MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Request for Funds from AMWHIP/1, and Information on Further Efforts to get AMLASH/1 Invited out of Cuba

REFERENCE: AMWHIP/1 Memo for the Record, dated 31 August 1964, Para 2f

1. Just prior to AMWHIP/1's departure for Europe on 22 September, he advised us that he had received a letter from Raymundo TORRES aka "El Guajiro". Torres, it is recalled, is the person through whom AMLASH/1 first sent a letter to AMWHIP/1 requesting that he be invited out to the Surgeon's Conference in Mexico City in November 1964.

2. AMWHIP/1 sent a letter to our accommodation address on 23 Sept. The letter contained two points of interest: (1) Torres advised AMWHIP/1 that he was applying for an American visa. He stated he had gotten his airfare to Miami from Mexico City from another friend, and he requested a loan of 200 pesos from AMWHIP/1 to cover visa costs, etc; (2) With reference to "our friend" (presumably AMLASH/1), Torres stated that he had spoken to a friend of his in Canada, who was a Canadian married to a Cuban girl, and who does a lot of business with the Cuban govt. Torres believes (re AMLASH's exit problem) that this man may be able to arrange an invitation for AMLASH to visit him in Canada. Pu

3. Torres' Mexican address was given as -

Raymundo B. Torres
Pitagoras #316, Apto 13
Colonia Narrarte
Mexico, D.F.
