For your confidential information, not to be disseminated outside the Bureau, information has been received from CIA indicating that pursuant to instructions from the White House, CIA is currently exploring the possibilities of collaborating with this organization in promoting activities directed against the Castro government. This will include raids on Cuba. All such raids would be initiated from British territory in the Bahamas and it will be necessary for [redacted]

Immediately check with CIA to see if CIA has operational interest in raid set forth in referenced communications. If no CIA interest, check with Customs to determine if it is investigating this matter. (S) (U)

In event neither factor is present, promptly check sources and informants for any indication there is substance to the allegation and keep Bureau currently advised of all developments.
