KENNEDY'S DEATH FELT TO WEAKEN FOREIGN POLICY

[Redacted]

23 Nov 63
--

Msg Nr: 104

The tragic death of the President of the United States has caused great shock and uneasiness.

The first reaction from political and official circles shows concern over an event which they feel will considerably weaken in the next few months the international policy of the West particularly with regard to the USSR:

I shall continue to report via air mail.
