Dear Friend,

Merry Christmas!

I regret that it has taken this long to settle the matter of your letter of September 22, 1968, but better late than never, I guess. Although your efforts in our behalf with Hank were not successful, we do appreciate the fact that you and your wife went out of your way to try to help us.

I referred the matter of your late moving bill to the appropriate individual. Unfortunately, this bill was received too late, as all your accounts had been settled. He has asked me to extend his regrets on this matter.

Please accept my best wishes for a Joyous Christmas and the hope that 1969 will indeed be a good year for you and yours.

Sincerely,

Gale

SUBJECT: Howard T. FAZZARE
REFERENCE: Your Memorandum dated 26 September 1968

1. In the reference you stated that DO will send FAZZARE a sterile check for his expenses incurred in his efforts to persuade TICHBORN's wife to agree to an assignment in Spain. You also forwarded a bill which FAZZARE sent for additional air freight expenses from Madrid for which he has not been reimbursed.

2. EUR does not wish to reimburse FAZZARE for this claim. When he resigned from the Agency he submitted his final accounting and signed a Quit-Claim for all expenses. In his note to you, a copy of which you forwarded with reference, he asked that you forward his bill "to the Spanish Section for reimbursement if not too late..." We would appreciate it if you could send FAZZARE a note when you forward his sterile check and state that we are sorry but this final accounting has been completed, that the books have been cleared, and that it is indeed too late to authorize additional funds.

MEMORANDUM FOR: RECORD

SUBJECT : Project WUBRINY - Termination Settlement
with Edward G. TICHBORN (P)

1. The undersigned on 12 September 1968 went to New York to effect a termination settlement with Edward G. TICHBORN (P). A hotel room at the Shoreham Hotel, 33 West 55th Street, was obtained for a meeting place. There were two principal aspects to the settlement:

a. secure TICHBORN's acceptance of an amendment to his contract providing for a one-time lump sum taxable payment of $3311.00 and releasing the U. S. Government from any further claim and,

b. insure that TICHBORN had, as of 31 August 1968, administratively severed his relationship with WUSALINE, particularly that his accountings for expenses incurred in 1968 were submitted, recorded by WUSALINE, and certified correct and proper by both TICHBORN and WUBRINY/11.

2. The first part of the settlement went smoothly. TICHBORN on 12 September 1968 readily accepted the amendment to his basic contract. He brought along for the Covert Tax Unit a copy of his 1966 income tax return which the undersigned had stipulated as a requirement for settlement. He was given his one-time lump sum taxable payment of $3311 in two checks ($2833.62 and $477.38) drawn on a DO proprietary company (WUACTIC) which will issue TICHBORN a Form 1099 for income tax filing. He readily endorsed and gave to the undersigned the check for $477.38 in settlement of the amount he owed WH Division from his tour in Mexico City.

3. Through no fault of TICHBORN, the administrative severance from WUSALINE did not go as smoothly. In spite of several requests by both TICHBORN and the undersigned,

WUBRINY/11 did not have ready a list of expenses incurred by TICHBORN in 1968 for checking by the undersigned and certification by TICHBORN and WUBRINY/11. WUBRINY/11 telephoned to say that his accountant was unable to locate some of TICHBORN's accountings. The undersigned then requested WUBRINY/11 to join him and TICHBORN. The undersigned had a partial list of TICHBORN's expenses previously submitted by WUBRINY/11. The undersigned enjoined TICHBORN and WUBRINY/11 to prepare a complete list of expenses for 1968. TICHBORN was asked to record the purpose of each expense. The undersigned emphasized in WUBRINY/11's presence that TICHBORN should ensure that no expenses chargeable to WUBRINY/11's private firm were charged to WUSALINE. Both TICHBORN and WUBRINY/11 were reminded that all expenses on the Venezuela project were chargeable to WUBRINY/11's private firm as well as one-half of the expenses on the Mexican Border project. TICHBORN said that he would get all of the accountings from WUBRINY/11's comptroller to determine which, if any, accountings were missing and, as requested, to note the purpose of the expenses. It was agreed to meet the following morning of September 13, 1968 on this matter.

4. On the morning of September 13, 1968, TICHBORN telephoned the undersigned to say that he was able from his records to supply the missing data. He also said that notations on the records obtained from the comptroller showed that he had, in fact, submitted the accountings that were missing. TICHBORN concluded from this that WUBRINY/11's private firm had lost the missing accountings. TICHBORN also said that a few of the charges on the partial list of expenses which the undersigned had given him to review should have been charged to WUBRINY/11's private firm. The undersigned then requested TICHBORN and WUBRINY/11 to meet with him at noon so that the undersigned could review the accountings and obtain certifications from TICHBORN and WUBRINY/11. Both agreed to the meeting. Subsequently, TICHBORN telephoned to say that he and WUBRINY/11 were all set to come to the undersigned's hotel when the unwitting comptroller took all the financial statements to review them again. TICHBORN and WUBRINY/11 were in no position to retain the statements and thus could not meet as scheduled. Both TICHBORN and WUBRINY/11 agreed that the accountings were now in order. The undersigned again informed TICHBORN and WUBRINY/11 by phone that each must certify that the expenses were proper charges to WUSALINE. WUBRINY/11 was instructed to mail the list to the undersigned as soon as possible.

