a. AMLASH

The IGR states the 550 uns possibly suggests that AMILASH assigned a provocation mission which would then justify relatiation, or, in the attendire, that Amens 4) was a security risk through which delaits of the plotting may have surfaced to Castro thus providing the impetite for provocation. Collection the IGR with the SSC as holding that in ever AMLASH should have been reported to the Warren Commission. The IGR mether theory is correct (88) de l'est plating that the relationship between the CIA and AMLASA refore the death of President Kinnedy was so "insibetantial and inconclusive that it provided no basis in for AMLASH/, to feel that he had any tangible CIA support for plotting against

Caetro! (89.)

In support the IGR proceeds to navate the agency's understanding of the operation. On August 17, 1962, the case officer for AMLHSH reported bat he [has] no intention [of giving AMLASH/, ] physical elimination mission as requirement but recognize this see [as] something he could on might try to carry out as his own initiative. " (90) Healquarter replied the next day, " Strongly Concer that no physical elimination musicos be given AMLASH/1. "@) On September 7, 1963 the CIA received the following cable:

From august 29, 1962 with

AMLASH stell feels there only two ways accomplish change either inside pob or invasion he realistic enough to realize latter out of question. According latter out of AMWHIP, AMLASH still awaiting for US reveal plan of action. 93

The IGR notes that the SSC interpreted "inside job" as referring to an operation against Castro; the CIA, however, says et refers to a general commitment concerning how to effect change. The IGR also plates that at their point Book I em say characteryalion of this phase of the AMIASH operation is deputed. " The CIA contends that any dispute only exists in the eyes of the SSC. 96

The IGR next comments

on an interview of Castro ky AP reporter Daniel Harker in which Castro said wal anti-Eastro terrousto had the support of U.S. leaders. The IGR states that the SS BOOK I implies that AMLASHI, may have reported to Castro what the SSC Characterized as assarsination plots (98) The CIA response is that "Casho's remarks at that time could not have stemmed from anything said to AMLASH/, by CIA officers as they proposed nothing and undertook nothing. "(99)

On October 11, 1963 the Case officer called headquarters and Saed that AMLASH/, claimed to have the necessary people and equipment to overlknow Castro inchaect the U.S. assistance. On October 29, 1963 Desmond Fitzguald met AMLASH/, in PARIS. at this meeting the CIA naintains sup that Litzgerald rejected AMLISH's request for an assars and weapon, specifically, a high powered wifle with a telescopic lens. The CIA contends that at this point it was clear that AMLASH was informed Voit there nould be no M.S. assistance until after the fact which is contrary to the SSC statement in BOOK I to the effect that it was uncertain how AMLASH interpreted the put-off by Fitzguald. (3) approved informing AMIASHI, that he would be given a Cache inside Cuta and that a high-powered refle enth a scope usuld be included upon request. (04) ON November 20 Add ASH the case officei informed AMLASH that he would be receiving the meeting he requested.

On Normber 19, 1963, Litzguald

Jack Anderson and Les Whitten Behind John F. Kennedy's Murder

Mafia mobster John Roselli may have taken the secret of the John F. Kennedy assassmation with him to his death. He was brutally murdered a few weeks aco, his hacked-up body stuffed into an oil drum and dumped with Month Parkers 200. into Miami's Biscayne Bay

Before he died. Roselli hinted to associates that he knew who had arranged President Kennedy's murder. It was the same conspirators, he suggested, whom he had recruited earlier to kill Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

By Roselli's cryptic account, Castro learned the identity of the underworld.

learned the identity of the underworld contacts in Havana who had been trying to knock him off. He believed, not altogether without basis, that President Kennedy was behind the plot. The Cuban leader, as the supreme irony, decided to turn the tables and use the same crowd to arrange Kennedy's assassination, according to Roselli's scenario. To save their skins, the plotters fined up Lee Harvey Oswald to pull the trigger.

Roselli could never be pinned down on names or details. It was also difficult to assess whether he knew what he was talking about or whether he merely described what he thought might have happened. Certainly there were under the loose control Florida's Mafia chieftan. Santos Trafficante. His gambling enterprises in Havana had been closed down by Castro after the 1959 revolution. In fact. Trafficante had been lodged for a period in a Cuban jail, an indignity period in a Cuban jail, an ind that didn't endear Castro to him.

After Trafficante made it back to his Florida haunts, he left part of his organization behind in Havana. Some of ganization behind in Havana. Some of his henchmen even managed to develop contacts in Castro's inner circle. These were the people Roselli wanted to use to knock off Castro.

But Roselli didn't have the stature inside the Mafia to make the necessary arrangements with Trafficante. So Roselli called in his patrom, the Chicago godfather Sam (Momo) Giancana, to deal with Trafficante.

As Roselli's associates tell it, he per-

As Roselli's associates tell it, he persuaded Giancana that it would be to their advantage to win the good will of the CIA. Convinced, Giancana flew down to Florida to make the preliminary arrangements.

