interested offices. This is particularly true of information furnished by NO 1225-C, Gulfport, Mississippi, an extremely valuable information who is closely associated with the criminal element in the Mississippi Gulf Coast area. Where information attributed to NO 1225-C under T symbol in the details is set out, careful consideration has been given to paraphrasing this information to insure that the informant's identity will not be compromised.

Lieutenant JAMES ADCOCK, Harrison County Sheriff's Office, Gulfport, Mississippi, advised confidentially on 10/14/63 that he had received specific instructions from Harrison County, Mississippi Sheriff CURTIS O. DEDEAUX that the October 12, 1963 shooting of D. J. VENUS, III by RICHARD HEAD, at the Sa-When Lounge, west of Biloxi, Mississippi, was to be "hushed up" and that there was to be no prosecution. ADCOCK advised he received these instructions in a telephone call from Sheriff DEDEAUX on the night of 10/13/63 at which time DEDEAUX was obviously intoxicated. DEDEAUX told ADCOCK that "they" had told him ADCOCK was "working for the FBI". ADCOCK advised he told DEDEAUX this was a lie and DEDEAUX told him to keep his mouth shut and not to tell any one what happened in regard to the shooting. ADCOCK advised DEDEAUX obviously did not want any "heat" to be put on RICHARD HEAD or VENUS for fear it might become known that HEAD is DEDEAUX's "front man" with lounge operators, all of whom must go through HEAD to open a joint on the Coast involving the sale of whiskey, gambling or hustling women.

Lieutenant ADCOCK advised on 10/18/63 that as a result of the shooting he had recovered from HEAD a .380 automatic pistol which was believed to be the weapon used by HEAD in shooting VENUS. ADCOCK advised Sheriff DEDEAUX had specifically refused to allow him, ADCOCK, to send this weapon to the FBI Laboratory for ballistics tests and comparison with spent bullets recovered from the shooting scene.

commented there would be no other gambling at any of the other places along the Mississippi Gulf Coast. MC DONNELL takes office, according to BENNETT, on January 6, 1964 and on the 7th of January, he is going to raid all of the joints of the Mississippi Gulf Coast and clean them out, close them all and run off the girls.

BENNETT remarked that gambling would not reopen on the Mississippi Gulf Coast until after Governor PAUL B. JOHNSON, JR., takes office on January 20, 1964.

BENNETT remarked that the payoff to Sheriff MC DONNELL would be $1,000.00 per month for the gambling casino that BENNETT would operate in Beat One and $500.00 each for the gambling casinos in Beat Two and Beat Three. BENNETT is to have supervision over the operation of the other two gambling casinos.

With regard to the handling of the local traffic of liquor on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, BENNETT remarked to KATZ that D. J. VENUS is apparently giving MC DONNELL trouble and that EDWARD MC DONNELL is not quite strong enough to close up D. J. VENUS' liquor operation on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

It is to be noted that whisky is sold openly on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, although legally, the State of Mississippi is dry.

NO 1225-C, Gulfport, Mississippi, advised on 1/15/64 that she has been in frequent contact recently with OLIUS MC CRORY, JR., aka "Fats" McCrory, (FBI Number 494 510 C). Informant advised MC CRORY is living with his girl friend TERRY FRANCES GILLAIN at Gulfport, Mississippi. Informant advised that both MC CRORY and GILLAIN are believed to be on narcotics and are pulling burglaries to supplement their narcotics needs. Informant advised MC CRORY has a contact with Harrison County Sheriff, EDWARD MC DONNELL (McDONNELL took office 1/6/64), adding that MC CRORY has also been very friendly with HENRY COOK SALISBURY, a gambler and " hoodlum from the Atlanta, Georgia area. Informant advised SALISBURY was attempting to make arrangements through MC DONNELL for a contact in either Hancock or Pearl River Counties in Mississippi to open a gambling joint and house of prostitution, in order to take advantage of nearby construction and activities at the Mississippi Test Facility (NASA) in Hancock County.

