1 like to make the point that I am going on recollection of events
2 which occurred nearly fifteen years ago, some fifteen years,
3 some slightly more, some slightly less. So therefore, I will
4 make every effort, but again, I am stressing this fact that I
5 have not had an opportunity to refresh my memory by reading old
6 files or anything of the sort.

7 Mr. Baron. That is completely understandable.

8 Mr. Hedgman. I just want this -- I am making this point
9 for the Committee members. I have already made it to you
10 yesterday.

11 Mr. Baron. And it is understandable that we are asking
12 you to discuss events that took place almost fifteen years ago, 13 but it is your intention to give us the truth as far as you can 14 recall it?

15 Mr. Hedgman. It is my full intention to give the truth.

16 Mr. Baron. Thank you.

17 Mr. Wides. Mr. Hedgman, would you please briefly give 18 us a description of your career with the Agency, and that can 19 be by basically divisions or type of job in a very brief
20 summary.

21 Mr. Hedgman. I began, was recruited to serve, as what 22 is referred to as a non-official cover agent, and I was a
23 contract as opposed to a staff officer. That was changed
24 shortly afterwards. I think a few months later I was made a 25 staff officer but remained on official cover for the first several

1 years of my time, working abroad. I returned to Washington
2 where I then became overt in the sense of I worked in the 3 offices and was no longer ostensibly a private businessman.
4 I served as what is known as a case officer in the European 5 area.

6 Mr. Baron. About what time period would you say?

7 Mr. Hedgman. It was '53 to early '57. Early '67 until 8 the mid-60's I served in Europe working primarily on Soviet 9 operations.

10 Mr. Dawson. I think you might have misspoken. You said
11 mid-60's, early '57 to mid-60's. Did you mean 1960?

12 Mr. Hedgman. Mid-1960, yes, I would correct that. From 13 July 6 on until -- I can't remember whether it was June or 14 July of 1963 I served as Chief of Station in then Leopoldville,
15 now Kiershasa, Zaire. I was Chief of Station. I then returned
16 to Washington in the early fall, the exact dates I don't recall, 17 of 1963, and I was what is known as a Branch Chief. I was 18 responsible for the eastern half of Africa from 1963 to June 19 of 1965.

20 June of '65 till June of '67, I was <sup>27,11</sup> ~~again Chief of Station~~

21 ~~Congo~~

22 I returned to Washington where I became Branch Chief
23 again for the Southeast Asian area for a very brief time. In 24 essence it was to prepare me for my next assignment which was 25 the Chief of Station, Vientiane, Laos.

1 Upon completion of that assignment --

2 Mr. Baron. You began that assignment in '67?

3 Mr. Hedgman. No. I began the Southeast Branch Chief job
4 in '67. I began the COS job in the summer of '68, and I left
5 there in the summer of '70.

6 As you know from earlier, ill-health played a role in 7 unfortunately forcing me to leave.

8 I then returned to Washington where I became Deputy Chief
9 of the African Division, January, 1971 until December, 1971, at 10 which time I became Chief of the Division and remained Chief
11 until I retired.

12 Mr. Baron. Until December of '72, would that have been?

13 Mr. Hedgman. No, December of '71.

15 Mr. Wides. No.

16 Mr. Hedgman. Then I retired 28th of June, 1974.

17 Mr. Wides. You were first approached to go to the Congo
18 as Station Chief for the Congo and other nearby countries in 19 June of 1960?

20 Mr. Hedgman. No. It was quite some time before that.
21 I'm sorry, I can't remember specifically whether it was four 22 months, five months. Actually, they talked to me about it as 23 much as a year --

24 Mr. Wides. And you went out --

25 Mr. Hedgman. Not a year. Maybe seven or eight or nine

1 months. I don't remember. I was in Washington. My father was,
2 we thought, dying at the time, and I had flown home to be with 3 him.

4 Mr. Wides. And you went there on June 10th or 11th?

5 | Mr. Hedgman. I'm sorry --

6 Mr. Wides. Approximately?

7 Mr. Hedgman. It was either the 10th of the 11th that I
8 first arrived.

9 Mr. Wides. The beginning of the second week in June?

10 Mr. Hodgman. Of July.

11 Mr. Wides. Of July, I'm sorry.

12 And that was shortly after the Congolese independence from 13 the --

14 Mr. Hedgman. The independence was on the 30th of June
15 and I was, had been given vacation time, which I got in one
16 day before I arrived, but they called me, I was taking some 17 vacation in Europe on the way down and they phoned me, traced
18 me down, and said get down there, the mutiny had taken place
19 and the place was coming apart.

20 Mr. Widas. Prior to your leaving, and in connection with 21 your preparations and briefings and discussions at Headquarters, 22 had there been any discussion at all with you or that you were 23 aware of regarding the possible assassination of Patrice
24 Lumumba?

25 Mr. Hedgman. Absolutely none. I can say that that is

1 absolute sureness of recollection.

2 Mr. Wides. And then you had been there a short while, I
3 take it, and in about the last week of July, when Patrice
4 Lumumba and others from the Congo came to the United States, I
5 believe around the 26th of July, am I correct, that both you and 6 the Ambassador returned to America?

7 || Mr. Hedgman. That's correct.

8 Mr. Wides. And during your return here, in any discussions
9 you had with officials at CIA or other government officials,
10 did you have any discussions or learn of any discussions
11 regarding the possible assassination of Patrice Lumumba?

12 || Mr. Hedgman. No, sir, I did not.

13 Mr Wides. And then you returned to the Congo?

14 Mr. Hedgman. Yes. I believe we returned on the 6th of 15 August, if memory serves me.

16 Mr. Wides. Now, as a very brief background for the 17 next series of questions, is it correct that by early September,
18 that is by the 5th of 6th, Patrice Lumumba had been dismissed
19 as Premier and the U.S. had already become seriously concerned
20 about the beginning of Soviet assistance or involvement in the 21 Congo and the possibility of Soviet influence in the Congo?

22 Mr. Hedgman. I believe those dates are correct of the 23 5th or 6th. It could conceivably be the 7th. Certainly long
24 before that time, those of us interested in the political 25 situation there; that is, the Ambassador, members of the Political

2 whom you would recognize would be coming to give you a mission
3 to carry out?

4 Mr. Hedgman. As I understood it, he was coming with 5 instructions. I did not know what type, sort of instructions.

6 Mr. Wides. Yes.

7 Mr. Daron. Can you state in your own words just exactly
8 what the gist of that cable was?

9 Mr. Hedgman. I am not sure that it will be exact or 10 even close, but it is my -- I am going again, and I stress this 11 time now on recollection, and it is not a sure thing, but my 12 recollection was that the cable advised me that a person whom 13 I would know to be or recognize as an officer of the Agency,
14 and I am not sure that it said as an officer of the Agency,
15 someone who I would have recognized would arrive with instruc-
16 tions for me.

17 Mr. Wides. Did the cable refer in any way to Lumumba
18 that you can recall, that would involve the Lumumba problem or

19 Mr. Hedgman. I think, it is my recollection that it did
20 not refer to Lumumba in any way.

21 Mr. Wides. And with regard --

22 Mr. Hedgman. Either directly or hint by indirection.

23 Mr. Wides. With regard to the cables for general
24 procedural aspects, is it correct that it bore a special
25 reference or slug, I believe is the term?

1 Mr. Wides. But RYBAT usually involved a fairly wide
2 dissemination, or at least dissemination to others in the

4 Mr. Hedgman. Yes.

5 Mr. Wides. And when you say, Eyes Only, yourself, this 6 would, of course, include also the communicator who would have

8 Mr. Hedgman. One communicator in Washington and one in -

14 Now, at some point shortly thereafter, someone did
15 arrive from Washington whom you later determined was the 16 messenger referred to in the cable, is that correct?

17 Mr. Hedgman. That's correct.

18 Mr. Wides. And in terms of placing that visit, is it
19 correct that you, your best belief is it was in the second week
20 of September or thereabouts?

21 Mr. Hedgman. I would say thereabouts, but again, I have 22 tried to think, tried to pin down a date on this, and I cannot, 23 sir.

24 Mr. Wides. But you place it in terms of --

25 Mr. Hedgman. I place it in terms of an apartment which

2 early September.

3 Mr. Wides. And it was not too long after you had rented
4 it that this person came?

5 Mr. Hedgman. Yes, yes.

6 Could we hold on?

7 Mr. Wides. Yes.

8 Mr. Hedgman. Yeah. Yeah. Okay. I was remembering another
9 meeting in that apartment, and I was able to identify, pin down
10 the time of that meeting, so --

11 Mr. Wides. Who was the messenger who arrived?

12 Mr. Hedgman. Mr. Sidney Gottlieb.

13 Mr. Wides. And at that time, you knew who he was?

14 Mr. Hedgman. I recognized him as an officer of the 15 Agency.

16 Mr. Wides. By name, or on-site, or both?

17 Mr. Hedgman. On-site.

18 Mr. Wides. And by name or not?

19 Mr. Hedgman. I do not recall whether I knew his name.

20 I suspect I did, but I cannot reaffirm that.

21 Mr. Wides. Did you know what office he worked in, or did 22 he have to tell you that?

23 Mr. Hedgman. I believe that I knew, but this was not with 24 great certainty, that he worked in the what was then called 25 TSD, Technical Services Division. I did not know what part of

1 TSD.

2 Mr. Wides. Do you recall how he indicated to you that 3 he was the person referred to in the cable we have just 4 discussed?

