[Redacted] ASKS FOR REPRESENTATIVES WITH HIGHER PRESTIGE TO ATTEND
KENNEDY FUNERAL

[Redacted]

23 Nov 63

Msg Nr: [Redacted]

[Redacted]

Representatives from all states to President KENNEDY's funeral, scheduled for Monday noon, include Heads of State, Prime Ministers or Foreign Ministers. In view of this and protocol involved, I consider [Redacted] delegation inadequate and would humbly advise that considering your own personal friendship with the KENNEDY's, that you send the Foreign Minister or Speaker of the National Assembly or Minister [Redacted] Chief of Protocol, to give prestige and political importance to your representation. President KENNEDY's interest in [Redacted] and his personal regard for you was such that I feel sure a ministerial representation at his burial would be greatly appreciated by Mrs. KENNEDY and the administration and further strengthen good relations between [Redacted] and the United States.

I should be most relieved if you would graciously and favorably consider my suggestion. Representatives should catch Sunday's Pan American flight due here same night.