Once Giancana and Trafficante set it up, Roselli used the Havana underworld to plot Castro's demise. At first, they tried to plant poison pills, supplied by the CIA, in Castro's food. The

In an impromptu, three-hour interview with Associated Press reporter Daniel Harker, Castro indicated that he knew about the attempts on his life and warned that U.S. leaders also leaders also might not be safe. That was Sept. 7,

According to Roselli, Castro enlisted the same underworld elements whom he had caught plotting against him. They supposedly were Cubans from the old Trafficante organization. Working with Cuban intelligence, they allegedly lined up an ex-Marine sharp-shooter, Lee Harvey Oswald, who had been active in the pro-Castro movement.

According to Roselli's version, Oswald may have shot Kennedy or may have acted as a decoy while others ambushed him from closer range. When Oswald was picked up. Roselli suggested, the underworld conspirators feared he would crack and disclose information that might lead to them. This almost certainly would have brought a massive U.S. crackdown on the Mafia.

So Jack Ruby was ordered to climinate Oswald making it appear as an act of reprisal against the President's Significant difference are apparent be une Phase One and Phase Two which reflect as the organized crime's motivation and seriousness in fulfilling its part of the bargain originally indialed in 1960.

Sint, in Phase One, Roselli and his calleagues demonstrated that ability to execute the contract on Castro by naming their source who was, indeed, in a position close to Castro. #### Link-Two-

In mid-March, 1965, Rafael Garcia Bongo, a noted Cuban lawyer whose brother occupied the prestigious position of Minister of Sports in Cuba, contacted CIA station personnel in Madrid to inform the agency that "he was in contact with a group of military officers who were planning to kill Castro" (1967 I.G. Report, p. ). It quickly became clear to CIA employees that Bongo's reference was to Cubila and the group of military men who were allied with him in attempting to depose Castro. Although the 1967 and 1977 1.G. Reports are silent as to their attitude toward Bongo's information, it must be assumed that they did not respond affirmatively since the AMLASH operation was in progress at the time and Artime was in the process of delivering arms caches to Cubela's people within Cuba.

Interestingly, Bongo identified himself to Agency personnel as a lawyer for the Capri Hotel and Casino in Havana who had been jailed in July 1975 for a period of 75 days, allegedly as a reprisal for representing Santo Trafficante. 级Bongo's utilization of the short prison term to establish his "bona fides" is questionable as Trafficante was in jail during August 1959. For the Cuban government to wait for 3 years to exact retribution for that representation makes no sense. Possibly, Bongo was involved in approaching the Castro government in 1962 on Trafficante's behalf for permission to reopen the Capri casino.

Bongo's trip to Madrid apparently involved more than a contact with the CIA for he was arrested for counterfeiting and held until his old client, Santo Trafficanto, arrived with a suitcase full of cash to obtain his release the interview of FBI SA Wendall Sall Secalso deposition of Victor Espinosa Hernandez:) Presumably, Bongo was paroled back to Cuba, at an unspecified later date, where he died.

One aspect of the Bongo-Trafficante relationship in Madrid deserves fuller treatment although it is doubtful that anything more than supposition can result from further exploration. Alt has been reported by Jack Anderson that his private and secret source until his death, John Roselli, had reason to speculate that Cubans originally recruited by Santo Trafficante to kill Castro were "turned around" and sent back to the United States where they were directly involved in the assassination of President Kennedy. See Anderson column dated 9-7-76; interview by Fenton and story a step further by suggesting that Trafficante became a witting participant in the Cuban Prime Minister's plan of retaliation ( ) If this line of hypothecation is adapted then the trip to Madrid by Bongo could assume some sinister implications such as the possibility that Bongo's real purpose in contacting the Madrid Station was to act as a double agent for Castro in ascertaining the nature and scope of the AMLASH operation. Castro certainly became aware of the Artime meetings with Cubela in the fall of 1964 since the list of charges upon which Cubela went to trial in 1966 began with these Madrid meetings. had begun his suspicions of Cubela's role with the CIA during late 1964 or early 1965, it is likely that he would have begun counter-intelligence measures to confirm his fears which could have led to Castro sending Bongo to Spain to contact the Agency. Given Trafficante's close ties to Bongo (see also Aleman footnote in AMLASH section), it can be postulated that Trafficante was aware of Bongo's true mission prior to his departure or became knowledgeable when he bailed him out of jail in Madrid. (Unfortunately, we have no way of knowing whether Bongo stopped in Miami to see Trafficante prior to going to Spain unless we could obtain the case file from Secret Service of the Italian killed in Miami who was supposed to be Bongo's partner according to S/A Wendall Sall.)

Trafficante could have received news of Cubela's ties with the Agency through his close associate Jorge Nobregas who was described by Gorge Carlo in his Washington Post article (circa 8/17/76) as "having worked with the CIA, was in Cubela's student revolutionary group in Cuba, and always close to Trafficante."