Informant advised that ~~RAYMOND SMITH~~, a gambler and "razzle dazzle" operator from near Meridian, Mississippi, is also making efforts to obtain a "fix" with Sheriff MC DONNELL to operate a "razzle dazzle" on the Coast.

NO 1225-C advised on 1/17/64 that ~~JIM BLACKWELL~~, a burglar and strong-arm man from Laurel, Mississippi, is presently living in a trailer park located at the rear of the Bamboo Lounge on West Beach, Biloxi, Mississippi. BLACKWELL lives in the second house trailer to the right on entering the park and according to informant, is employed at the present time as a body guard for D. J. VENUS, III, a wholesale liquor dealer at Gulfport, Mississippi.

NO 1225-C advised on 1/17/64 that ~~DONALD LESTER JAMES~~, aka "~~Jimmy~~ James, a known confidence man, gambler and strong-arm man, is presently in either Atlanta, Georgia or Miami, Florida. She advised JAMES was recently in the Gulfport area at which time informant obtained access to JAMES' address book and noted therefrom the following names and telephone numbers of possible value:

NO 92-346/dmk

NO-1225-C advised on 1/20/64 that OLIUS MC CRORY, JR., told her on the night of 1/17/64 that he had just returned from a "score" and that on his way back into Gulfport he had passed State Investigator CROCKETT but had eluded CROCKETT without CROCKETT having seeing him. (CROCKETT possibly identical with Investigator D. B. CROCKETT, Identification Bureau, MHSP, who works the north Mississippi area). MC CRORY told informant he had a diamond ring of three or three and one-half carats which he had taken in a "score" on the night of 1/16/64 in the course of which he had stolen from the same locale a large number of phonograph records. Informant advised MC CRORY was "hopped up" on pills at the time but she observed that he had considerable currency in his pocket, and she saw several bills in what she believed was $50.00 and $100.00 denominations.

MISS NO 1225-C advised on 1/20/64 that for the past two or three years DENNIS BROADUS, a member of the Harrison County Board of Supervisors, has had a "deal" with IVAN ORRELS, aka "Lanky", the latter a moonshine whisky operator, whereby BROADUS carried ORRELS on the Harrison County payroll as an employee, although ORRELS was not so employed, and BROADUS and ORRELS split the salary.

The above information with informant's identity concealed, was furnished on 1/20/64 to Mr. JOHN MONTGOMERY, Special Agent, Intelligence Unit, Internal Revenue Service, Gulfport, Mississippi. Mr. MONTGOMERY advised this information would be of considerable assistance inasmuch as his department was conducting an investigation of DENNIS BROADUS for tax fraud.

NO 1225-C advised on 2/12/64 that AL C. ROBERTSON, narcotics addict and former "king pin" moonshine bootlegger in south Mississippi, was recently home on leave from the Mississippi State Penitentiary where he is serving a sentence for possession of narcotics. Informant advised that on the night of 2/8/64

Supervisor DENNIS BROADUS and IVAN ORRELS telephone the following individuals in an effort to obtain an indefinite extension for ROBERTSON:

BIDWELL ADAM, State Chairman of the Mississippi Democratic Committee;
LAWRENCE ARRINGTON, Attorney at Hattiesburg, Mississippi;
FRANK BARBER, Mississippi State Senator from Hattiesburg, Mississippi and close confidant of Governor PAUL B. JOHNSON

Informant advised BARBER agreed to make the necessary arrangements, but apparently wanted such a high price that BROADUS got angry, and called Governor JOHNSON direct. Informant was not present at the time of the JOHNSON call, but ORRELS and BROADUS told her later that JOHNSON declined to let ROBERTSON stay out at this time, explaining that there was "too much heat" on the penitentiary at the present time, due to the fact that former Governor ROSS R. BARNETT had made an excessive number of pardons and releases. They said JOHNSON told them to contact him in about ninety days, at which time he would make the arrangements for ROBERTSON's release. Accordingly informant advised she and ORRELS drove ROBERTSON back to the penitentiary at Parchman on the afternoon of 2/9/64.

