The Committee investigated the allegation of former CIA employee, James Wilcott, who testified in executive session that ^{designated as "S"} shortly after the assassination of President Kennedy he was advised by fellow employees at the CIA's Tokyo Station that Lee Harvey Oswald was a CIA agent who had received financial disbursements under an assigned cryptonym. Wilcott explained that he had been employed by the CIA as a finance officer from 1957 until his resignation from ~~the Agency~~ in 1966. In this capacity, he served as a ^{a post abroad} fiscal account assistant on the support staff at the Tokyo

Station from June of 1960 to June 1964. ^{told the Committee} Wilcott advised that in addition to his regular responsibilities, he had ^{performed} served security duty on his off-hours in order to supplement his income. This additional ~~job~~ put him in contact with specific case officers who had initially informed him of Oswald's Agency relationship, he named several employees of the Tokyo Station with whom he believed he had subsequently of the alleged Oswald connection to the CIA, he ^{had} never rechecked the Tokyo Station disbursement records for evidence of the Oswald project. He explained that this was because at that time he viewed the information as mere shop the allegations to any formal investigative bodies, ~~following~~

In an attempt to investigate Wilcott's allegations,

Committee interviewed several present and former CIA had held ~~with the CIA~~ during the years 1954-1964. Among those persons interviewed were individuals whose responsibilities covered a broad spectrum of areas within the Tokyo Station,

U.S. military personnel in Tokyo during the period ~~that~~ Oswald was stationed there. An intelligence analyst whom Wilcott had specifically named as having been involved ~~of~~

The chief of the Tokyo Station from 1961-1965 stated that, had Oswald been used by the Agency within ^{his Tokyo Station} ~~their~~

Similarly, almost all those persons interviewed who worked in the Soviet Russia branch of that station indicated ~~that~~ they would have known if Lee-Harvey Oswald had, in fact,

The Committee ~~does~~ not regard this explanation as satisfactory, especially since Snyder's 201 file indicates that for approximately one year during 1956-1957 he was used by an Agency case officer as a spotter at Harvard University, because of his access to other students who might be going to the Soviet Union. j nor was the Agency actually able to explain specifically why someone considered it necessary to red flag the Snyder file.

The remainder of the Snyder file, however, is entirely consistent with his testimony before the Committee concerning the absence of Agency contacts. In addition, the CIA personnel officer who handled Snyder's case in 1950 confirmed that Snyder had, in fact, terminated his employment with the