5. Certain other administrative matters were taken up with TICHBORN and WUBRINY/11 during the afternoon of 12 September 1968. The undersigned secured agreement from TICHBORN and WUBRINY/11 that TICHBORN's services on WUBRINY/1's Venezuela project were as great as any other officer who worked on it and that, therefore, WUSALINE should receive for TICHBORN's services on this project compensation at least equal to that given any officer in WUBRINY/1's private firm. The undersigned obtained from TICHBORN the two credit cards (American Express and Pan American air travel card) issued to him under WUSALINE sponsorship. The undersigned asked TICHBORN if he had charged any expenses under these cards since 31 August 1968. TICHBORN said that he had entertained a movie producer who visited him as an outgrowth of his trip to California to develop a movie adjunct to his cover. For this reason, TICHBORN opined that the Agency should pay for the expense. The undersigned said that TICHBORN was not authorized to incur any further expenses after 31 August 1968. TICHBORN then readily agreed to pay the expense.

6. There is a possibility that WH Division may want TICHBORN to take an operational TDY in Chile. TICHBORN was alerted to this possibility. He expressed interest in the assignment, but pointed out that he now has to get a job and that, consequently, his availability will depend upon his job situation.

7. TICHBORN was extremely friendly and cooperative and the settlement was amicably effected.

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Record

SUBJECT: Project WUTACTIC - Funding Through WUGAMP

1. On Monday afternoon, the undersigned was requested by Mr. Gale Allen, DO/CO, to provide a mechanism for funding $3,311.00 to an Agent he was terminating (Edward G. TICHBORN (P)). Mr. Allen is traveling to New York on Thursday, 12 September 1968 and would like to pay the termination bonus to TICHBORN at that time. Prior to our discussion, Mr. Allen had arranged for the funds to be paid by sterile check. However, Mr. Randall, DO/BF, suggested that he consult DO/CI for a funding mechanism in order to insure proper tax reporting by TICHBORN.

2. Mr. Allen explained to the undersigned that TICHBORN had been employed, until his termination, by one of the Project WUBRINY entities. Apparently, there is an unwitting Controller in the WUBRINY entity and there was no reasonable story that could be offered to explain the $3,311.00 termination bonus. Therefore, it is necessary to use another entity that can provide a Form 1099 for tax purposes.

3. Since WUGAMP has sufficient funds in its bank account to manage a $3,311.00 disbursement, it was decided to utilize this company. Mr. Allen was advised to stop the sterile check process and to have the $3,311.00 voucher approved and forwarded to DO/CI for payment instructions. At that time, the undersigned will prepare a Request for Advance of Funds (WUTACTIC) in the amount of $689.00 and Payment Instructions for $4,000.00 ($3,311.00 plus $689.00). This procedure is being followed in order that WUGAMP can show a slight profit as well as to prevent the exact same amount of money being received and disbursed.

4. GOODBEE was advised of the above and will have the funds ready for Mr. Allen on Thursday morning for his pick up. GOODBEE was also provided TICHEBORN's address and Social Security Number for the preparation of the Form 1099.

WUINEICO/1 is a reliable, productive intelligence agent who is skilled in eliciting information and in spotting and assessing targets of interest.

C. ALARICO/1 (Identity C) who is now second in command of the ministry mentioned in Reference A and has become extremely busy during the past year overseeing all administrative work in the ministry. Although he still has wide press contacts and fairly good contacts to leading members of the government party, his recent promotion has been greatly limited and his present capabilities now lie in the political action field. It is doubtful that he could undertake to Chile.

It is noted that TICHONOV and WUINEICO/1 would be the most suitable candidates.

MEMO TO : AG
FROM : LH (~~XXXXXXXX~~) TICH BORN
IN RE : Meetings with MT [redacted]

I had several long conversations with MT ^{FAZARE} regarding various aspects of potential assignment in [redacted]

- a) long confab over two drinks after our joint session Wednesday afternoon;
- b) shorter talk on plane ride to New York;
- c) extended conversation on Thursday evening, when we had dinner with our respective spouses - 6:30 PM to 2:00 AM.