5 Mr. Hedgman. I cannot be absolutely certain, but I
6 believe that he referred to the fact that I had received a
7 message and that he was the person concerned.

8 Mr. Wides. And did you meet him at the airport, or did 9 he --

10 Mr. Hedgman. No.

11 Mr. Wides. What were the circumstances under which you
12 first met?

13 Mr. Hedgman. It seems ridiculous, under the circumstances,
14 that I cannot pin this down.

15 (Pause)

16 Mr. Wides. Can we just first go through your recollection
17 of being with him?

18 Mr. Hedgman. I don't remember whether he came to the 19 Embassy and asked to speak to me, whether I met him as he came 20 out of the Embassy. It is conceivable that I could have been 21 told date and time, place, to meet him.

22 Mr. Wides. You don't recall --

23 Mr. Hedgman. I don't recall.

5 not sure of that, and I think he stayed at the hotel.

6 Mr. Wides. The main hotel in Leopoldville?

7 Mr. Hedgman. At the Memeling (?), if he could get a room.
8 Rooms were hard to get. He could conceivably have stayed at 9 my apartment, if he stayed.

10 Mr. Wides. And your conversations with him all took place

12 Mr. Hedgman. It took place in my personal apartment which 13 I had recently rented.

20 Mr. Hedgman. It is my recollection that he advised me,
21 or my instructions were, to eliminate Lumumba.

22 Mr. Wides. By eliminate, do you mean assassinate?

23 Mr. Hedgman. Yes. I would say that was the, that was 24 my understanding of the primary means. I don't think it was

2 Mr. Wides. Of doing what?

3 Mr. Hedgman. Of removing him from a position of political 4 threat.

5 Mr. Wides. Was there realistically any way in which he
6 was not a threat as long as he remained alive in the Congo?

7 Mr. Hedgman. Oh, yes. I think if he had been arrested
8 or something like that by the Congolese officials, in my own
9 mind, that would have been, would have achieved it.

10 Mr. Wides. And what did Mr. Gottlieb indicate with regard
11 to the possibility of physically eliminating him?

12 Mr. Hedgman. It was my understanding that that was 13 probably expected of me.

14 Mr. Wides. Yes.

15 And what did he tell you with regard to how that might be 16 accomplished?

17 Mr. Hedgman. Well, I think he -- certainly, as you are 18 aware, he brought some biological agents. I assume that that's 19 the correct word. But in any case, poisonous agents with him,
20 which he passed to me.

21 As I recall, he brought them with him. That's not 22 absolutely certain, but quite probable, in my opinion, that he 23 had hand-carried them.

24 Mr. Baron. These were lethal biological substances?

25 Mr. Hedgman. Yes. That was my understanding, as a

1 non-expert. However, in thinking it over, I believe that I --
2 there was -- this was not a sine qua non that I employ this.
3 If there were another method, another way, it would have been 4 acceptable.

5 It was also my recollection, let me just try and think for 6 a moment here -- I can't remember where I was going. I had a
7 point I wanted to make.

8 Well, if it comes back, I will think of it.

9 Mr. Dawson. Would it help you to have her read back that 10 portion where you were just testifying?

11 Mr. Hedgman. I don't think so.

12 Anyway, the biological substance, or specimens, what have 13 you, I think it was up to my judgment, and if there were a
14 better way -- certainly, the point I now recall was in no way,
15 if I implemented these instructions, no way could it be traced
16 back to the United States. It had to be a way which could not 17 be traced back to the United States, either to an American or 18 the United States government.

19 Mr. Wides. With regard to the materials, you said it is 20 your best recollection that he brought them with him?

21 Mr. Hedgman. I believe he did.

22 Mr. Wides. Yes.

23 Do you recall having a discussion with him about the

2 Mr. Wides. Do you recall having the -- were there also,
3 in addition to the lethal agents themselves, related paraphernalia

5 Mr. Hedgman. It is my best recollection there were rubber
6 gloves, a mask and a syringe.

7 Mr. Wides. Is it your recollection that these did not
8 arrive before Mr. Gottlieb came; that is, you did not have 9 materials arriving at the Station and yourself wondering what

11 Mr. Hedgman. That is correct. I do not believe they 12 came prior to Mr. Gottlieb's arrival.

13 Mr. Wides. Do you recall while you were discussing this

12 Mr. Hedgman. I believe he brought them.

15 Mr. Hedgman. Yes. I recollect that I told him that I
16 didn't know anything about the handling of such things.

17 Mr. Dawson. And do you recall what he told you about 18 that?

19 Mr. Hedgman. No, I don't really.

20 Mr. Dawson. Did he say to you that in order to handle
21 this substance you had to have the rubber gloves on?

22 Mr. Hedgman. That's an assumption I have made as a result
23 of my recollection that there were rubber gloves. But I cannot 24 be sure.

4 Mr. Wides. Now, do you mean by that there was more than 5 one dosage, or more than one vial or pill of the same kind of 6 lethal agent, or that there were several different kinds?

7 Mr. Hedgman. I believe there were two or more lethal
8 agents, types of lethal agents.

9 Mr. Wides. Do you recall him mentioning the word
10 botulism at all? Does that ring a bell?

11 Mr. Hedgman. I cannot be certain of that.

12 Mr. Wides. Do you recall --

13 Mr. Hedgman. I think that it is possible, but I cannot 14 be certain.

15 Mr. Wides. Does it ring some sort of a bell?

16 Mr. Hedgman. Botulism rings a bell, but I am not -- I
17 know what it is, therefore it is, there is an Agatha Christie
18 murder mystery based on it, or something like that.

19 Mr. Wides. Do you recall whether some of them were 20 poisons in the nature of cyanide and the like, or whether they 21 were all represented to be biological agents; that is, a virus
22 or a deadly germ of some sort?

23 Mr. Hedgman. I believe they were biological agents.

24 Mr. Wides. Do you recall whether any were referred to as 25 a virus?

1 Mr. Hedgman. No, I do not, sir. I don't know. There
2 may have been.

3 Mr. Wides. Since there were different types, I would
4 infer or assume that there was some discussion as to why you
5 might use one or the other in the first attempt?

6 Mr. Hedgman. I believe --

7 Mr. Wides. What can you recall of that?

8 Mr. Hedgman. I believe that I asked or raised the point,
9 and again, I cannot confirm this with absolute certainty, but 10 I believe I raised the point that poisons left traces in the 11 human body, which could be found on autopsy, and that I believe
12 that I was assured that these agents, I'm going to refer to them
13 as that because I don't know the correct term, terminology --

14 Mr. Wides. Lethal, these are lethal agents?

15 Mr. Hedgman. Lethal agents, would be normal traces found
16 in people that die of certain diseases.

17 Mr. Wides. And this would have been with regard to all
18 of them or only one of them?

19 Mr. Hedgman. That's why I hesitated on the botulism,
20 because that would fit, of course.

21 Mr. Wides. Was this assurance given in regard to all of 22 them, or one in particular?

23 Mr. Hedgman. I cannot be absolutely certain of that. I
24 believe all of them, but I --

5 sion?

6 Mr. Hedgman. I would think so. But I cannot -- don't 7 believe I can pin this down.

8 Mr. Wides. Do you recall any discussion with Dr. Gottlieb,
9 as to differences in the method of administration, preferred
10 method of administration?

11 Mr. Hedgman. I remember there was a reference to putting 12 one of them in possibly toothpaste which would be used.

13 Mr. Wides. How would that be accomplished, with a 14 syringe, or --

15 Mr. Hedgman. I don't remember. I think so.

16 Mr. Wides. Do you recall specifically that there was a
17 syringe as part of the equipment?

18 Mr. Hedgman. I believe there was, but I sure wouldn't 19 stake my life on it. But if I said I believe there was a 20 syringe, that's my recollection.

21 Mr. Wides. Now, just to go back for a moment, you said
22 before that he said that your instructions were if possible to 23 eliminate Lumumba, and that you thought that one possible way 24 or the way he was particularly addressing was in the sense of 25 assassination?

1 Mr. Hadgman. That's correct.

2 Mr. Wides. I take it that once you started discussing
3 these lethal agents, there was no doubt in your mind that the 4 kind of elimination he was there particularly to discuss was 5 killing Lumumba?

