NY T-1 on December 17, 1963, advised that he had been in contact with ROBIN MOORE on December 16, and 17, 1963, relative to MOORE's contemplated trip to his estate in Jamaica which he had offered to members of the Junta Revolucionaria Guosna (JURE) for their contemplated action against Cuba. NY T-1 stated that MOORE told him that due to his previous commitments, he would be unable to go to Jamaica with a member of JURE to inspect his property there which is known as "Blue Lagoon".

6(1)(4) NY T-1 advised that MOORE informed him that he would be leaving New York on December 18, 1963, to go to Saigon, Vietnam, to gather material for the book he was going to write on the United States Special Forces who are stationed there. MOORE told NY T-1 that he had contacted HOWARD JENNINGS, a friend of his in Jamaica and told him that one or two members of JURE may come to inspect "Blue Lagoon" and that he, JENNINGS, should assist whoever comes. NY T-1 had stated that MOORE told him that JENNINGS was in the oil drilling business, that he came originally from Texas and that he had formerly been in Cuba sometime previously and had gotten into trouble. MOORE told NY T-1 that JENNINGS would be very willing to assist any anti-FIDEL CASTRO organization in carrying out activities against Cuba. B B

6(1)(4) NY T-1 also stated on December 17, 1963, that ANTONIO DE LA CARRERA, a member of JURE, who does public relations work for the organization in New York, advised him that the JURE had purchased two airline tickets to travel to Jamaica to inspect the property of ROBIN MOORE. DE LA CARRERA told NY T-1 that the airline tickets were purchased by JURE and paid for by ANGEL FIGUEROA, who is the Treasurer for JURE in New York. DE LA CARRERA said to NY T-1 that JURE had not yet decided on who would travel to Jamaica and stated that they preferred that an American citizen went so that they would not have to obtain a visa for a Cuban. ISMAEL RODRIGUEZ, 84-19 51st Avenue, Elmhurst, Queens, member of JURE, on December 20, 1963, advised that MANUEL "MOLLY" RAY, head of JURE, stopped at La Guardia Airport for several hours on the night of December 19, 1963, enroute to San Juan, Puerto Rico. RODRIGUEZ said that RAY called him from La Guardia Airport and asked him to pick up Dr. RAUL CHIBAS, a leader of JURE, and bring him to the airport for a meeting.

RODRIGUEZ stated that he did what RAY had asked him and there was a meeting of RAY, CHIBAS, himself and several other individuals of JURE, held at the airport prior to RAY's departure. During this short meeting with RAY, RODRIGUEZ said that RAY told them that "this is the beginning of the end for CASTRO". RAY stated that he expected activities against Cuba to begin sometime during January, 1964. During the meeting, RAY also said that the JURE was receiving financial assistance from president ROMULO BETANCOURT of Venezuela.

6(1)(4) NY T-2 on December 23, 1963, advised that following a recent trip to Puerto Rico by ROGELIO CISNEROS, JURE leader in Miami, Florida, it was decided that about 12 men be moved to Puerto Rico, who previously had been kept in Miami by CARLOS ZARRAGA, a member of JURE. NY T-2 stated that among the 12 men sent to Puerto Rico were EDEL MONTIEL and VICENTE MENDEZ. NY T-2 said that he did not know why these men had been moved from Miami to Puerto Rico, but the rumor within JURE was that they were men well-trained in infiltration and guerilla fighting. B

NY T-2 advised on December 23, 1963, that he knew of no specific group within JURE which had special training in the use of explosives. NY T-2 stated that if such a group of individuals existed within JURE who were well-trained in the use of explosives and sabotage, it would probably include the 12 individuals who had recently been sent from Miami to Puerto Rico. NY T-2 stated that if such a highly trained group existed within JURE, he felt that ROGELIO CISNEROS of Miami would probably be in charge.

6(1)(4) NY T-1, on December 26, 1963, advised that he received a telephone call that day from RAUL CHIBAS in which CHIBAS made an appointment for December 30, 1963, to discuss with NY T-1 the purchase of weapons for JURE. B B

The bonds are in the amount of $92.00 which the JURE feels will be the cost to outfit and equip one man for fighting inside Cuba. CHIBAS also told NY T-1 that JURE had 50 men trained and equipped to go into Cuba and that JURE was interested in purchasing 500 weapons of the M-1 and "Enforcer" type which were available through NY T-1. CHIBAS said that they desired to have 200 to 300 rounds of ammunition for each gun purchased and they would like this equipment in 60 days. NY T-1 also said that CHIBAS wanted to know whether the ammunition for the M-1 and the "Enforcer" was interchangeable with the Belgian FALs. B B B B

6(1/4) NY T-1 advised that CHIBAS also told him on January 3, 1964, that they wanted to get people infiltrated into Cuba in groups of eight with effective and accurate transmitting equipment. NY T-1 said that he told CHIBAS that the sale of these guns could only be made to legitimate governments or dealers. NY T-1 stated that the cost of the .30 carbine M-1 was $89.95, and the "Enforcer" was $99.95. NY T-1 said that he told CHIBAS that he could get these guns from the company in the neighborhood of $60.00 each as he did not desire to make any profit on the sale of the guns to JURE. B

NY T-1, on January 15, 1964, also furnished a copy of the JURE bond which is being offered for sale. This bond is in the amount of $92.00 and is for the purpose of purchasing a rifle and equipment for the fight in Cuba. It is signed by MANUEL RAY and the Treasurer of JURE, who is identified as J. NY T-3 advised that the Secretary of Foreign Relations for JURE is Dr. ROBERTO AGRAMONTE, a former leading figure in the Cuban Revolution headed by FIDEL CASTRO. Due to his age and physical infirmities, Dr. AGRAMONTE is not able to be too active and, as a result, CARLOS DIAGO handles most of the Foreign Relations for the JURE and is extremely close to and travels with "MANOLO" RAY. B

NY T-3 advised that the JURE just opened offices in New York City during the past week and the headquarters are located on West 43rd Street between 7th Avenue and Broadway. NY T-3 stated that the main drawback within the JURE and outside the JURE is the Leftist tendency of "MANOLO" RAY. NY T-3 said that he feels that RAY may have moderated his views on certain matters, but he still has views which to many have been labeled Leftist.