Our many hours together (with and without our wives) produced two principal conclusions:

1. Reinforced my wife's objections to moving to [redacted] also convincing me that it would be prejudicial for my children.
2. Convinced me that, even if there were no family objections to moving, it would be unwise to establish permanent residence in [redacted] because of the security risks involved therein. Both MT and I feel that several in-and-out trips would accomplish our purposes without running the risk of appearing implausible in that traditionally-suspicious country.

A. Family objections to moving:

1. Health hazards - My wife's fears about hepatitis and other diseases (originally aroused by Mike's casual reference to same) were ~~amplified~~ reinforced by MT and wife's pointed cautions about food and water.
2. Negative effect on my children - When my wife explained [] school difficulties since moving from Mexico (he failed three subjects last semester and is attending summer school), both MT and wife flatly said that it would be risky and perhaps permanently-damaging to move him once again. Mrs. T, who is a professional guidance counselor for children, fully agreed with the child psychologist who has advised us against moving [] out of the United States at this time. Having fallen behind in his reading skills while in Mexico (i.e., in relation to U.S. standards), he's now suffering certain psychological setbacks that are related to his scholastic difficulties.

B. Security risks of projected cover:

Even if there were no family objections to our moving to Spain, my conversations with MT have convinced me that our present "cover arrangements" will not support permanent residence in Spain.

As I had previously surmised, MT says that Spain is an inordinately suspicious country - that almost everyone suspects all foreigners of some ties with foreign banks. He himself was frequently told to his face that he was a bank employee, and he told us that at our two meetings last Tuesday and Wednesday. He says that government officials and the kind of higher-up business tycoons we're shooting for (he saw our list) are almost pathological in their suspicions.

MT : "You're going to have to live like a rich man to have access to those people, and no rich man would move to Spain with his family unless he had already established the kind of business activity that would pay him enough to warrant such a move. Mere prospecting for business opportunities might draw such a man for short look-around visits, but he would look pretty foolish moving his whole family just to 'prospect.' Those sharp-nosed Spanish industrialists would smell you out within a few months, perhaps a few weeks."

MT agrees with all of us that the movie cover offers the best and least-expensive chance for penetration, but here again he argues against establishing permanent residence:

"My father and brother (president of Associated Distributors of Spanish-Speaking Films) have been in motion pictures all their lives, and I know from my peripheral exposure to the business that no producer would establish permanent residence unless he's actually filming a big picture. Until he actually starts shooting, the producer flits in and out of the country, rushing back to Hollywood or New York to work on other picture deals. Movie people are expected to be jet-setty; they don't travel with their goddamned families, certainly not kids. As a "bachelor" producer with a temporary suite at the Hilton or Ritz, where you could invite Mr. Tycoon to mingle with starlets and models, you could be quite plausible as a guy who's still looking for the right picture deal to jell (perhaps for a couple of years)....."

In view of our previous inactive relationship with our Iberian associate (and Mike's continued skepticism), I frankly agree with MT's reservations about establishing permanent residence while in the "prospecting stage." The over-all prospects and utility of [redacted] could be compromised by an implausible cover at any stage.

MEMORANDUM FOR: RECORD

SUBJECT : Project WUBRINY - Edward G. TICHBORN (P)

1. At the request of Chief, DO/COG, the WOFIRM medical staff arranged for TICHBORN to be examined by a specialist in back disorders to check the nature of TICHBORN's back problem. TICHBORN had earlier injured his back when a bench on which he was sitting in the laundry room of his apartment collapsed. Since his injury, TICHBORN has, of course, been under the care of a doctor in New York. A back brace and physical therapy exercises have led to considerable improvement. However, in view of plans for TICHBORN's PCS assignment [redacted] a check by an independent specialist was deemed advisable.

2. TICHBORN's appointment was with Dr. Henry L. Feffer, [redacted]

[redacted] TICHBORN used the alias of Enrique Cortez with a New York post-office address supplied by the Office of Security, to wit:

[redacted]

He paid the bill of $38.50 upon leaving. The receptionist asked the name of TICHBORN's doctor and where the report should be sent. TICHBORN gave a fictitious name and address of a doctor in New York and said that Dr. Feffer knew where to send the report. (The report will be sent to [redacted] ding of the WOFIRM Medical Staff who will call C/DO/COG.)

3. At a luncheon meeting at Fort Myer after the examination, TICHBORN informed Chief, DO/COG and the undersigned that Dr. Feffer had been more positive than TICHBORN's doctor in New York that TICHBORN does not have a ruptured disc. Dr. Feffer recommended physical therapy exercises varying somewhat from those prescribed by TICHBORN's New York doctor. TICHBORN said that his back pains him toward the end of the day. Dr. Feffer opined that this condition should be cleared up within three months.