6 Mr. Hadgman. There was no doubt in my mind that this was 7 one of the way, and probably what they thought was the only way
8 that would work. But as the Chief of Station, I still, even 9 though a junior Chief of Station, I had a certain amount of 10 freedom of choice, I felt, at the time.

11 In other words, particularly since the emphasis was that 12 it could not be traced back to the U.S. government or the 13 United States.

14 Mr. Wides. Did you see --

15 I'm sorry.

16 Mr. Baron. The purpose of designing a lethal agent that 17 left the traces of a normal disease rather than a poison was 18 exactly that, wasn't it?

19 Mr. Hadgman. Yes, I would assume so.

20 Mr. Baron. To avoid --

21 Mr. Hadgman. It seems to me that was one of the points
22 that came out.

23 Mr. Baron. To avoid attribution to the United States?

24 Mr. Hadgman. To avoid attribution, really.

5 Mr. Baron. Was this a surgical gauze mask?

6 Mr. Hadgman. It is my recollection, I have that recollec-
7 tion, and yet I could not -- I am being asked to swear to this,
8 of course, and I swear that it is my recollection.

9 Mr. Wides. Do you recall that the materials were in liquid
10 form, in a vial or bottle, or --

11 Mr. Hadgman. I do not recall, sir.

12 Mr. Wides. But I assume, if your best recollection is 13 there was discussion of a syringe, that presumably it was in 14 liquid form?

15 Mr. Hadgman. I would assume so.

16 Mr. Wides. Or something that would be turned into a 17 liquid.

18 Mr. Hadgman. I would assume so, but I honestly cannot 19 tell you what form they were in.

20 Mr. Wides. And your best recollection was there were two

22 Mr. Hadgman. Yes, two or three.

2 Mr. Hedgman. To my recollection, he did not refer to any

4 Mr. Wides. Did he refer to any prospective or possible

6 Mr. Hedgman. Not to my recollection. I don't believe he 7 did. It would not have been normal for him to discuss that with 8 me.

9 Mr. Wides. Do you recall, by any chance, the name of 10 Fidel Castro coming up in the course of this?

11 Mr. Hedgman. Almost certainly it did not.

12 Mr. Wides. Now, with regard to the possibility of other 13 means, first with regard to the possibility of other means of 14 killing Lumumba, did you discuss with him any other ways of 15 arranging Lumumba's death other than using these lethal agents, 16 such as shooting, or --

17 Mr. Hedgman. I think I may well have suggested that as 18 a possibility, shooting.

19 Mr. Wides. Did you discuss with him specific other ways
20 of trying to eliminate him as a political threat, or is it
21 simply your assumption that if you had found some other way,
22 that might have been an alternative option for you?

1 your instructions were to eliminate Lumumba, and that one way
2 of doing this, which was discussed in concrete form, and which 3 you were given the means for, was killing him or arranging his 4 death, but that that was only one possibility.

5 Did you discuss, in fact, with Dr. Gottlieb any other ways
6 of eliminating Lumumba, non-lethal ways?

7 Mr. Hedgman. I may well -- non-lethal ways?

8 Mr. Wides. Yes.

9 Mr. Hedgman. I cannot recall with certainty on that. It
10 is my recollection that he was, either was or was very shortly
11 thereafter under the protection of the United Nations in the 12 Prime Minister's combination residence and office. Certainly 13 he was there after 14 September.

19 did not discuss any other way of eliminating Lumumba other than 20 assassination?

21 Mr. Hedgman. I cannot give you assurance. I have 22 tried to go back in my mind on that.

3 Mr. Wides. Well, I understand that is a possibility that

5 have discussed other means of arranging his death --

6 Mr. Hedgman. I may have.

7 Mr. Wides. -- than use of agents, but earlier you said
8 you considered your instruction to be eliminating him, and that 9 one possibility was through his death, but there were other
10 possibilities. And I am asking you now whether you recall
11 discussing any non-lethal ways to eliminate him as a political 12 threat with Dr. Gottlieb in connection with your instructions?

13 Mr. Hedgman. I cannot be certain that I did, sir.
14 There obviously was the possibility that his Congolese political 15 enemies would gain control of him in some manner, get him in 16 their, under their control, in which case he would have been 17 neutralized.

18 Mr. Wides. But in regard to your instructions to do what 19 you could to eliminate the threat, with regard to action that 20 you would take as the Station Chief, I take it all you discus-
21 sed with Dr. Gottlieb were means of arranging his death from the 22 point of view of what you could do?

18 lection, that I did.

19 Mr. Wides. What do you recall in essence was what you
20 said to him?

21 Mr. Hedgman. In essence, I think I must have, and again
22 this is, I am guessing as to what my wording was, must have 23 pointed out that this was not a common or usual Agency tactic,

1 the Agency had I ever heard any references to such, in my,

3 I asked on whose authority these instructions were issued.

4 Mr. Wides. And what did Mr. Gottlieb reply?

5 Mr. Hedgman. It is my recollection that he identified
6 the President, and I cannot -- the President of the United
7 States -- and I cannot recall whether he said "the President,"
8 or whether he identified him by name.

9 Mr. Wides. But it is your best recollection that he said
10 something more specific than highest authority, that is, the 11 President, or the White House, or President Eisenhower?

12 Mr. Hedgman. I want to get this one right, because I
13 realize it's important.

14 Mr. Wides. Let's start, excuse me, let's start with the 15 most basic question.

16 Is it your recollection that he clearly told you it was 17 an authority higher than the Director of the CIA?

18 Mr. Hedgman. I'm not sure that he put it that way. As 19 I said, I believe --

20 Mr. Wides. But I don't mean that he used those words, 21 but is it clear --

22 Mr. Hedgman. That was my understanding, that it --

23 Mr. Wides. That is was higher than the Director?

24 Mr. Hedgman. Yes.

25 Mr. Wides. Can you recall whether he said "the President"

1 or "President Eisenhower?"

2 Mr. Hedgman. I cannot recall whether he just said, whether
3 he said "the President" or whether he said "President Eisenhow-
4 er."

5 Mr. Wides. But it was one of those two, is your best
6 recollection?

7 Mr. Hedgman. I would say almost certainly, but not -
8 in other words, I am at about the second level of affirmation
9 here.

10 Mr. Wides. If not that specific --

11 Mr. Hedgman. It was my understanding it was the 12 President, yes.

13 Mr. Wides. And did he also, apart from what you would 14 have inferred would be implied by that, did he also say in any 15 way something that referred to it being approved by the Director
16 of the Agency?

17 Mr. Hedgman. I have tried to go back in my mind on that,
18 and I think, I believe-- but again now, this one, it's pretty 19 loose in my mind -- it was something to the effect that the 20 President had instructed the Director.

21 Mr. Wides. Your understanding then was that these 22 instructions were instructions coming to you from the office
23 of the President?

24 Mr. Hedgman. That's correct.

25 Mr. Wides. Or that he had instructed the Agency, and they

2 Mr. Hedgman. That's right.

3 Mr. Dawson. You are not the least unclear whether or 4 not you came aware with a very clear impression that the Presi-
5 dent's name had been invoked in some fashion?

6 Mr. Hedgman. Yes. I came -- certainly that is my
7 recollection.

8 Mr. Dawson. You have no doubt about that?

9 Mr. Wides. At the time?

10 Mr. Hedgman. At the time I certainly felt that I was 11 under instructions from the President, yes.

12 Mr. Wides. All right.

13 Mr. Dawson. You were less certain as to whether or not 14 the Director of Central Intelligence's name was invoked as 15 authority?

16 Mr. Hedgman. Because the other one seemed higher, and --

17 Mr. Dawson. Okay.

18 Mr. Hedgman. And I think in my own mind I could not 19 imagine the Agency taking such action without clearing it with 20 the President.

21 Mr. Wides. Do you recall asking something to the effect
22 of where did this brilliant idea come from, or who had such a
23 brilliant idea?

5 President Eisenhower has instructed or told the Director that 6 this is what is wanted?

7 Mr. Hedgman. I think he said told the Director. This is 8 I mean, after all, the President would not pick up the phone
9 and dial Dr. Gottlieb and say, hey, I've got a little job for 10 you.

19 President.

20 Mr. Wides. And your impression, your recollection is at 21 that time, after your discussion with Dr. Gottlieb, that you then,

4 Mr. Hedgman. I believe that is so.

5 Mr. Wides. That is your best recollection?

6 Mr. Hedgman. That is my best recollection.

7 Mr. Wides. With regard to what you understood your 8 instructions to be, is it a fair summary to say that your 9 instructions were to determine in what way you could use these 10 agents, with the possibility that you might think of a better
11 way in your mind, but that if you could use these agents to 12 assassinate Lumumba in a way which would not implicate the 13 United States, that you were under instructions to do so?

