JFK Law 10(a)2

Miami Office advised the Bureau by referenced teletype in the case of JOSEPH ANTHONY INDELICATO, Aka, AR, Miami file 92-404, that informant information had been received that JOSEPH INDELICATO and RUBY STRAUSS may operate gambling ship in the Miami area during the coming winter season. Panamanian motor vessel, "Orange Sun", and German ship "Wappan Von Hamburg" aka "Empress of Bahama", both operating out of Miami, were considered logical vessels to be used for this purpose. The Port Director, Miami, advised "Orange Sun" apparently is making regular scheduled runs, but to be chartered for convention groups.

Miami further advised JOHN CASEBOLT, Immigration Official, was aboard "Orange Sun" at West Palm Beach, Florida, Nov. 7, 1962, and observed approximately 50 slot machines covered and locked. He stated it took conventioners of Florida Automobile Dealers Association from West Palm Beach to West End and returned during the period November 4 through 7, 1962.

Information was further developed by an informant aboard "Wappan Von Hamburg" during the voyage of November 20, 1962, to Nassau and return, he learned 100 slot machines, plus faro table and other gambling equipment, to be delivered to ship within 30 days. Informant states "the doctor", or "the general", is to provide this gambling equipment. Identity of "the doctor" closely guarded aboard ship, but informant was told in confidence "the doctor" is "SANTOS from Tampa, Florida".

The Miami Office further advised due to the possibility that SANTOS was identical with subject, informant was instructed to further identify and obtain details regarding delivery of gambling equipment.

The Houston Office indices were negative regarding a VICTOR S. GUFFRIS as mentioned in the details of the report.

Information from the records of the General Telephone Company of Florida, Tampa, Florida, was made available to IC HENRY I. MC INTURFF on dates indicated on the FD-302s by Mr. GEORGE CARNES, Commercial Manager.

V. RE: ALBERT ANASTASIA MURDER

On October 30, 1962, Detective WILLIAM GRAFF, 18th Squad, New York City Police Department, furnished the following information:

In connection with the investigation of the ALBERT ANASTASIA murder, the District Attorney's Office of the New York County was advised by the United States Department of Justice that the Federal Bureau of Narcotics had information of assistance in this investigation. Detective GRAFF ascertained the Federal narcotics agent with this information was OSCAR LEON DAVIS, presently a Deputy United States Marshal in Orlando, Florida. Detective GRAFF interviewed DAVIS and determined his informant was CARLOS DE TORRES, 227 Northwest 13th Avenue, Apartment 5, telephone FR 1-1077, Miami, Florida, business address 303 Ainsley Building, Miami.

DE TORRES was interviewed by Detective GRAFF and he stated SANTO TRAFFICANTE, JR., ROMAN OLIVEREA, one MARCERIA, and one CISCO were involved in the ALBERT ANASTASIA homicide.

DE TORRES claimed OLIVEREA, MARCERIA, and CISCO received $35,000.00 for the killing. He said CISCO had been a bodyguard for ANASTASIA and that OLIVEREA had the role of "setting up" ANASTASIA. MARCERIA's role was not known to DE TORRES.

TF 92-1

DE TORRES related he was not close to TRAFFICANTE but claimed that through his informant, CISCO, he would be able to secure further information regarding TRAFFICANTE. DE TORRES stated he originally advised Federal Narcotics Agent DAVIS of the above information in November, 1961. He said DAVIS told him there was a $10,000.00 reward for information in the ANASTASIA homicide, but later stated that after checking with authorities in New York City he had ascertained the reward was only $7,000.00. According to Detective GRAFF, there is no reward in this case.

Detective GRAFF identified CISCO as UBALDO SANTACROCE, New York City Police Department, Number B-474573, also known as CISCO BOB, and interviewed him. SANTACROCE stated he was presently employed on the docks in Hoboken, New Jersey, on the "Sun Dance", a fishing boat. SANTACROCE admitted he had told people he had worked for ANASTASIA, but told Detective GRAFF there was no truth in these statements. It was ascertained SANTACROCE was a narcotics user, and he was characterized as a "bum" whose information could not be considered reliable.

MARCERIA was identified as JOSE RAMON FAYAT, 441 Southwest 4th Street, Miami, Florida, owner of the Ideal Restaurant, 755 West Flagler Street, Miami, Florida. However, SANTACROCE could not substantiate any of the story he had furnished DE TORRES.

Detective GRAFF advised he had closed out this phase of his investigation as to the ANASTASIA killing as being based on unreliable information.

Detective GRAFF stated it is the policy of the District Attorney's Office in New York County that no indictment be issued until that office is ready to apprehend those named in the indictment.
