On 5/19/66, MURRAY KANE, Theatrical Agent for the McGuire Sisters, 157 West 57th Street, advised SA ANTHONY R. VILLANO that NAOMI FLANNERY was formerly the secretary for the McGuire Sisters. He pointed out she was not PHYLLIS MC GUIRE's personal secretary, but was shared between the three sisters, himself and a bookkeeper. He said at the present time, ANNA DONALD has this position. He advised that PHYLLIS MC GUIRE is presently on a vacation and is expected to return in about one week to NYC, at which time the sisters will rehearse for a few weeks. U

On 5/19/66, FRANK FLANNERY, 171 West 12th St. New York NY Columbia Broadcasting System, was telephonically contacted by SA DONNELLY and advised that his wife is NAOMI FLANNERY, who used to work for PHYLLIS MC GUIRE. He was advised the agents wished to interview her and desired his home address. He refused to furnish his home address and stated he will contact his wife and at his convenience will telephonically recontact the agent and advise if he will make his wife available for interview. U

Shortly thereafter, PCI RANDY BURKE telephonically contacted SA DURKIN and advised the FLANNERYs are presently residing at 171 West 12th Street, NYC. U

She telephonically contacted NAOMI FLANNERY and advised the agents that NAOMI told her she was going to make an appointment with the agents. U

Later on 5/19/66, FRANK FLANNERY telephonically contacted SA DONNELLY and advised that he had been in touch with an attorney and he would make his wife, NAOMI, available for interview if the agent could assure him that this one interview would be the end of this "annoyance". He was advised the agent could give no such assurance and he then stated, "You'll have to go through the courts". U