14 Mr. Hedgman. I would qualify that slightly. I would 15 qualify it in that in operations normally you never use greater 16 force or greater effort than is necessary to accomplish the 17 purpose. I would think, and I think I thought at the time, that 18 if there were some way that he could be removed from a position
19 of power and threat which we, most of us thought was a threat
20 to the United States by him, that that would have been satis-
21 factory.

22 However, it was clear that people were thinking in terms
23 of his physical removal by the equipment I was given, the 24 agents, the lethal agents which were given to me.

6 Mr. Hedgman. Oh, yes.

7 Mr. Wides. Well, I take it --

8 Mr. Hedgman. This was not a common occurrence.

9 Mr. Wides. I take it you thought you had authority to 10 use them, and that had you done so the next day, or very shortly
11 thereafter, that that was clearly within the authority
12 that -- well, off the record.

13 (Discussion off the record.)

14 Mr. Wides. Subsequent to your discussion with Dr.
15 Gottlieb, did you seek confirmation of the instructions that 16 he had given you by further communications with the Agency?

17 Mr. Hedgman. In my recollection that I sent a message,
18 whether I identified Gottlieb by name or not, I do not recall,
19 but that I asked for some form of confirmation that he was the 20 proper messenger and that his instructions were --

21 Mr. Wides. Correct?

22 Mr. Hedgman. Were correct.

23 Mr. Wides. Did you receive a response to that message?

24 Mr. Hedgman. I -- before I continue, I would say that

22 Do you have any recollection of any message during 23 [Gottlieb's] discussion with you or thereafter in effect putting a

25 poisons? Do you have any recollection of that?

1 Mr. Hedgman. I do not, but may I add there, I know that
2 I sent several messages about potential access.

3 Mr. Wides. Yes.

4 Mr. Hedgman. Which makes me think --

5 Mr. Baron. Potential access to Lumumba?

6 Mr. Hedgman. Yes, which makes me think I was perhaps 7 supposed to clear it.

8 Mr. Wides. Could those also simply have been progress
9 reports, even if there was no hold?

10 Mr. Hedgman. That's possible, yes.

11 Mr. Wides. And do you have a recollection, although not 12 a clear one, that in fact you thought it was up to you at that 13 point and that you could go, if you thought the situation was 14 correct?

15 Mr. Hedgman. If I had to decide between those two things,
16 I think I probably thought I had it, but I cannot absolutely 17 confirm that, sir.

18 Mr. Wides. I understand that, but you have some recollection
19 that you thought you had it, and you have no recollection
20 of thinking there was a hold? You simply cannot be, you are 21 not absolutely certain that you thought you had a go ahead,
22 is that a fair summary of your testimony?

23 Mr. Hedgman. Yes, I think that would be correct.

24 Mr. Wides. Now, do you recall, and I am coming back to 25 the messages in a moment, do you recall sometime in the

3 Mr. Hedgman. I don't recall the time, but it was perhaps,
4 it would have been about that time.

5 Mr. Wides. Was it several weeks after Dr. Gottlieb's
6 arrival?

7 Mr. Hedgman. I cannot put a timeframe within weeks on it.
8 I would have guessed yes.

9 Mr. Wides. Was it clearly after Dr. Gottlieb?

10 Mr. Hedgman. Yes.

11 Mr. Wides. I believe you indicated to us in preliminary 12 discussions that you had some intimation or anticipation that 13 his arrival -- strike that.

14 Am I correct that you had some knowledge he was going to 15 arrive before he appeared; that is, by name you knew that he 16 was coming to the Station before he actually physically got 17 there?

18 Mr. Hedgman. I believe that is correct.

19 Mr. Wides. And I believe you indicated yesterday in 20 preliminary discussions with us that in anticipating his 21 arrival, you had some impression that he was to aid in the 22 removal or the elimination of Lumumba, is that correct?

23 Mr. Hedgman. I don't believe -- I may have misstated
24 myself if I said that yesterday. I think it was more when he 25 arrived that I was advised of that.

1 Mr. Wides. I see.

2 Mr. Hedgman. There may have been a message in that
3 channel indicating that he was arriving, which would have made
4 me think that he was related with it. I cannot be certain.

5 Mr. Wides. Do you recall indicating to us yesterday
6 that when he arrived initially one thought you had was that 7 perhaps you were going to be replaced as Station Chief, in your 8 first job as Station Chief, because you had been dragging your 9 feet, or not acting expeditiously enough on Lumumba?

10 Mr. Hedgman. I recall saying that yesterday.

11 Mr. Wides. What is your recollection today?

12 Mr. Hedgman. Put it -- may I go off the record a moment?

13 Mr. Wides. Yes.

14 (Discussion off the record.)

15 Mr. Wides. Let's go back on the record.

16 Let me phrase the question this way, Mr. Hedgman: when 17 Mr. O'Donnell arrived, I take it as a somewhat junior Station
18 Chief, and in your first job as a Station Chief, that you
19 considered whether there was dissatisfaction with your handling 20 of the job, or the need for more experienced personnel there,
21 is that correct?

22 Mr. Hedgman. I think that is possibly true.

23 Mr. Wides. Now, do you recall whether one of the 24 thoughts that went through your mind was that perhaps the 25 Headquarters was, the Agency was dissatisfied with foot-dragging

1 or the lack of action on your part in implementing Dr. Gottlieb's
2 instructions? Was that one of the thoughts that went through
3 your mind as far as you can recall?

4 Mr. Hedgman. I cannot say that with certainty now. It
5 is very possible.

6 Mr. Wides. Do you have any recollection that that went 7 through your mind even if you can't be certain?

8 Mr. Hedgman. To repeat, that he --

9 Mr. Wides. That you thought --

10 Mr. Hedgman. That I thought that they were dissatisfied
11 with my handling of that?

12 Mr. Wides. Because you had not yet eliminated Lumumba
13 or taken further steps to do so?

14 Mr. Hedgman. I just can't, I just would like to back off
15 that one because I cannot be certain. I knew that obviously 16 they had sent a man who had much more experience than I, and 17 yet it was clear that he was working for me, because I was 18 not relieved as Chief of Station. They would never have sent 19 him there under me and then switched the positions.

20 Mr. Wides. Prior to his coming -- to return now to the 21 period when you sent the confirmation, request for confirmation --
22 do you recall slugging it back through a particular channel?

23 Mr. Hedgman. There was some special channel, and I --
24 because it was handled differently than any other normal
25 message. For example, it was not put on a regular cable form,

1 which, you know, you have several copies for your various
2 files. And it was my recollection that I personally carried
3 the message to the communicator to encrypt, and that was worded
4 in a double-talk way that even the communicator would not
5 necessarily know what it was about.

6 Mr. Wides. If your communication to the Headquarters and 7 their communication back were in somewhat ambiguous terms,
8 particularly your question, such as is the person, is this 9 person the messenger, and are his instructions accurate, and 10 if the reply was essentially yes to both questions, how would 11 that have assured you that his invocation of Presidential 12 authority was accurate, or even his invocation of the authority
13 of the Director was accurate without your indicating in your 14 cable in some way what the instructions were?

15 Mr. Hedgman. I suppose that -- I doubt that I would have 16 indicated in the cable the authority cited because of the 17 nature of the instructions. Perhaps I was much more naive then
18 than many of us are now, but I assumed when I received instruc-
19 tions that they came, they were duly authorized instructions.

20 It was clear that the man -- I had received the message
21 that someone was going to contact me with instructions, which 22 was most unusual. I mean, why weren't they sent in writing,
23 in other words, by cable or by dispatch. And it arrived, and 24 it arrived, a man whom I recognized as an AGency officer, and 25 he gave me instructions. I went back through this very special

1 channle and said, you know, I don't remember how I worded it
2 it was a doubletalk thing, but I came away, I was convinced that 3 yes, it was right.

4 Now, there is no way I could know or be absolutely certain
5 if those instructions emanated from the President, but I, I took 6 this perhaps as an act of faith.

7 Mr. Wides. I understand.

8 When you were discussing with Dr. Gottlieb during his stay
9 of a day, perhaps one or two days, what else can you recall was 10 discussed by the two of you?

11 Mr. Hedgman. I don't have a recollection. I probably 12 wanted to know about where my various friends were and what was 13 happening and the sort of gossip that goes around.

14 Mr. Wides. Do you recall any discussion as to whether 15 Mr. Bissell was witting of this particular mission or instruc-
16 tion?

17 Mr. Hedgman. I cannot be certain of that. I think I
18 would have assumed.

19 Mr. Wides. Not being certain, what is your best recollec-
20 tion as to whether his name came up in regard to the instructions?

21 Mr. Hedgman. I have no recollection whether his name
22 came up. Certainly I would have assumed that he would have 23 been involved, and it is entirely possible that his name didn't 24 come up.

1 the reference to the White House and possibly the express
2 reference to the Director, possibly?

