the Hotel Central, Liege, Belgium, on 2 September 1960. Admission was by invitation only, and several members of the CPB (Comite Belge pour la Paix en Algerie, Belgian Committee for Peace in Algeria) were present.