NO 1225-C, Gulfport, Mississippi, advised on 11/11/63 that HENRY COOK SALISBURY, aka "Little Henry", known gambler and strong arm man, has been living recently in Atlanta, Georgia, address unknown, telephone number 874-7088. SALISBURY has been living with LOU ROBINSON, or ROBERTSON, a white female, 30-35, red hair, very attractive, the former girl friend of DONALD LESTER JAMES.

NO 92-346/dmk

NO 1225-C advised on 11/14/63 that SALISBURY and LOU were living temporarily at the Monte Carlo Motel, adjacent to the Tropical Tourist Court in New Orleans.

NO 1225-C advised on 12/30/63 that SALISBURY and LOU had returned to Atlanta, Georgia where they were residing in Apartment #12, 76-12th Street, Northeast Atlanta. Informant advised DONALD LESTER JAMES, aka "Jimmy" James, was living at the Atlanta Towers Apartments, Atlanta, Georgia, telephone 872-7862.

The foregoing information was furnished the Atlanta Division and Atlanta advised that Sergeant J. C. MC ENTIRE, Atlanta PD, had verified the address of SALISBURY. Atlanta advised that telephone number 872-7862 in Atlanta is listed to LARRY JOHNSON, Howell House Apartments, 710 Peachtree Street, N.E. Atlanta, Apartment 1407. Atlanta advised this telephone was connected 12/19/63.

NO 1225-C advised on 2/5/64 that OLIUS MC CRORY, JR., and TERRY GALLAIN had moved to a residence located at 604 Hardy Avenue, Gulfport, Mississippi. Informant advised she was at this residence on the night of 2/4/64 at which time MC CRORY advised he had just returned from another "score" in Florida. MC CRORY had an unknown quantity of silver coins and informant personally observed $500.00 in quarters, nickels and pennies. She also observed what appeared to be an RCA Victor tape recorder and several cartons of assorted cigarettes, one pack of which bore Florida tax stamp 20-24420-20. MC CRORY also had several large brown bottles of pills of various sizes and colors, some of which was phenobarbital.

NO 1225-C advised on 2/11/64 that OLIUS MC CRORY Jr., had given her the following described currency to hide for him in view of the "head" on him from the postal inspectors, all of which currency she stated was burned slightly as if taken from a safe in a burn job:

NO 1225-C advised she was in MC CRORY's house on the night of 2/10/64 when he gave her this currency. She advised both MC CRORY and TERRY FRANCES GILLAIN were taking some kind of injections with a needle. Shortly afterwards, GILLAIN passed out and MC CRORY became very nervous and agitated, grabbed up a .38 revolver and rushed out of the house claiming he heard someone outside. MC CRORY returned shortly and passed out cold on the floor. NO 1225-C advised SHIRLEY CATTS, wife of DOUGLAS CATTS, was present at the time and was taking some kind of pills.

It is noted that NO 1225-C, beginning 2/10/64, furnished information concerning associates of OLIUS MC CRORY, JR., at Gulfport, Mississippi, who have subsequently been identified as THOMAS FRED BANGHART, FBI #902 629 A and HERSCHELL RAY ADDINGTON, both of whom were wanted at the time by postal inspectors for a post office burglary 1/16/64 at Shreveport, La. Information furnished by information concerning these individuals, with her identity concealed, has been furnished to postal inspector WILLIAM F. WALSH, JR., at Gulfport, Miss.

NO 1225-C advised on 3/5/64 that HENRY COOK SALISBURY and his girl friend LOU ROBINSON, had recently returned to the Mississippi Gulf Coast from Atlanta and were residing at Apartment 15, Dumas Apartments at Long Beach, Mississippi.

NO 92-346/dmk

Informant advised that she went with IVAN "LANKY" ORRELS to Laurel, Miss., on 3/2/64 to make a payoff as a result of a "fix" in Jones County, Miss., whereby the grand jury in Jones County no billed the liquor violation involving ORRELS, RICHARD WEBB and others. She advised the total of this payoff was $9,800.00, $4,000.00 of which was split evenly between Laurel Attorney GEORGE MAXIE and Meridian, Miss., Attorney LESTER WILLIAMSON. Informant advised that she personally observed Attorney MAXIE pay Jones County Sheriff $1,000.00 cash for his part in this payoff. Informant advised that she was not aware of the person or persons who received the balance of this payoff, but was under the impression that it went either to a judge or to a member or members of the grand jury.