3 Mr. Hedgman. I don't believe so.

4 Mr. Wides. Do you recall Mr. Tweedy's name coming up?

5 Mr. Hedgman. No, I do not. But it is entirely possible
6 that it did, in that he was my direct chief.

7 Mr. Wides. Do you recall any other aspects of the 8 discussion, whether related to the mission or not, in regard to 9 what his job was, what he was doing at that time, your problems
10 in the Congo, or Mr. Lumumba's particular threat?

11 Mr. Hedgman. I probably discussed with him what I saw to 12 be a very severe threat, serious threat, I should say, to 13 U.S. position in Africa. It was my belief that the Soviets were 14 making a major effort to secure a bridgehead, to take over one
15 of the two or three largest, and potentially richest countries
16 in Africa.

17 Mr. Wides. Do you recall anything regarding any discussion
18 regarding access that you then had? Now, I am referring to your 19 discussions with [Dr. Gottlieb] in the way of agents you might 20 use who might be able to prevent attribution to American and 21 so forth?

22 Mr. Hedgman. I have a recollection, I have a recollection
23 that I cited one agent's name, or perhaps not name, but 24 described him as a person who would have access.

25 Mr. Wides. To Lumumba directly?

1 Mr. Hedgman. To probably have access to -- certainly 2 would have access to Lumumba, and might be able to use such 3 agents.

4 Mr. Wides. Was there any discussion of instructing this 5 agent how one would go about instructing the agent to use the 6 lethal agents between yourself and Dr. Gottlieb?

7 Mr. Hedgman. Probably, but I cannot be sure of that,
8 because I would -- I know I did not know how to use them, so
9 I must have asked how to use them.

10 Mr. Wides. Do you recall subsequent to your -- let me
11 go back.

12 How would you characterize, or if you can remember the 13 substance of what you said, what was your response to Dr.
14 Gottlieb having been given these instructions, having been taken
15 somewhat aback, according to your testimony, having asked about 16 authority and having been assured that it came from the White
17 House, what was the essence of the response that you gave Dr.
18 Gottlieb that he would have brought back to Headquarters himself?

19 Mr. Hedgman. I think that it was that I would explore,
20 and again I am saying I think, that I would explore this.

21 Mr. Wides. Did you give him any indication that you would 22 not carry out the instructions?

23 Mr. Hedgman. No, I don't believe I said that. But I
24 believe I pointed out that it was -- it would be extremely 25 difficult to carry out these instructions, meeting the criteria

1 that we could no way be traced back to the United States.

2 Mr. Wides. Would it be a fair summary that he left the 3 meeting -- well, you can't testify for him -- that it would 4 have been reasonable for him to leave the meeting with the 5 impression that you would, if possible, carry out those 6 instructions?

7 Mr. Hedgman. I couldn't speculate as to whether he thought
8 I would or not.

9 Mr. Wides. But would that have been a fair impression
10 for him to take away from your comments?

11 Mr. Hedgman. I think it would be a fair impression that 12 he would take away the thought that I was going to look into 13 it and try and figure if there was a way, but I do remember --
14 I shouldn't say remember -- I believe I stressed the difficulty
15 of trying to carry out such an operation.

16 Mr. Wides. But since he had given you instructions that 17 the President wanted this, would it have been fair for him to 18 carry away from your conversation the understanding that if 19 you thought it could be done, if you found a way, that it would 20 then go forward, you would then go forward?

21 Mr. Hedgman. Yes.

22 As I said earlier, I cannot be certain that I -- that 23 he would have gone away with the idea that I would immediately
24 do it, or that I would seek further authorization.

25 Mr. Wides. Now, subsequent to the sending of the request

2 a recollection of, both confirming the instructions, what
3 further steps did you take in the Congo, and what further
4 communications did you have with Headquarters regarding the 5 mission?

6 Let's take that one step at a time.

7 What further steps did you take prior to Mr. O'Donnell
8 coming?

9 Mr. Hedgman. I believe that I queried the agent who had 10 access to Lumumba, and his entourage, in detail about just what 11 that access, what access he actually had, as opposed to speaking
12 to people. In other words, did he have access to the bathroom,
13 did he have access to the kitchen, things of that sort.

14 I have a recollection of having queried him on that without 15 specifying why I wanted to know this.

16 Mr. Wides. Did you take any other steps to find out the 17 pattern of Patrice Lumumba's activities as they might relate 18 to attempting to put these lethal agents into food or toothpaste?

19 Mr. Hedgman. That's what I, in essence, I think what I
20 was doing there was -- but without specifying why.

21 Mr. Wides. Did you recall any other steps? What did you
22 do with the materials themselves?

23 Mr. Hedgman. As I recall, I placed them in the bottom
24 drawer of my safe, to which I had access.

25 Mr. Wides. No one else had the combination, or did anyone

2 Mr. Hedgman. Yes, I believe my secretary had the 3 combination.

4 Mr. Baron. Did you discuss this with your secretary?

5 Mr. Hedgman. I most certainly did not.

6 Mr. Wides. Was she in the habit of occasionally opening
7 the safe rather than yourself?

8 Mr. Hedgman. Yes.

9 Mr. Wides. What would have happened, or what did you
10 anticipate would happen, if she had opened the safe and seen
11 these packages?

12 Mr. Hedgman. Well, I believe they were probably wrapped
13 or sealed in an envelope or paper marked probably -- I put that,
14 and this is again probably -- Eyes Only, so for myself --

15 Mr. Wides. You didn't feel it necessary to indicate to 16 her that there were some packages here and I don't want you to 17 open them or to look at them?

18 Mr. Hedgman. If I sealed it and put Eyes Only on it, 19 she would not have.

20 Mr. Wides. Did you send subsequent cables back or have 21 further communication with Headquarters after the request for 22 confirmation?

23 Mr. Hedgman. Yes. It is my recollection I sent several,
24 two or three, something like that.

7 Mr. Hedgman. I believe there was. If I had to bet money
8 on this one, I would say, I would bet on the fact that there
9 was at least one or two more back to me.

10 Mr. Wides. What is your best recollection as to the 11 nature of those?

12 Mr. Hedgman. I don't really have a recollection. I
13 recall that there was one more, than one cable, more than 14 two cables, the one saying that there is the man coming, and 15 there was the one which I recall saying yes, that's right,
16 and you are to follow out his instructions or his instructions
17 are duly issued or something to the effect. And I believe there
18 was one, one or two other cables, but I don't have a recollection
19 of their contents. Probably querying for further explanation,
20 but I cannot confirm that.

21 Mr. Wides. Let me ask you the following question: you
22 have indicated that, I believe you have testified, and correct
23 me if I am wrong, but I have a recollection that you at the time

4 Is it fair to say that you understood that this was well
5 beyond the exploratory stage as a conceivable option that the U.S.
6 might take, and that you understood that from the highest 7 authority, that is the President, there were instructions
8 to carry out the assassination of Lumumba if it could be done
9 without attribution, but that Headquarters might have expected
10 some indication from you of how you were going to do it prior 11 to the actual implementation? Is that a fair summary of what 12 you are telling us?

13 Mr. Hedgman. Will you repeat that? Could she --

14 Mr. Wides. That you had received instructions from the 15 highest authority, that is the President, down through the Agency,
16 if that is possible, because of their concern about Mr. Lumumba
17 to use lethal agents to assassinate him, but that you might have 18 you had received the authority to do that, and there was a
19 direction to do it if possible, but that you might have sent back
20 to Headquarters, in guarded language, an indication of how you
21 were going to go about it, or that you had decided that it could 22 be done in a feasible way before going ahead with it.

4 Mr. Baron. As far as you were concerned, the policy
5 decision had been made at Headquarters and in the White House
6 to assassinate Lumumba, and the questions that remained were 7 operational questions, is that correct?

8 Mr. Hedgman. It is now my recollection, some fifteen
9 years later -- and again I stress fifteen years -- that I
10 thought the policy decision had been made in the White House,
11 not in the Agency, and that the Agency had been selected as 12 the Executive Agent, if you will, to carry out a political

1 assassination of Mr. Lumumba?

2 Mr. Hedgman. I do not recall his discussing that with
3 me.

4 Mr. Wides. And do you recall ever indicating to him that 5 there was a virus or other deadly biological agent in the 6 safe?

7 Mr. Hedgman. I do not recall that, no, but I gather that 8 I must have from what you told me yesterday.

9 Mr. Dawson. You stated yesterday, I believe --

10 Mr. Wides. Excuse me.

11 Let me just on the record clarify that.

12 Do you mean by that if Mr. O'Donnell testified you did
13 tell him you would not dispute that, you just have no recollec-
14 tion?

15 Mr. Hedgman. I have no recollection.

16 Mr. Dawson. You said yesterday you not only were 17 unenthusiastic about it, I believe were the terms you used,
18 about the prospect of seeking to assassinate Lumumba, but I
19 thought you also said that O'Donnell was not particularly 20 enthusiastic about his work there either?