4. TICHBORN appeared to be in excellent spirits at the luncheon. He was very enthusiastic about movie deals as a substantial part of his cover arrangements. He obviously is at home in this field and believes it will give excellent access to operation targets [redacted]. TICHBORN has contacts in the U. S. movie industry, one of whom is a friend interested in making a movie [redacted]. TICHBORN plans to meet this friend and other contacts in Los Angeles the first week of July.

5. At the request of EUR/[redacted] the undersigned asked TICHBORN to be available in Washington, D. C. during the period 8-10 July 1968 to meet the contract agent whom TICHBORN will be replacing [redacted]. TICHBORN agreed to do so and also to stay loose later in July for conversation with the Deputy Chief of Station [redacted].

6. The undersigned informed TICHBORN that from the cover point of view, it would be desirable for TICHBORN, enroute [redacted] to view the operation of WUBRINY/E in [redacted]. While there, we would like TICHBORN to assess a [redacted] whom WUBRINY/1 considers to have good operational potential.

7. TICHBORN said that he has not received a reply from the IRS to his request for a copy of his 1966 income tax return (requested by C/DO/Pers). TICHBORN said that he is, therefore, writing another letter.

SUBJECT : Project WUBRINY - Edward G. TICHBORN (P)

1. Forwarded herewith is the revised proposal from WUBRINY/1 to Edward G. TICHBORN (P) covering the latter's assignment [redacted]. It differs from the original in that the journalistic feature is dropped in favor of strictly commercial endeavors. Added is the possibility of developing a movie deal for submission to investors.

2. TICHBORN had two meetings with QUSALT/1, both of which went well from the cover point of view. The first meeting involved TICHBORN and QUSALT/1, while TICHBORN brought his wife for the second in which QUSALT/1 was wine and dined. TICHBORN said that QUSALT/1 is all in favor of TICHBORN's proposed assignment. However, in view of past WUSALINE [redacted] inactivity, QUSALT/1 has an attitude of "I will believe it when I see it." QUSALT/1 was particularly intrigued with the possibility of a movie deal and said that [redacted] is by far the cheapest place to make movies.

3. The one disquieting feature of the meetings with QUSALT/1 concerned TICHBORN's wife. She took the occasion to query QUSALT/1 on all aspects of living in [redacted]. All went well until the subject of health came up. QUSALT/1 commented that everyone should expect to get hepatitis and said that he had a severe case. This comment shook TICHBORN's wife whose best friend in Mexico caught hepatitis and whose children subsequently got it.

4. The undersigned specifically asked TICHBORN if his wife's concern with hepatitis posed the possibility of a refusal to accompany him. TICHBORN said that he thought not, but that he was going to drop the matter for a week. The undersigned stressed to TICHBORN that the Agency views his assignment as very important as evidenced by the favorable terms offered him. We have done considerable staff work on his assignment and don't have another suitable candidate immediately available. Should TICHBORN not be able to go [redacted] it would be a severe blow. TICHBORN said that he appreciates our position and did not see any reason to worry. The undersigned said that we are preparing a contract for TICHBORN and would like to make it for at least three years. TICHBORN agreed, saying that he too prefers a long-term contract.

SUBJECT: Edward G. TICHBORN (P), 201-253203
Amendment of OA

1. European Division, with the cooperation of Domestic Operations Division, plans to assign Edward G. TICHBORN to [redacted] under deep cover on a PCS basis in late summer of 1968.

2. Since October 1966, TICHBORN has been assigned to the DO Division, working as a legal representative of a proprietary WUSALINE in New York City. In early July 1967, [redacted] sent TICHBORN TOY [redacted] to [redacted] access to priority targets in Spain which might be provided by the WUSALINE [redacted] affiliate, WUSALINE [redacted]. The results of this trip indicated that such access did exist and could be exploited by the assignment of a qualified officer as the WUSALINE representative in WUSALINE [redacted]. This assignment was offered to TICHBORN in the summer of 1967 but he was unable to accept it for personal reasons at that time. TICHBORN is now available for the assignment and we hope to place him [redacted] by September 1968.

3. TICHBORN's new assignment will involve the following operational duties:

a. To identify, cultivate, and acquire intelligence from those individuals and groups within [redacted] who now play, and can be expected to play in the [redacted] period, a significant role in determining domestic and foreign policy.

b. To spot and assess individuals within the above group for possible recruitment by other Station assets.