Informant advised that although considerable amount of the rolling stock at this still was the property of CURT COLEMAN from Gulfport, Miss., COLEMAN is presently in the penitentiary and his wife, HAZEL COLEMAN, flatly refused to put up any money for the "fix". Consequently, RICHARD WEBB put up the entire $9,800.00 in return for which he took all of the equipment which was released after the no bill, with the exception of RICHARD WEBB'S white Chrysler and IVAN ORRELS' Dodge.

Informant advised that she is aware that since returning to the Mississippi Gulf Coast HENRY COOK SALISBURY, a known strong-arm man and armed robber has been in contact on several occasions with RICHARD HEAD at the Sa-When Lounge on West Beach, Biloxi, Miss. Informant was not aware of the purpose of the contact between HEAD and SALISBURY, but stated that SALISBURY is apparently broke financially, and she feels that he may be attempting to get HEAD to "steer" him onto a job of some kind.

NO 1225-C advised on 2/5/64 that DONALD LESTER JAMES, aka Jimmy James, arrived on the Mississippi Gulf Coast from Atlanta, Georgia, 2/4/64. JAMES was driving his 1964 gold Pontiac, Grand Prix, with Georgia license, numerals unknown. She advised JAMES told her that he and MARSHALL POWELL, aka, "Black Jack" Powell, were planning to rent a suite of rooms at the Broadwater Beach Hotel, Biloxi, Mississippi, for 2/12/64 at which time they planned to have a large crap game in the course of which JAMES planned to use loaded dice. JAMES indicated he had recently "scored" back in Atlanta with some dice which he intimated were loaded and said he had to leave Atlanta because of the "heat" on him there.

Informant advised JAMES on 2/4/64 telephoned POWELL at 872-7862, Atlanta and told POWELL it was "set up" at the Broadwater and for POWELL to come to the Coast and to bring LARRY and LEO, identities otherwise unknown to informant. Informant advised JAMES told POWELL that JAMES WALDRUP (a heavy equipment operator on the Mississippi Gulf Coast and a known associate of JAMES) had it set up to "steer" a $20,000 "mark" to this crap game, and JAMES indicated this "mark" had something to do with a big golf tournament scheduled for the Coast.

NO 1225-C advised on 2/5/64 that she had not been able to ascertain yet whether JAMES, POWELL or their associates would be able to obtain a "fix" with the Harrison County Sheriff EDWARD MC DONNELL.

NO 1225-C advised on 3/6/64 that OLIUS MC CRORY makes periodic trips to some place in the Jacksonville, Florida area and informant believes these trips are to a "fence" to dispose of stolen goods. Informant advised that DOUGLAS CATTS, a salesman for the Gulf Coast Buick Company, Biloxi, Mississippi, has a man's watch and a woman's watch, both given him by MC CRORY which came out of a burglary of the Pearl River Drug Store at Poplarville, Miss. She advised CATTS is the salesman who sold MC CRORY his 1964 red Buick Riviera.

Informant advised that on the night of 3/5/64 MC CRORY was at a nightspot she believed to be the Palomino, at Tallahassee, Florida, adding that she was at MC CRORY's apartment at 604 Hardy Avenue in Gulfport, with TERRY GILLAIN, when MC CRORY called GILLAIN from Florida, to say he would return to Gulfport 3/6/64. On this occasion, informant advised GILLAIN showed her what

Informant advised she received a telephone call on the morning of 3/16/64 from THOMAS AMATO's girl friend from New Orleans. The call was local, from Gulfport or Biloxi, and this girl informed she was coming to informant's house that day, to get some rest. Informant thus assumed the possibility that AMATO may have been with MC CRORY on a Florida "score" in which he was apprehended at Naples, Florida. Informant advised she was not aware of the date of MC CRORY's arrest in Florida, although presumably on 3/13/64 or 3/14/64.

