in instances, been covered by the Internal Revenue Service in their saturation investigation in the Miami, Fla., area. Accordingly, to avoid duplication, the Miami Division should not conduct any inquiry at any banks in the Miami, Fla., area in connection with the ANGELO BRUNO investigation, noting that this investigation has been covered by the Internal Revenue Service. In this regard, leads #1, #2 and #5 in Philadelphia report dated 8/23/61, need not be covered. Miami, as a result of

JFK Law 11(a)

For your additional information, Internal Revenue Service has been requested to cooperate more closely with the Miami Division when their Agents from Philadelphia are conducting inquiry in the Miami area to avoid any needless duplication of effort. Internal Revenue Service does not report their investigative effort as promptly as the FBI; however, the Miami Division will be kept fully informed of their inquiry in the Miami area as it is received by the Philadelphia Division.

BERNARD ALLEN, residing Americus Hotel, Allentown, Pa., was in daily contact with PH 608-C* covering period 9/13 through 19/61. This informant could furnish no information in regard to ANGELO BRUNO, and the results of information furnished by the informant, consequently, are not being included in the body of this report.

On 9/12/61, a 1961 Cadillac, South Carolina registration G568, known to be the personally owned vehicle of BERNARD ALLEN, was located in the Motor Ramp Garage, Allentown, Pa. This auto was examined by SA GEORGE E. LEE, and nothing of value was learned. For possible future reference, it was noted that instant vehicle has a General Motors "Briggs and Stratton Key #8678," which does not unlock the trunk of instant vehicle.

Records, Central Bank and Trust Company, Miami, Fla., were made available by AARON ORKIN, Auditing Department.