SUBJECT : Project WUBRINY - Edward G. TICHBORN (P)

1. The undersigned met with TICHBORN at 1630 hours on 19 May 1968 at the undersigned's room in the Shoreham Hotel, 33 West 57th Street, New York City. TICHBORN was still suffering from an injured disc and either stood or lay down on the bed during the course of the meeting. He said that he had been fitted for a back harness which he would get the following day. If his back did not improve with the harness, going into traction would be necessary. TICHBORN said that his back injury occurred when a bench on which he was sitting in the laundry room of his apartment collapsed. He said that he is meeting with a representative of the insurance company with which his apartment owner is insured to seek compensation. He had previously asked for and was mailed a list of benefits under his Agency hospitalization policy. TICHBORN can sit down, but when sitting, it is very painful for him to get up.

2. Per agreement with Chief, EUR [redacted] the undersigned offered TICHBORN a fee of $25,000 out of which TICHBORN will have to pay his own housing and educational expenses. Inasmuch as the normal housing allowance for [redacted] is $3,680.00 a year and the educational allowance for two children $1,120.00 or higher, the offer to TICHBORN amounts to a $20,000 base salary. TICHBORN was informed that additional benefits outside his basic fee would include:

a. Round-trip transportation less than first-class for him and his family [redacted] and return to New York,

b. Cost of shipping and storage of household effects,

c. Temporary lodging allowance of $9 per day per adult and children over 11 up to 90 days with an additional $5 per day per child if the lodging has no kitchen facilities (TICHBORN has two children, a boy age 13 and a girl age 11).

SECRET

- d. Transportation allowance of $50 per month,
- e. Operational expenses

TICHBORN is satisfied with his basic fee, commenting that it is better than Mexico. He then added that money does not mean as much to him as it did, because his agent feels that TICHBORN's book will be a good seller and earn a lot of money. TICHBORN opined that his temporary lodging and transportation allowances are low. The undersigned pointed out that these allowances are applicable to staff employees and that they have been found adequate.

3. The undersigned noted that TICHBORN, by virtue of his association with WUSALINE and WUSALIFY and his 1967 trip [redacted] is in an excellent cover position for this assignment. He has also had the opportunity to meet the Agency representative [redacted] with whom he will be dealing. The undersigned gave TICHBORN a copy of WUBRINY/1's letter outlining TICHBORN's cover assignment (unamended copy attached). The undersigned noted that the senior officer of the firm participating with WUSALINE in late 1966 had suggested that a developer of new business be obtained. This overture was followed by TICHBORN's exploratory trip in June 1967. Subsequently, a WUSALIFY company for which TICHBORN is a legal consultant, followed up on TICHBORN's trip by sending a geologist to assess several abandoned silver properties. In this way, the stage should be well set for TICHBORN as outlined in the cover letter prepared by WUBRINY/1.

4. At 1800 hours, WUBRINY/1 and WUBRINY/11 joined the meeting to discuss cover arrangements. The undersigned emphasized that the arrangement would not only have to be plausible, but, in due course, there would have to be commercial results. TICHBORN was also emphatic on this point. He suggested that the cover letter also include the possibility of putting together a movie deal. TICHBORN said that he is thoroughly at home in the movie field and finds it a good access to targets of operational interest. WUBRINY/1 seized eagerly upon TICHBORN's suggestion, stating that he had always wanted to finance a movie deal. WUBRINY/1 said that he would amend the cover letter to include this possibility. Both the undersigned and WUBRINY/1 stressed the importance of TICHBORN's obtaining U. S. clients to represent in [redacted] Some further training for TICHBORN was recommended by WUBRINY/1, including visits to certain WUSALINE affiliates. The undersigned concurred, stating that a visit to WUSALINE's affiliate [redacted] would be particularly useful because TICHBORN might also do an assessment there on a [redacted] associated with WUSALINE's affiliate.

5. WUBRINY/1 said that QUSALT/1 is coming to the U. S. the third or fourth week in May 1968. It was agreed that WUBRINY/1 and TICHBORN would gear up to get QUSALT/1's endorsement of TICHBORN developing business for WUSALINE/[redacted]

6. Both TICHBORN and the undersigned informed WUBRINY/1 that employment terms have been agreed upon and opined that these terms might be more liberal than WUBRINY/1 would privately extend. The undersigned said that the Agency would embody TICHBORN's employment terms in a contract from which commercial terms could be drawn. The undersigned added that all of the funding of TICHBORN would not necessarily have to be accomplished through WUBRINY/1.

7. TICHBORN owes the Agency $199.99 on an old loan. TICHBORN promised faithfully to send the undersigned a check in this amount prior to 31 May 1968.

8. The Covert Tax Unit desires a certified copy of TICHBORN's income tax filing for 1966. TICHBORN said that he had been unable to locate one and had asked the IRS for a copy.

9. TICHBORN's wife is concerned about schools in [redacted]. The undersigned gave TICHBORN information on schools [redacted] as obtained from EUR [redacted] and from a friend who spent three years in [redacted]

10. TICHBORN said that he would like to go alone to [redacted] in August so as to be able to make arrangements in advance for his family.