Actually, given the extent of Trafficante's high-level contacts within the exile community and the low-level security in the CIA exile operations, it is extremely logical that Trafficante and other members of the underworld knew, in some fashion, part or all of the AMLASH plot. The question becomes: So what? Short of being able to blackmail the government about the modus operendi of the 1960-62 events, the significance of mob knowledge of AMLASH is not readily apparent. However, if Trafficante was in fact a double agent, a whole other scenario emerges. Now?

One further reference to Bongo surfaced during an interview by Committee Staff with Jose Aleman on March 14, 1977 when Aleman related that Jorge Nobregas introduced Aleman to Trafficante. Santo Trafficante offered to assist Aleman in obtaining a Teamster loan ostensibly out of gratitude for Aleman's relative (Bongo) representing Trafficante in Cuba. Trafficante fully admits the Teamster loan proposal which was to be arranged by Frank Ragano, Trafficante'e personal lawyer, who also represented Jimmy Hoffa and Frank Chanez in criminal cases.

Of course, the most relevant aspect of the Trafficante-Aleman meetings in September 1962 to this Committee is the statement attributed to Trafficante by Aleman that ". . .you don't understand me. Kennedy's not going to make it to the election. He is going to get hit." Aleman reported that the inflamatory prediction occurred during a lengthy diatribe against the Kennedy administration's campaign against Jimmy

INTRODUCTION

In its concluding section of the Final Report,

Developments After the Warren Commission, the Select Senate

Committee to Study Governmental Operation (SSC) speculated that organized crime may have had a continuing knowledge of all CIA opertions against Castro during the 1960's.

"The 1967 I.G. Report noted that information given by "A" suggested a link between the AMLASH operation and the 1960-1962 CIA plots to assassinate Castro using underworld contacts. In other words, the information "A" provided raised the possibility that underworld figures who were aware of the assassination plots in which William Harvey participated, may have also been aware of the AMLASH operation."

Short

the Senate's conjecture in that there is no available evidence cited in the Report to suggest that "A" (Victor Spinosa Hernandez) had knowledge of, or involvement with, any of the syndicate or Cuban exiles who participated in Phase I or II of the CIA-Mafia assassination plots during 1960-62. What Book did was to seize upon the 1967's tentative identification of three name links" between the 1960-62 gangster e perature and AMLASH intrique, and expand the amorphus nature of those "name links," which included "A," into a theory that "A" was the conduit through which the Syndicate became knowledgeable of both the AMLASH operation and the initial CIA efforts to eliminate Castro.

The only solid factual basis for Book M's tie-in between AMLASH and the 1960-62 CIA syndicate plots is upon Victor Espenosa's exile activities in June-July 1963, which Book Destroy by

More, CIA files contained at least some FBI reports on "A," the Cuban exile who was involved in transporting explosives to New Orleans in 1963. These reports detail his involvement with anti-Castro exiles and underworld figures who were operating the guerilla training camp in New Orleans in July 1963.

The "underworld figures" reference relates to Melie and William McLaney who have been considered organized crime affiliates by some law enforcement and media personnel. (See profile.) Again, however, no evidence from any source places McLaney into the early CIA plots to kill Castro or into the AMLASH operation. A review of the June-July 1963 activities of McLaney and Victor Espinosa leads only to the inference that their operation was a private limited venture with no agency or syndicate support and very little chance of success. (See Review of Lake Ponchatrain in McLaney Profile. Footnote re Victor Espinosa.)

Moreover, the link between McLaney, Espinosa and the organized crime principals connected to the initial CIA Castro plots must be dissected in order to make a judgement as to the likelihood of Book W's speculation that the syndicate held "inside" information on Agency operations in 1960-65.

Since the Senate did not attempt to interview either of the McLaney brothers or Victor Espinosa in 1975 nor impossive principals of the 1960-62 plots into the quire of the witnesses to the 1960-62 plots into their knowledge or relationship to McLaney or Espinosa, the Senate's hypothetical question of underworld knowledge of the full range of CIA Castro plots is based upon a minimum of hard data and a maximum of free-wheeling conjecture.

The evidence linking Espinosa to any known organized crime figures consists of his admission to being friends with "Cappy" Rothman, Norman Rothman's son, and a casual knowledge of American gamblers gleaned from his student days of visiting the Havana casinos.

Mike McLaney issea figure whose ties to organized crime have been second questioned within federal law enforcement agencies since the 1950's but no solid evidence has linked him to Trafficante, Rosseli or Giancana. Since McLaney has been most frequently mentioned as a "Lansky To place a witting McLancy into the 1960-62 plots, it requires a series of major speculative hurdles which include. (a) Myer Lansky was a plotter with Trafficante; (b) McLaney was Lansky's "action" man; (c) the various underworld figures acted in concert in promoting anti-Castro opera-The Earn Hee tions.
