Dear Mr. Maheu:

Reference is made to the letter of agreement between you, representing Robert A. Maheu Associates and the Central Intelligence Agency, effective 1 August 1968.

Effective 1 September 1969 paragraphs one (1) and two (2) of said letter of agreement are deleted in their entirety and the following paragraphs are substituted in lieu thereof:

1. You will agree that the CIA employee will continue as your representative in Ecuador. In support of this arrangement, CIA will pay the Firm an annual fixed fee of $14,500 which will cover the following costs:

(a) Salary	@ $1,000 per mo.	$12,000.00
(b) Entertainment		600.00
(c) Travel - Local		600.00
(d) Travel - Stateside		750.00
(e) Local office expenses, phone, telegrams & postage		150.00
(f) FICA (Employers share)		400.00
TOTAL		$14,500.00

It is agreed that prior CIA approval is required for the rental of office space and hiring of employees in support of the CIA employee while in Ecuador. Also, costs incurred at the direction of and for the sole benefit of the Firm are not to be reimbursed.

2. CIA will fulfill its financial obligations by advancing funds, through a mutually agreed upon and secure channel to your firm in equal semi-annual installments of $7,250.00 each. Accounting for these funds will be satisfied by a signed billing from your firm stating that the funds ($7,250.00) have been expended for services rendered. The CIA employee's expenses will be monitored and in the event they deviate substantially from the above fixed amounts this agreement will again be amended and adjustments made accordingly.
