SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

The Agency Operator transferred a call from Subject who requested to speak with the Chief Agent. Subject alleged to be publisher of the United Labor News, (circulation 5,000), Toledo, Ohio, and wanted information on the disposition of one Olga Morgan, a captive of the Bay of Pigs invasion who has been incarcerated in one of Castro's jails. Initially, Subject stated that Morgan has been imprisoned for six to seven years, later changing this, upon questioning, to fifteen years. Subject then seemed uncertain as to when the invasion occurred. Subject is calling for Morgan's mother, Mrs. FNU Morgan, 1909 Collingwood Avenue, Toledo, Ohio.

Subject appeared to create an impression that he is a real go-getter who expects a prompt reply to his query. Subject noted that he would be calling Jack Anderson, syndicated columnist following his talk with the Agency.

Subject was highly sarcastic initially but became less strident as the conversation developed. Subject stated that he expected his call to be returned. He was advised, however, that a report of his call would be prepared and passed to appropriate Agency officials.
