In May 1962 an untested source, who was then a member of the MPD, said that CASTRO was probably Secretary of Workers' Affairs on the Central Committee of the MPD. (See CS-3/511,325). An

Kingston, Jamaica, on 18 September 1963 en route to Habana as a delegate to attend the Seventh Congress of the International Union of Architects, to be held from 29 September to 3 October 1963. His passport, No. 115933, issued on 10 September 1963, stated that he was born on 5 May 1928 in Santo Domingo and that he was an industrial employee. In December 1963 an untested source, a member of the MPD, reported that the first robel groups under the direction of the MPD had been formed at Hato Mayor and at El Serbo, in the eastern part of the Dominican Republic, and that the Hato Mayor group, composed of about 150 men¹ from all leftist parties, was under the leadership of Roman Baldemiro CASTRO. (See TDCS 3/567,279). In October 1964 CASTRO is reported to have returned to the Dominican Republic from Cuba. (See CS-311/06078-64). CASTRO is married to Ana Mercedes ESPINAL, and they have six children.
