SECRET

In 1964 Ms. Goodpasture was a Counter-Intelligence Officer, (Special Clearance and/or Billet Approval 10/16/64)

~~She was so~~
Anne Goodpasture retired in May 1972. (Cover Control of Retirement Processing 12 April 1972) Her last working day was 14 June 1972 (Request for Personnel Action 6/7/72)

CAREER
INTELLIGENCE

Ms. Goodpasture was recommended for a ~~Honor~~ ~~or Merit Award~~ by David Phillips on 6/21/73. The "Narrative Description" portion of the recommendation form terms Ms. Goodpasture: "a 'trouble shooting' case officer for the incomparable Winfield Scott". The narrative goes on to say: "She was the case officer who was responsible for the identification of Lee Harvey Oswald in his dealings with the Cuban Embassy in Mexico." (Recommendation for Honor or Merit Award 6/21/73)

Ms. Goodpasture was given a Career Intelligence Award. The Award cited her "significant contribution over a twelve year period to the success of some of the most sensitive and successful operations of the Mexico City Station".

The Inspector General requested permission from the DDCT to hire Ms. Goodpasture on a contract basis on 28 Dec. 1976. The reasons given were:

- 1.) her reputation as Scott's right-hand;
- 2.) familiarity @ the ~~anchor~~ operations and the "extant files" which would lead to her playing a vital role in the IG's review of files and in answering Richard C. Sprague's questions.

She was specifically to review MCS files on the Kennedy assassination (Memo To DDCT from IG, 12/28/76.) This memo implies that Ms. Goodpasture was Scott's secretary as well as an operations officer.

A routing slip is attached to this memo.
It says:

Actually Ann Goodpasture
was a professional case officer (GS-13) and evidently a kind of special assistant to COS, Mexico City from [1957] to 1968 (somewhat more than a secretary).
I would suggest
(and Office of Personnel agrees) a 90-day "bee"
type contract with an estimated cost of about $5,000, plus travel and per diem. Total cost would be somewhere
around $10,000 over a 90-day period. Recommend approval for a period not to exceed 90 days.

(Official Routing Slip,
to ODCI from Paul H.
Hildebrand AO/DCI, 12/8/76.)
Ms Goodpasture was granted a <sup>SECURITY</sup> clearance good for 90 days on 1/19/77. The clearance <sup>SECURITY</sup> contingent on a polygraph examination (Memo to DCI Security Officer from Chief, Staff and Operations Branch

1/19/77.)

Ms. Goodpasture's contract was terminated on 5/20/77. (Memo to Office of Security, Clearance
Division from OPI Contract
Personal Division, 7/7/77)

There are no documents in the file from 1959 to 1964.
