NOTE FOR: Mary McAuliffe
FROM: Barry Harrelson
SUBJECT: Translation Information for Attachments to JFK Document 104-10018-10070

1. A CIA translator confirmed that the attachment, dated 1 December 1963, is a translation of the full-page attachment in [ ] and Spanish dated 1 December 1963. The translator reported that the translation reads a little awkwardly, but the original, a telegram, was also rather awkward. He further stated that the [ ] text on the same page was also a translation of the Spanish text above it.

2. The following is a translation for attachment AC-56, dated 2 December 1963:

SUBJECT: Statements by SANTOS MESA

It has been heard that during a USSR reception on 7 November of this year, the third secretary of the Cuban Embassy in the Hague, Richardo SANTOS MESA, was asked about CASTRO's reaction to attacks on Cuba by Cuban exiles. He replied "Just wait, and you will see what we can do; it will happen soon." (quoted response given in English in the original)

SANTOS declined to elaborate.

It has also been heard that SANTOS has a brother who lives in the United States as an "exile."

Although this brother is pro-Castro, he is said to have left Cuba at the urging of his conservative wife.

SANTOS is said to exchange correspondence with this brother.
