1. Under separate cover we are forwarding the following papers dealing with AMBUD and meetings of AMBUD-1, Theodore F. PASSAVOY and Mr. Hurwitch: ↓ <ul style="list-style-type: none">A. Memo for the record (unnumbered), 2 November 1961B. Memo for the record No. 5, 2 November 1961C. Memo for the record No. 6, 3 November 1961D. Report from AMCLATTER-1E. Statement by Coordinator General of 30 November Movement. 2. WAVE reaction to questions raised in memos is as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">A. There is no reason for us to subsidize the "Diario Las Americas" in order to furnish the AMBUD gratis publicity in the local colony.B. Daily personal expenses on tours should be kept down to approximately $15 a day as there has been much criticism of lavish living on these tours in Latin America.C. We shall suggest to AMBUD-1 that a pilot radio program once or twice a week be started over WOL in New Orleans to determine its effect in Cuba and Latin America.D. We shall keep AMBUD-1 informed of all future tours undertaken by affiliates, but no detailed expose of past operations will be given.

E. We agree with AMBUD-1's belief that the "bulletin" should not be published in the WAVE area and further believe that it is a publicity arm of the group and as such should come out of their budget if printed in other countries. We do not consider this in the category of a separate propaganda project deserving separate financing.

F. We are supporting the JUDEC delegation to Caracas.
