TO : Director
 Federal Bureau of Investigation
 Attention: Mr. S. J. Papich

FROM : Deputy Director (Plans)

SUBJECT : La Revolution Africaine - Algerian Weekly Magazine

REFERENCE: CSCI-3/774263 dated 16 January 1963

1. This office has recently received information that La Revolution Africaine, the Algerian magazine referred to in Reference, appeared for the first time in Algiers on February 2, 1963. Editors of the magazine are Jacques VERGES, a known Communist, and Zohra DRIF, wife of the Vice Premier of Algeria Rabah BITAT. SINE, a well-known French leftist cartoonist does the political cartoons for the magazine. The magazine claims to have offices in New York City, Paris, London, Dar-es-Salaam, Havana and Lausanne. The address for the New York City office of the magazine is 244 East 46th Street.

2. This office would appreciate any information the Bureau can provide on both the activities and employees of the New York office of the magazine.
