5. Will identify subscribers to New York telephone numbers PL 5-4400, called November 19, 1962, and YU 6-1055, called November 20, 1962, for which long distance charges were placed to JE 2-4680, phone of Dr. MIRO CARDONA, Miami Beach, Florida.

SAN JUAN:

AT SAN JUAN, PUERTO RICO

Will interview MANOLO RAY, head of the Cuban Revolutionary Junta (JURE), whose identity is well known to San Juan. (Colonel WENDELL JOHNSON, who serves as Liaison man between Dr. JOSE MIRO CARDONA, President of the Cuban Revolutionary Council (CRC), and some United States agencies, including CIA, has advised that MIRO CARDONA is opposed to RAY. Other information has been previously received reflecting that MIRO CARDONA has described RAY as a Leftist, and that he would never permit RAY to join the CRC. Some of these remarks have allegedly been made through public media. Investigation by Miami in the case on JURE has disclosed that RAY was allegedly in Miami some time prior to the bombing incident of November 20, 1962.

RAY's representative in Miami, ROGELIO CISNEROS, has been interviewed, but claimed to possess no pertinent information.

San Juan should attempt to ascertain if RAY is in any way implicated as a conspirator or otherwise, and if deemed advisable, request the Bureau to authorize giving him a polygraph interview.

DAVIS, JR., on January 9, 1963, went to their apartment, 721 S. Nevertheless, they claimed they were innocent of the MIRO CARDONA bombing incident.

On January 7, 1963, SERGIO CASTRO GUERRA signed a polygraph waiver and a consent to search his home, but it has not been deemed practical or necessary to proceed with either of these courses of action, due to results of interview with him.

DAVIS, JR., met with [redacted] United States Army (Retired), who serves as Liaison Officer between the CRC and some United States Government agencies, including CIA. Also present were [ROBERT MOORE] Deputy Chief, CIA, and FRED BUCCI, Security Section, CIA, Miami.