11. An amended cover letter is awaited from WUBRINY/1 as well as QJSALT/1's response to TIGHBORN's assignment.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, DO
VIA : Chief, DO/CO
SUBJECT : Edward G. Tichborn (P)

1. The undersigned on 23 May 1957 reviewed in WH Division Tichborn's 201 file (4 folders) and related operational files. Particular attention was given in this review to Tichborn's security.

2. The files reflect that Tichborn is very security conscious. There is no evidence that Tichborn was ever suspected of being a WOPACI operative.

3. Tichborn practiced law in California and was active in state and national politics. He was recruited as a political advisor on a part-time basis in 1950 by the CA Staff. In 1952, he was taken on full-time under contract by WH Division and assigned to Mexico City. His cover for this assignment was publishing and movie interests in Mexico and elsewhere in Latin America. In Mexico City he published a magazine, [redacted]. The CI/OA staff review in 1955 stated that Tichborn's cover story was completely accepted by his friends and associates. The SCGIRM of Tichborn in 1955 revealed that he had informed only his wife of his association with WOPACI.

4. The files reflect that Tichborn is very sensitive about security. He balked at working with a WOPACI officer in Mexico City, because a friend told Tichborn that the WOPACI officer not only was WOPACI but had openly admitted it to the friend. A proposed trip to Bolivia was aborted because Tichborn felt there was no suitable cover.

5. Tichborn has traveled extensively in Latin America on training and election assignments. Three countries in which he worked are Chile, Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico. On these assignments Tichborn used his legal, publishing, and movie cover. It is understood that he also used aliases and disguises, although this was not noted in the quick review of the files. He can, of course, be debriefed in detail on this aspect.

6. The files show that Tichenorn's magazine, Dialoques was funded through Tichenorn by various individuals through arrangements made by CCG. The AC/WH/C interrogated Tichenorn on any foundation funding. Tichenorn could recall only one instance of foundation funding, some $2-3,500 given Dialoques Editor Susan Mirra by the Fairfield Foundation. There is also a reference in the files that one, Louis Mercier, was informed that ODASID also supported Dialoques.

7. The files reflect very favorably on Tichenorn's performance - two reports by the Mexican Station and one from CCG/Canto Domingo are most commendatory. On the negative side, administrative details bore him.

8. The undersigned has confirmed with Chief, WH/CA that if DO will take over Tichenorn's contract, WH will pay Tichenorn's salary and expenses for the first quarter of FY 1958. Chief, WH/CA is awaiting DO's decision.

9. The undersigned is very favorably impressed by Tichenorn. By 1 October, it is believed that Tichenorn will be sufficiently well-trained in commercial and investment banking matters to do legal-business consulting on a fee basis for WUSALINE. He should be able, depending on the number of operational requirements, to earn a part, if not all, of his salary. On this basis, it is recommended that DO assume administration of Tichenorn effective 1 July 1958, under Wh/CA with the understanding that WH Division will defray Tichenorn's salary and expenses during the first quarter of FY 1958.

Action: Your comments are requested.

1. We regret our delay in responding to Reference and preceding correspondence on this case. We will attempt below to answer the questions posed and comment where pertinent, keyed to paragraph 2 of Reference.

a. WUSALINE [] can, in principle, be used as an information collection mechanism. The type of requirements to be levied via WUSALINE would have to be consistent with that organization's past and present dealings with WUSALINE i.e. commercially logical and feasible. Operating on this assumption, we believe that both general and specific requests for information could be levied and could cover a wide range of economic and commercial topics. We solicit your ideas on such requirements.

b. This subject was investigated with TICEDORN during a visit he made to Headquarters during the week of 29 January 1968. There seems to be little doubt that TICEDORN could obtain the necessary interviews, write an article, and have it published in a publication such as Life International. In considering this proposition, however, we wonder just what a trip would accomplish. We foresee that TICEDORN would obtain biographic and limited assessment data on certain high-level economic figures. He might also obtain some positive intelligence information by elicitation. But, given TICEDORN's background and talents, the most important gain, especially should a favorable article subsequently appear in print, would be in his establishment of viable personal contact with those persons interviewed. Therein lies the problem, that of transferring the relationship established by TICEDORN to someone else in the Station. We feel that you will agree that this is a difficult thing to do. In short, will the benefit to us from a short (possibly two/three weeks) foray by TICEDORN be worth the necessary investment in time, money and effort. Included in the letter would be Chief/WOMACE approval. Such approval always requires solid operational justification and such justification would be especially necessary in this case, due to the probable publication' outlet involved, Life International. We are inclined to think that such a trip would not be worth it, unless, and this is a possibility discussed below in paragraph 2, TICHEBORN were to be assigned PCS to Spain for a period of a year or more.