Informant advised that HENRY SALISBURY and his girl friend, LOU, are again leaving the Mississippi Gulf Coast, to return to Atlanta, Georgia, due to the fact that SALISBURY had not been able to "score" on the Coast. She advised SALISBURY is driving a 1964 black Pontiac Bonneville four door, sedan with Georgia license, numerals unknown.

NO 1225-C advised on 3/16/64 that TERRY FRANCES GILLAIN was arrested with OLIUS MC CRORY at Naples, Florida, on about Tuesday night, 3/10/64, but GILLAIN was released. At the time of this arrest, the following associates of MC CRORY were waiting for him at a motel about fifteen miles from Naples:

Miss GLEN RAY SONES, a burglar and car theft;
TOMMY BANGHART (THOMAS FRED BANGHART, FBI 902 629 A), who is wanted by postal authorities along with HERSCHELL RAY ADDINGTON for a post office burglary 1/16/64 at Shreveport, La;

DORA RUSSUM, a white female from New Orleans, La., and an unknown white male from Meridian, Miss., further description unknown except has badly pock marked facial features.

Shortly after MC CRORY's arrest, a local law enforcement officer came to this motel and inquired for the individuals referred to above, but the owner of the motel lied to the officer and told him the group had gone. After the officer left, the motel operator alerted the group, who then departed.

Informant advised she learned that TERRY GILLAIN's relatives live in Jacksonville, Florida, where they have telephone number PO 5-1078, Jacksonville. Further, she learned that the bondsman who is to make MC CRORY's bond at Naples, Florida is one BILL OSLAN (phonetic), from Jacksonville, Florida, telephone number EL 4-2472.

Informant advised she learned that HENRY COOK SALISBURY is displaying Georgia license 1J17894 on his 1964 black Pontiac Bonneville, adding that SALISBURY and LOU ROBINSON left the Mississippi Gulf Coast on the early morning of 3/16/64, en route to Miami, Florida via Atlanta, Georgia.

Informant advised that on 3/16/64 THOMAS AMATO's girl friend, SYLVIA "Baby" AMATO, came to informant's house at Gulfport, driving a 1963 or 1964 white Cadillac sedan, Louisiana license 408-563. She advised "Baby" told her CARL DOUGLAS WHITE has an apartment in New Orleans very near to AMATO's residence on Treasure Street in New Orleans.

NO 1225-C advised on 3/16/64 that the MC CRORY residence on Hardy Avenue in Gulfport, contained considerable loot in the form of watches, rings, barbiturates and other items. She suggested that if a search was to be made of this place it should be down immediately inasmuch as MC CRORY would probably make bond in Florida and remove the loot.

On 3/16/64 Chief of Police HOWARD L. HOBBS was furnished with information concerning the arrest of MC CRORY and his associates in Florida and that MC CRORY had been living at 604 Hardy Avenue in Gulfport. It was suggested that this residence possibly contained contraband and Chief HOBBS advised he was aware MC CRORY had been living there.

NO 92-346/dmk

The raid by Chief HOBBS and his officers on this residence on 3/19/64, referred to specifically under the narcotics sub-section in the details herein, resulted primarily from the foregoing information.

Chief HOBBS advised he was issuing warrants for MC CRORY and GILLAIN on the basis of this search.

NO 1225-C advised on 3/20/64 that OLIUS MC CRORY telephoned her that date from Atlanta, Ga. MC CRORY informed that he was hiding out with HENRY SALISBURY at SALISBURY's apartment, rented under the name of ANNA and HENRY ROBERTS, address, Apartment 15, 1200-14th Place, N.E., Atlanta, Ga., telephone 876-7088. Informant advised MC CRORY inquired about whether there was any "heat" on him in Gulfport and told informant he was looking for TERRY GILLAIN inasmuch as GILLAIN apparently "ratted" on him to Florida authorities. MC CRORY indicated he would probably remain in Atlanta temporarily.

The foregoing information concerning MC CRORY's whereabouts was not disseminated to local authorities for fear of compromising the information. Contact is being maintained with Chief HOBBS, Gulfport, Mississippi Police Department, concerning potential UFAP process on MC CRORY if not otherwise located.