21 Mr. Hedgman. Yes.

22 I would put it yes, his work there. I cannot pin it
23 down to assassination as such, although certainly in my own
24 mind I think I must have thought that at the time. I didn't,
25 was not enthusiastic about these instructions, and I had

1 no -- had the impression he was not that happy even to be
2 there.

3 Mr. Wides. You said yesterday, I believe you said you
4 felt under no pressure to carry out the assignment, is that 5 a correct statement?

6 Mr. Hedgman. Yeah. I don't recall getting messages to 7 the effect, which quite often one gets when you have been given
8 instructions to carry out a specific operation, you know, let's
9 have the information, what are you doing, why aren't you doing
10 more? I do not recall pressure on me to get moving on this 11 thing and do it and carry it out.

12 Mr. Wides. You indicated a moment ago, I think, in 13 connection with Mr. O'Donnell coming and your general wondering
14 at the time of his approval, whether there was dissatisfaction
15 with your performance that the Congo had become a central area
16 of focus for the government and their concern over its future
17 and Soviet intervention and so forth, is that right?

18 Mr. Hedgman. Yes. I know -- well, of course by the 19 time that Mr. O'Donnell arrived, the Soviet intervention was,
20 shall we say, limited, if I recall correctly, only to the north
21 and northeastern part of the country, because the Soviets had 22 been expelled.

23 Mr. Wides. I meant in the larger sense of Soviet influence
24 or Communist influence eventually in the country?

25 Mr. Hedgman. Yes.

1 Now, let's see. Would you repeat that?

2 Mr. Wides. Well, the essence of the question is simply 3 that at this time, by late September, early October, the Congo
4 was an area of great concern to the United States government?

5 Mr. Hedgman. Correct.

6 Mr. Wides. There was a general sense of urgency about 7 the problems?

8 Mr. Hedgman. That's correct.

9 Mr. Wides. The potential problems, and you had gotten 10 the unusual communication, a direct personal messenger, that 11 the President of the United States had instructed the Agency
12 to eliminate Lumumba?

13 Mr. Hedgman. Right.

14 Mr. Wides. Now, I find it a little hard to understand
15 in that context how you would have regarded, how you could have 16 regarded it as not a high-priority item with some urgency
17 involved.

18 Mr. Hedgman. Well, certainly it was a priority, but 19 there were many priorities, and that was one of my problems
20 at the time, that I was swamped with work, a little bit like 21 you with four people calling you here.

22 Mr. Wides. Well, would you have rated this on a comparable
23 level with various intelligence requirements that you would have 24 got in the normal course?

25 Mr. Hedgman. No, I would have -- but there were a number

1 of other requirements which were levied on me which we are not
2 discussing and is not in the purview of this discussion today.
3 I think there was one major thing probably which took some of 4 the heat off, that is, that Lumumba had been essentially
5 neutralized within his office complex, home and office complex
6 where he was under guard by the United Nations.

7 He was able to send messages out, but the -- there had 8 been a coup d'etat, at least there was a coup d'eta on the 9 night of the 14th of September, 1960. A government which was,
10 although nationalistically oriented seemed relatively friendly
11 toward the United States, was in power. There was a great deal
12 of discussion as to its legality at the time, but that was 13 resolved by the United States and most of the Western powers
14 who decided that it was legal since the government, since once
15 President Kasavubu appointed the members of that government,
16 his government, he was the legal Chief of State.

17 So I would -- do you follow what I am trying to say?

18 Mr. Wides. Yes, I do.

19 Mr. Hadgman. I think there was a lessening in my own
20 feeling, of urgency.

21 Mr. Wides. Each time that you sent a cable back -- you 22 said you thought you had sent several after the request for 23 confirmation --

24 Mr. Hadgman. I think I did.

25 Mr. Wides. Was that simply something you made up, or did

1 that reflect additional action that you had taken?

2 Mr. Hedgman. No, it was not a fabricated message. In 3 other words, I didn't fabricate things.

4 Mr. Wides. Did it just reflect further thoughts, or 5 did it reflect a report on some further steps you had taken?

6 Mr. Hedgman. I think probably, and I cannot be sure of 7 this, sir, I think it probably reflected further steps which 8 I had taken; that is, exploratory steps.

9 Mr. Wides. How many times did you speak to the agent about 10 what kinds of access he had, and what Lumumba's patterns were?
11 Was it on more than one occasion?

12 Mr. Hedgman. I believe so. I believe it would have been 13 on two, possibly three.

14 Mr. Wides. What other steps or activities had you
15 undertaken which were reported in your cable?

16 Mr. Hedgman. I think that was it. Querying him, and 17 then personal observations of the area.

18 Mr. Wides. Did you indicate to Mr. O'Donnell what you
19 had done in that regard when he came?

20 Mr. Hedgman. I assume I did, but I cannot be sure.

21 Mr. Wides. And do you recall --

23 to have done so.

7 Mr. Wides. And you think you would have told him the 8 additional background of receipt of those? Is that it?

9 Mr. Hedgman. I believe so.

10 Mr. Wides. Did you take any steps in the way of discus-

12 further explore the possibility of implementing these instruc-

14 Mr. Hedgman. I do not recall. I tend to doubt it, because 15 I believe he left, left town and went to Stanleyville, the 16 agent I am speaking about, sometime in October. But that's --

17 Mr. Wides. Did you feel some sense of relief of not 18 having to pursue the question of eliminating Lumumba after 19 Mr. O'Donnell arrived because you sort of felt that this was

3 Mr. Hadgman. It is hard to recall now. I know we met.
4 He probably reported verbally to me what steps he was taking,
5 and that may have been those, his reports may have been those 6 messages also which I sent. I said I thought I sent several 7 messages via that special channel, and in retrospect, I may 8 have been reporting one of those messages, they may have been side 2b 9 reports which he gave me to send back to Washington.

10 Mr. Wides. Well, let me ask you this: I have reviewed,
11 and I can represent to you that I have reviewed several files
12 regarding his activities in the Congo, and they include in the 13 normal message traffic, between Leopoldville and the Congolese
14 desk at the Agency, references to him in his crypt, and his 15 activities there. Did that suggest that --

16 Mr. Hadgman. He's --

17 Mr. Wides. There might be other, there might be, are 18 you saying there might also be messages regarding his activities 19 in the special channel, or would that suggest to you that his 20 activities were not communicated in the special channel?

21 Mr. Hadgman. It doesn't suggest either one, really. I
22 am again not trying to fence with you or anything. I don't 23 know. I would guess that I would have sent in a special
24 channel anything dealing with Lumumba, at least that would 25 touch upon his removal in one way or another.

5 Mr. Hadgman. I had not remembered that until yesterday
6 when you raised it.

7 Mr. Wides. Do you now have a recollection, refreshed, of 8 his having someone come in?

9 Mr. Hadgman. A vague recollection, very vague.

10 Mr. Wides. Do you recall where the person came from, or 11 whether he was a CIA officer, or just a contract agent?

12 Mr. Hadgman. From the name you used for him yesterday, 13 I would know that he would be an agent as opposed to an 14 intelligence officer.

15 Mr. Wides. But you have no independent recollection of 16 who he was or where he was from or his background?

17 Mr. Hadgman. No. I had forgotten that entirely.

18 Mr. Wides. Do you recall a time when you learned that 19 Patrice Lumumba had escaped from his house detention or arrest
20 in the Presidential Palace?

21 Mr. Hadgman. Yes. It was not the Palace, the Prime

23 Mr. Wides. The Prime Minister's residence.

24 And do you recall whether you had any foreknowledge that 25 that was imminent, or a likely possibility?

4 Mr. Wides. Do you know of any assistance or involvement
5 of Mr. O'Donnell or his agent or anyone else connected with the

7 Mr. Hedgman. I am quite certain that there was no Agency

9 I would have known it as Chief of Station.

10 O'Donnell could not have taken such action under normal
11 Agency procedures without consulting me.

12 Mr. Wides. Now, is it correct that when he escaped, Mr.

15 he was apprehended by the Central Congolese government authori-

1 Mr. Hedgman. I am certain I sent cables about what I knew

3 commented about what might have been done to head him off.

4 Mr. Wides. Would those have been in the normal channels,
5 those communications?

6 Mr. Hedgman. Yes. I would assume they would have been.
7 Remember, we are at that time -- I should stress this, this makes 8 quite a difference -- our communications facilities were marginal,
9 to say the least, and we did not have the modern equipment which 10 is now used in most Stations, embassies, where you just sit
11 down and poke it out. And I won't go into the technical aspects, 12 but it took much longer to code, encode and decode messages.

13 As a result, I kept my messages much shorter than what 14 I would nowadays. So, I presume and assume that I sent whatever

9 This took place at his home as opposed to the office.

10 Mr. Wides. And part of the discussion and the main focus
11 was with regard to the Congo, was on the fact that Lumumba was 12 on the loose, and it wasn't clear whether he would incite an 13 uprising?