c. Also discussed with TICHEBORN during his recent visit was the subject of his contacts [redacted] in his home city and of his use in assessing and developing visiting [redacted] contacts of the Station who might be steered to him. In the former category, we determined that TICHEBORN has not yet been active in making new contacts but would be willing to do so, on a selected basis. The question here is, whom would we wish him to meet and develop? (TICHEBORN's immediate reaction was to suggest he meet the [redacted] ambassador to Washington.) Unless the Station has some specific candidates in mind, we believe the most profit to be had from this exercise initially, would be to give TICHEBORN the task of assemblage a spotting report [redacted] in his home city engaged in commercial activities to whom, presumably, TICHEBORN would be able to logically develop access. We feel that to give him a broad assignment of reporting on any and all [redacted] he meets would be self-defeating. On the latter category of targets, those selected [redacted] visiting TICHEBORN's city who might be steered to him by the Station, we feel that cover considerations will have to be carefully handled in order to protect TICHEBORN's now solid cover. TICHEBORN currently is covered as a business consultant and attorney under Identity A. He is specifically identified with Identity B and, when required, as on his trip [redacted] with WUSALINE. We would be perfectly willing to consider using TICHEBORN in this way provided the targets were carefully selected and could be steered to TICHEBORN without endangering his cover.

d. In answer to paragraph 2d of the Reference, we are forwarding under separate cover copies of the reports which TICHEBORN submitted to Headquarters after his return. We can find no indication that these were sent to you at the time, although that was our intention. In any event, they appear to constitute additional detail to verbal reports provided to the Station by TICHEBORN while he was there last year.

2. As the Station notes, the question of a PCS assignment to [redacted] for TICHEBORN was shelved last year due to a variety of reasons, both personal and professional. Recent discussions with FOPLAY, however, indicate that such an assignment should not be ruled out. It is possible that TICHEBORN would be available for PCS assignment [redacted] in 1969, assuming that suitable cover arrangements can be worked out. In this regard, his assignment [redacted] as WUSALINE's man in WUSALINE [redacted] might be a logical extension of his past and present activities. In view of the Station's comments in paragraph 3c of Reference, we would appreciate your thoughts on this and on any other cover possibilities which come to mind. Granted that such an assignment is presently no more than a long range possibility, it is nevertheless an attractive one, worth an exchange of views.

3. Developments cited in paragraphs 3a and 3d of the Reference are welcome as both appear to constitute potential access of value. We will be most interested in your progress.

4. The case of QUSALT/1 is, as ever, a thorny one. We will comment on it by separate dispatch.

5. To sum up, Headquarters is also impressed with TICHEBORN's potential as indicated by his all-to-brief visit [redacted] last year.

Judging from his performance there it appears that he would be a valuable addition to the Station effort against the unilateral target, if he were to be assigned [redacted] His utility here, or on a brief TDY assignment from here is, we feel, far less and can only be taken advantage of by a realistic selection of any tasks we may ask him to perform. There is little doubt that he can meet [redacted] of interest, the problem lies in how to follow up at long range, or how to transfer a relationship established by YIGBORN to someone else who could take operational advantage of it. Otherwise, we will end up with a long list of names and little else. On this basic point, a summation of the specific items dealt with above, we would welcome an exchange of views with the Station.

SUBJECT: Project WUBRINY - Possible Operational Support of Madrid Station Objectives by Edward G. TICHBORN (P)

REFERENCE: OSMA 23, 350 Dated 11 January 1968

1. Per Mr. Long's request, the undersigned on 30 January 1968 discussed with Edward G. TICHBORN (P) possible support of Madrid Station objectives as raised in ref. It was confirmed that:

a. WUSALINE/Iberia can be used as an information collection mechanism in cases where information requirements can be couched in plausible economic and commercial terms for contractual surveys.

b. TICHBORN can assess and develop selected Spanish contacts of Madrid Station who may be visiting New York and who desire introductions in US commercial circles.

c. TICHBORN can develop Spaniards in New York as may be of operational interest to the Madrid Station. TICHBORN has not made an effort to develop Spaniards in New York but is willing and able to do so for any designated as operational targets. If desired, TICHBORN thinks he can meet the Spanish Ambassador to the U. S. through a friend [redacted]

d. TICHBORN feels that he could write an article concerning leading Spanish industrialists and bankers for publishing in a prominent publication, such as "Life International." TICHBORN believes that he has excellent bonafides for such a task because he previously published in "Life International" a four-page spread on birth control in Latin America. This article was favorably reviewed. TICHBORN suggested a related article on the population explosion in Europe and its effect on business as a possible topic for interviewing leading Spanish businessmen. TICHBORN,

1. [redacted] has awaited a report of TICHBORN's trip [redacted] and some response to the various proposals made in Reference Dispatch. SHERIDAN carried back the message that TICHBORN would not be assigned PCS to [redacted] as suggested he might be in DIR 32794. We have a high opinion of TICHBORN's talents, so this was a disappointment.