14 Mr. Hedgman. I would say it was more clearly a complete
15 overview of what was going on, including the threat of the 16 Tshombe secession. Of certainty, Lumumba's escape would have 17 been a major point of discussion, as was the fact that Gizenga
18 had set up a government which he claimed to be the only true and 19 legitimate government in Stanleyville.

20 Mr. Wides. Was Mr. Lumumba one of the topics that you

6 should not leave the Congo at that time.

7 Mr. Wides. I know that we have had a little more chance

18 Mr. Hedgman. I don't recall.

19 Mr. Wides. Is there anyone else in the Agency you can 20 ever recall discussing this assigned mission with?

21 Mr. Hedgman. No. It's possible that I talked with some-
22 one like Tom Karamessines when he was DDP. But --

23 Mr. Dawson. Did you talk to Dr. Gottlieb subsequent to 24 his arrival in the Congo?

25 Mr. Wides. You mean after his departure, after that trip?

1 Mr. Dawson. Yes, subsequent to.

2 Mr. Hedgman. I saw him numerous times.

3 Mr. Dawson. And your reaction to him was thank God we
4 didn't have to carry that mission out, or thank God it didn't 5 happen?

6 Mr. Hedgman. Well, I talked to him about so many things,
7 and I probably said that.

8 Mr. Wides. Do you have a recollection of discussing with 9 him at a subsequent time to his trip to Leopoldville, ever
10 raising the instructions he gave you for his trip?

11 Mr. Hedgman. Not specifically as such.

12 Mr. Wides. You don't have a recollection, or you don't 13 recall discussing it specifically, but you recall some general
14 illusion to it?

15 Mr. Hedgman. Yes, I recall general illusion to it.

16 Mr. Dawson. Do you recall talking to anybody within the 17 last six months about this, or more recently?

18 Mr. Wides. Since the first of the year?

19 Mr. Hedgman. Yeah. I am just trying to go through in my 20 own mind.

21 (Pause)

22 Yes, Mr. Colby. I saw him the other day when I returned.

23 Mr. Wides. What was your discussion with him in that 24 regard?

25 Mr. Hedgman. I told him I assumed this subject would come

2 Mr. Dawson. This subject? Did you expect him to be
3 fully cognizant with all the particulars?

4 Mr. Hedgman. I am not sure that I did.

5 Mr. Dawson. At least the Presidential authorization and 6 the passage of the vials of poison, the person that was used
7 to pass these?

8 Mr. Hedgman. I mentioned [Dr. Gottlieb's] name. I am not 9 sure that I mentioned vials of poison or --

10 Mr. Wides. Did you indicate to him [Dr. Gottlieb] had come
11 to the Congo?

12 Mr. Hedgman. I believe I did.

13 Mr. Dawson. Well, let me just follow that.

14 And the Presidential authorization, was that also 15 mentioned?

16 Mr. Hedgman. Yes, I am quite sure I mentioned that.

17 Mr. Dawson. What was his reaction?

18 Mr. Hedgman. His reaction was that it was a great shame
19 that this ever happened. I'm putting words in his mouth.

20 Mr. Dawson. Go right ahead.

21 Mr. Hedgman. And certainly that I must obviously report
22 fully and honestly to the Committee.

23 Mr. Wides. Did he discuss, say anything about his prior 24 knowledge of what you had just told him?

25 Did he seemed surprised by any of what you told him?

1 Mr. Hedgman. No, I don't think so. I think that I had

3 or parallel with when I did Dr. Schlesinger.

4 Mr. Wides. When you saw him recently and mentioned this,
5 did you refer to your telling this to Director Schlesinger, or 6 did you say, as you recall?

7 Mr. Hedgman. Something like that.

8 Mr. Wides. And did he acknowledge that he had learned
9 of it earlier?

10 Mr. Hedgman. Acknowledge? I think he indicated -- I 11 would have, would have assumed from his conversation that he 12 recalled something about it, yes.

13 Mr. Wides. Did the fact that Dr. Gottlieb had made a
14 trip to the Congo seem to surprise him, or did he acknowledge 15 that he was aware of that as well?

16 Mr. Hedgman. I don't know. I don't know that I said at 17 this time that I referred to [Dr. Gottlieb's] travel to the 18 Congo when I saw him.

19 Mr. Wides. Recently?

20 Mr. Hedgman. Just the other day when I came back I paid
21 a courtesy call on him.

22 Mr. Dawson. This was like this week then?

23 Mr. Hedgman. Yes. It was Monday, I believe.

2 Mr. Wides. Was there anyone there when you spoke to Mr.

4 Mr. Hedgman. For part of it, part of the meeting, and 5 then we were alone for part of the meeting.

6 Mr. Wides. Was there anyone there when you mentioned what 7 you thought he wanted to talk to you about?

8 Mr. Hedgman. No, there was no one else present.

9 Mr. Wides. And have you spoken to anyone else?

10 Mr. Hedgman. I didn't wish to raise this in front of 11 other Agency employees, because it seemed to me that I didn't 12 know who was aware of this. I had no desire to discuss it in 13 front of others.

14 Mr. Wides. Did he indicate anything as to what he thought
15 anyone else had told the Committee or would tell the Committee,
16 including Mr. Bissell, Mr. O'Connell or Mr. Gottlieb, Dr.
17 Gottlieb?

18 Mr. Hedgman. No. He just indicated that it was very 19 difficult -- I am really putting words in his mouth and I
20 shouldn't do this. I had the impression that he regretted this 21 very much, that this had ever happened, and the truth had to 22 come out, and that was the only way for the Agency to ever
23 regain its status and usefulness. But I am putting -- I am 24 elaborating probably. He may not have thought all of those 25 things.

1 Mr. Wides. Have you had any conversations directly or 2 through intermediary communications with either Mr. Bissell or 3 Mr. Tweedy since you returned?

4 Mr. Hedgman. No. I tried to call Mr. Tweedy as an old
5 personal friend on his phone twice and there was no answer. So
6 I assume he is away on vacation or something, either that or 7 maybe he's in town and I just missed him.

8 Mr. Dawson. So to summarize, the only person you really
9 recall having all of the facts of the Presidential authorization,
10 passing of the virus, with whom you really have a firm recollec-
11 tion, I should say, is [Dr. Gottlieb?]

12 Mr. Hedgman. Yes. I would have guessed that.

13 Mr. Wides. Excuse me.

14 You mean he ever discussed it with?

15 Mr. Dawson. The whole picture, or the panorama of things
16 that might have taken place.

17 Mr. Hedgman. I don't think that I -- I mean, he discussed
18 it with me.

19 Mr. Dawson. I agree, sir.

20 Mr. Wides. Let me ask you two more questions if I can,
21 and then I will have to leave.

22 Mr. Baron. Just to follow this up, have you spoken to

4 And his subsequent, Mr. Lumumba's subsequent transportation
5 to Katanga, what discussions did you have with the Congolese
6 officials and what kind of guidance or input did you or anyone
7 from the U.S. Embassy or Station make into those decisions to 8 transport him to Katanga?

9 Mr. Hedgman. To the best of my knowledge, neither the 10 Station or the Embassy had any input in the decision to send 11 him to Katanga.

12 Mr. Wides. What discussions were there with the Congolese
13 officials as to whether he might be executed either by the 14 Central Government while he was under their control or by 15 Mr. Tshombe when he was sent to Katanga?

16 Mr. Hedgman. I don't recall any such conversations. I
17 think there was a general assumption, once we learned he had 18 been sent to Katanga, that his goose was cooked, because Tshombe
19 hated him and looked on him as a danger and a rival.

20 Mr. Wides. But you had no discussions with anyone in the 21 Central Congolese government regarding whether he should or 22 should not be sent there?

23 Mr. Hedgman. I had absolutely none, no sir.

24 Mr. Wides. And once he was there, what information did
25 you have as to whether they were considering his death prior to 26

2 Mr. Hedgman. I had no, no information because it was not
3 the sort of thing I suppose that the Congolese officials really
4 wanted to discuss with a representative of a foreign government.

5 Mr. Wides. Was there any contact between our acting
6 Base Chief in the Katanga Province and the officials in Katanga?
7 Was there any discussion between them or communication that you
8 know of regarding what would be done with Patrice Lumumba?

9 Mr. Hedgman. No. The only thing that I would imagine
10 would have happened is they would have tried to advise both 11 Washington and Leopoldville of any information they had on what 12 happened to him.

13 Mr. Wides. Excuse me. Off the record.

14 (Discussion off the record.)

15 Mr. Baron. I would like to move very quickly through a 16 few loose ends that pop up as we went along relating to your 17 conversation with [Gottlieb] and then O'Donnell and then 18 Schlesinger, and it is really just about one question on every 19 loose end, and I want to then turn to WIROGUE, and I don't 20 think that will take very long, and then the possibility of 21 conversations with the Embassy. And I would like your help
22 on that part since I was not there yesterday. But I will 23 leave that for the last, and you can pick up with any loose
24 ends.

25 Is that all right with you?

1 Mr. Dawson. Fine.

2 Mr. Baron. Mr. Hedgman, I would like to pick up here
3 for a moment with a series of short, loose ends from the 4 examination that we have done so far.

5 Mr. Hedgman. I will try to do my best.

6 Mr. Baron. That is, first of all, when you discussed
7 your conversation with the then-DCI, Schlesinger, you said that 8 you indicated to him verbally that you had been asked to 9 participate in an assassination of Patrice Lumumba. Did he 10 respond when you made that indication to him?

11 Mr. Hedgman. May I go back? I think I made it to him.
12 It is conceivable that I could have made it to Bill Colby as 13 his Executive Director, or that the two could have been present
14 together. It is ridiculous, but I can't pin this one down in 15 detail.

16 Mr. Baron. Did you receive a response from Schlesinger?
17 You mentioned yesterday that he was able to be quite Sphinxlike
18 when he wanted to, and you thought that this might have been 19 one of those situations.

20 Mr. Hedgman. I had the impression he took it all on board 21 and did not necessarily wish to advise me of what action he 22 planned to take.

23 Mr. Baron. Was there any follow-up?

24 Mr. Hedgman. Either he or Colby, whichever it was.

25 Mr. Baron. Was there any follow-up from either Schlesinger

1 or Colby after you had given them this information?

2 Mr. Hedgman. I do not recall.

3 Mr. Baron. Did you ever discuss the assassination mission
4 with anyone in the Inspector General's Office at the CIA?

5 Mr. Hedgman. Not to my recollection. But it is conceiv-
6 able they could have sent -- during that period, there were a
7 number of discussions with Inspector Generals on various aspects
8 of work and so on. Whether there was a discussion of this 9 subject, I don't recall it. So I doubt it, but I don't know.

10 Mr. Baron. On a number of discussions that you had with 11 the Inspector General's Office?

12 Mr. Hedgman. On many other subjects, totally unrelated
13 to this, personnel matters.

14 As you recall, Dr. Schlesinger committed a very sharp
15 reduction in force, which resulted in personnel problems and 16 Inspector Generals' investigations, and so forth.

17 Mr. Baron. Were you interviewed by anyone from the 18 Inspector General's office in the preparation of their Report
19 in 1967 on assassination efforts within the CIA?

20 Mr. Hedgman. 1967?

21 Mr. Baron. Yes.

22 Let me represent to you that at the request of the DCI,
23 the Inspector General's Office prepared a Report in 1967 on 24 any involvement that CIA had or could be conceived to have had

2 Mr. Hedgman. When -- you don't remember the date of the 3 Report?

4 Mr. Baron. I believe the date was in May of 1967, and it
5 was prepared by Scott Breckinridge and Mr. Earman and Mr.
6 Greer.

7 Mr. Hedgman. Yes, I know them all. I don't believe so,
8 but I was abroad at that time.

9 Mr. Dawson. Was the significance of the date in 1967 of 10 any great moment?

11 Mr. Hedgman. I was abroad at the time. I didn't return
12 to the States until July, I believe, of 1967.

13 Mr. Baron. Returning now to your discussions with Dr.
14 [Sidney Gottlieb] when he came to the Congo, to give you lethal
15 biological agents for the assassination of Lumumba, was it
16 clear at that time that the means for administering those 17 biological agents was to inject them into a substance that was 18 to be ingested by Lumumba, whether it be food, or drink, or 19 toothpaste, or any other substance that was to be ingested?

20 Mr. Hedgman. That's my recollection, yes.

21 Mr. Baron. You mentioned that it was your best recollection
22 that Dr. Gottlieb brought the lethal biological agents with him.
23 Is that correct?

24 Mr. Hedgman. Yes.

25 Mr. Baron. And you mentioned yesterday that you believe he

2 Is that right?

3 Mr. Hedgman. I have a recollection that they were in a,
4 what do you call these small carry-on bags like your Pan Am bag
5 or Sabina bag or something like that.

6 Mr. Baron. It would not have been difficult for [Dr.
7 Gottlieb] to have gotten such equipment into the Congo at that 8 time, would it?

9 Mr. Hedgman. No.

10 Mr. Baron. Were there extensive Customs checks in the 11 Congo at that time?

12 Mr. Hedgman. There were not.

13 Mr. Baron. Were there any Customs checks at that point?

14 Mr. Hedgman. I can't recall, but if so, they were very 15 limited.

16 Mr. Baron. When you spoke with [Dr. Gottlieb] did you
17 ask him how long the lethal biological agents would retain their 18 potency?

19 Mr. Hedgman. I believe there was a conversation to that 20 effect.

21 Mr. Baron. Do you recall what he said?

22 Mr. Hedgman. I think it was fairly short, some months.

23 Mr. Baron. They would be lethal only for a fairly short 24 period of time?

25 Mr. Hedgman. Yes.

5 Mr. Bacon. And you said earlier that you took the 6 poisons into a safe at the Station. When did you take the 7 poisons out of the safe?

8 Mr. Hedgman. I cannot really recall that.

9 Mr. Bacon. Did you take them out on more than one 10 occasion?

11 Mr. Hedgman. No.

12 Mr. Bacon. And that occasion was --

13 Mr. Hedgman. No. I say no. Not to the best of my 14 recollection. I want to stress that because it is so long ago
15 that I am almost certain I did not.

16 Mr. Bacon. And the occasion when you did take the 17 poisons out of the safe was when you disposed of them?

18 Mr. Hedgman. Yes.

19 Mr. Bacon. And can you describe the circumstances?

20 Mr. Hedgman. I think that I took them out probably in 21 a briefcase or an air bag of some sort, and I believe that 22 the things like the rubber gloves and the mask were thrown away
23 in a bushy area or something where, you know, if they were 24 found it didn't matter that much. I believe I buried the

4 of thing -- I didn't know enough about it, and I will be damned
5 if I wanted to leave them lying around.

6 Mr. Baron. Was this out by the Congo River that you
7 buried these things?

8 Mr. Hedgman. Yes, yes, I think. You know, it is my
9 recollection.

10 Mr. Baron. Was this after the arrest of Lumumba, after 11 Lumumba had already been placed in protective custody so to 12 speak?

13 Mr. Hedgman. By the Congolese, you mean?

14 Mr. Baron. Yes.

15 Mr. Hedgman. Yes, I would think so.

16 Mr. Baron. And was it possible that you waited until 17 after Lumumba's death to dispose of those poisons?

18 Mr. Hedgman. That's possible. I don't remember.

19 Mr. Baron. But you --

20 Mr. Hedgman. They were long overdue, whatever it was,
21 I think, because I believe --

22 Mr. Baron. Yesterday you stated that it was your recol-
23 lection that you had not disposed of the poisons until Lumumba
24 was successfully neutralized, either by arrest or by death,
25 and you could call which. Is that your recollection?

6 Mr. Baron. He was your Branch Chief at that point?

7 Mr. Hedgman. He was.

8 Mr. Baron. Did you discuss it with Glenn Fields?

9 Mr. Hedgman. I don't recall. He was Acting Chief and 10 Deputy Chief.

11 Mr. Baron. Do you recall discussing the assassination
12 mission with anyone else at the Station or in the Congo other
13 than the one asset?

14 Mr. Hedgman. No. I remember hearing Mr. O'Donnell
15 commenting on this to --

16 Mr. Baron. <sup>03</sup> ~~Mr. Driscoll~~

17 Mr. Hedgman. I believe it was <sup>03</sup> ~~Mr. Driscoll~~, and I was 18 shocked and surprised, because I thought this was not the 19 sort of thing that he should discuss with officers who were not 20 involved in this.

21 Mr. Baron. What was <sup>03</sup> ~~Mr. Driscoll~~'s job at that time?

22 Mr. Hedgman. He was under non-official cover and an 24 developing contacts.

5 sure whether it was assassination or neutralization, but whatever
6 it was, it seemed to me he had gone too far.

7 Mr. Baron. And had gone too far because it conveyed the 9 Mr. Hedgman. Probably, but I cannot be sure.

10 Mr. Baron. You indicated earlier that in mid-September 11 there was a coup which effectively limited Lumumba's powers in 12 the Congo?

13 Mr. Hedgman. That is correct.

14 Mr. Baron. And this would have been very shortly after 15 Dr. Gottlieb visited you in the Congo and gave you the instruc-

17 Mr. Hedgman. I can't be sure whether it was before or 18 after. That was the 14th of September, that coup took place;
19 but as you will recall, I cannot be absolutely certain of when 20 I saw Dr. Gottlieb. I think it was before that, but I cannot

14 Mr. Hedgman. Well, it is standard procedure to keep your

16 copies of those are retained, of all messages are normally 17 retained in Washington. You try and keep as small a number as