2. Regarding the proposals we made about how TICHBORN might continue to be useful in his target [redacted] (see DIR 13385), there are several that we would like Headquarters to review:

a. Can WUSALINE [redacted] be used as an information collection mechanism? Develop, yes

b. Has further thought been given to TICHBORN's writing an article (possibly for "Life International") on leading [redacted] industrialists and bankers?

c. Can TICHBORN develop ^{with} [redacted] in his home city for [redacted] Station? Can the Station ask selected [redacted] contacts, who will be travelling to TICHBORN's city, to look up TICHBORN as a means of assessing and developing them? yes

d. Is TICHBORN preparing a report or contemplating any follow-up action to Reference trip?

3. Reference provides sufficient details to make all these questions clear. If Headquarters can give us a status report on the above questions and where we now stand with TICHBORN and WUSALINE, we can in turn make suggestions on how we believe TICHBORN's talents can be used in the future. As mentioned above, we have a high opinion of his ability and we hope we can benefit from it. In the meantime,

SUBJECT: Project WUBYZAS Status Report

REFERENCE: Memorandum for Record, dated 23 January 1968,

1. Ref. noted that John A. BLENKINSOP (P) had suggested certain changes in his proposed contract and that these suggested changes had been referred to the OGC for comment.

2. Attached are the OGC comments on BLENKINSOP's suggested changes. In brief, the OGC stood firm on the proposed contract as written and rejected BLENKINSOP's suggested changes. One change suggested by BLENKINSOP, i.e. to allow interim hotel expenses greater than $1000.00 [redacted] if necessary, was considered administrative by the OGC and left to DO for decision. In view of the rejection of BLENKINSOP's other suggested changes, it was decided to accept BLENKINSOP's request for interim hotel expenses to exceed $1000.00 if necessary. BLENKINSOP's suggested change reads "Barring extraordinary circumstances, these expenses are not to exceed the amount of $1000.00." In his justification for this change, BLENKINSOP notes that time in transit for furniture could extend to six weeks and that in this case hotel expenses could be closer to $2000.00.

3. WUBRINY 11 was advised on 24 January 1968 of our position on the contract. He will relay it to WUBRINY 1 and/or BLENKINSOP. BLENKINSOP's reaction is awaited.

MEMORANDUM FOR: RECORD

SUBJECT : Agreement with WUBRINY/1 to Defray

$17,000 Annual Contract Fee

1. Chief, DOCO, DC/DOCO, [redacted] and the undersigned met on 3 January 1968 with WUBRINY/1 and WUBRINY/11. WUBRINY/1 had previously agreed in principle to buying a portion of TICHBORN's time. He was asked at the 3 January meeting to make a specific proposal on this matter. It was pointed out to WUBRINY/1 that the Agency does not have at this time any operational requirements for TICHBORN and that, ideally, TICHBORN's $17,000 annual contract fee would be offset completely by commercial fee income.

2. WUBRINY/1 said that he is forming a development company in Venezuela for a land development project in which TICHBORN could be very useful the next six months. He proposed that the development company retain TICHBORN for six months at $5,000. If the project is continued, TICHBORN will be retained for a higher figure for the next six months plus a bonus if the project is successful. The company will, of course, also defray TICHBORN's expenses incurred on the land development project. For the Agency and Project WUBRINY, the agreement with WUBRINY/1 means that WUSALINE will expend $3,500 to retain TICHBORN for the next six months.

3. The Venezuelan Desk was advised that TICHBORN will be going to Venezuela on 10 January 1968 and will be spending considerable time there during the next six months. The Venezuelan Desk was very receptive to exploiting TICHBORN operationally and prepared a detailed cable for COS/Caracas. However, this proposed cable was modified by WH Division upper

d. $7,679.07 remaining of Project WUBRINY/F funds

2. Transmitted under separate cover is a billing from WUSALINE to WUTACTIC/WUGLITTER in the amount of $17,265.50. Please arrange for a check to be drawn in the favor of WUSALINE in this amount and sent to WUSALINE Attention: the author of the billing.

3. Would appreciate completing this transaction prior to 31 December 1967. If the check route is not feasible, a bank transfer would be all right. Necessary data for a bank transfer can be supplied, if needed, by telephone. By my calculations, the remainder of Project WUBRINY funds in WUTACTIC/WUGLITTER after this funding will be $73.08.
