T-3 further stated that it is his opinion that BRUNO is subservient to FELIX DE TULLIO, wa. "Skinny Razor." He based his opinion on the following-described incident which was told him by AUGUSTINE MAZZIO, wa. Gus, Philadelphia Police Department #272611, who is a partner of CHARLES VENEZIALE in the operation of a still. In approximately 1953 or 1954, PETER CASELLA, Philadelphia top hoodlum, and ALFRED IEZZI, wanted to dissolve their interest in the Ticket Grill, 13th and Wharton Streets, Philadelphia. BRUNO brought a prospective buyer to the Ticket Grill. This prospective buyer; BRUNO, and IEZZI, in discussing the price being asked for the grill, had a heated argument with IEZZI telling BRUNO "Do me a favor, keep the out of here." IEZZI then went to FELIX DE TULLIO, wa. "Skinny Razor," and told him of the argument. DE TULLIO told IEZZI not to worry about it. Approximately a week after the argument, BRUNO called DE TULLIO and told him about the argument. DE TULLIO supposedly told BRUNO at this time that whoever was at fault made no difference because "FREDDY is my partner." ALFRED IEZZI, commonly known as FREDDY, has been identified by T-3 as having part interest in the Television Bar at 8th and Washington Streets, Philadelphia, with DE TULLIO.

Approximately a week after BRUNO contacted DE TULLIO, GUS MAZZIO, FREDDY IEZZI and DE TULLIO, were standing outside of the Television Bar when BRUNO drove by and did not speak. This apparently alarmed FREDDY because he said to DE TULLIO, "Look, there goes BRUNO and he didn't even speak." SKINNY said in effect, "Who cares."

T-3 also stated that within the last two month period, MAZZIO told him about driving DE TULLIO's car in New Jersey. MAZZIO told him CLIVETO was in the back seat being chauffeured, and, according to T-3, this indicates that CLIVETO is a leader in the Greaser Gang. T-3 said that CLIVETO took over the position formerly held by MARCO REGINELLI. He also stated that CLIVETO was kidding SKINNY and was not kidded back; therefore, this is some indication that DE TULLIO is of lower rank than CLIVETO. T-3 said that people contact DE TULLIO to have matters straightened out and that he always advises these persons that he will let them

[REDACTED] The above apparently refers to a crap game which was formerly operated at 10th and Walnut Streets in Reading, Pa. As mentioned elsewhere in this report, informants have advised that JAMES GATTI, mentioned above, is an employee of JOE RUGNETTA, Philadelphia top hoodlum and presently serves as a bartender for RUGNETTA at the South Philly Grill.

Rackets

On February 14, 1958, Philadelphia Confidential Informant T-8 advised that it has come to his attention through his own source that one ANGELO BRUNO is allegedly "top man" in the rackets in Philadelphia at the present time. T-8 did not elaborate further on this. He stated that if certain of his former friends, namely ANGELO BRUNO and "CAPPIE" HOFFMAN, Philadelphia top hoodlums, learned that he had even talked to the FBI, it might bring physical harm to him.

On March 14, 1958, Philadelphia Confidential Informant T-9 advised SA JOHN H. BIERMANN that ANGELO BRUNO of the Greaser Gang who is "a well-known racket man in Philadelphia," has an individual named PHIL TESTA who works as his Lieutenant and right hand man and handles BRUNO's money. He also advised that another individual who does the same thing for BRUNO, is known to him only as "Do Do."

Also on March 6, 1958, T-9 advised that he is indebted to BRUNO in the amount of $3,000. He said that BRUNO continues to keep his hand in most all types of rackets, including numbers, alcohol and shylocking. He said as far as he knows, BRUNO was still one of the top men in the Greaser Gang; however, since the Italian hoodlums met at Apalachin, N.Y., last year, there has been some talk that BRUNO does not control the Greaser Mob, in Philadelphia.

On March 14, 1958, T-9 advised SA BIERMANN that one FRED KLOSTERMAN has a large numbers business in Philadelphia, doing about $5,000 per day. He said KLOSTERMAN is in with CAPPIE HOFFMAN and WILLIE WEISBERG, Philadelphia top hoodlums,

PH 92-444

Informant stated BRUNO is said to have made some very big loans to various members of the Jewish Mob and to have bankrolled them in many of their activities.

Informant further stated but could not substantiate, that BRUNO has made a very large amount of money in the bootlegging racket and was said to have operated one still for approximately 15 months, thereby clearing over $1,000,000.

Loan Sharking

On January 31, 1958, Philadelphia Confidential Informant T-12 advised SA JOHN H. BIERMANN that he was indebted to subject's brother-in-law, RALPH MARANCA, for approximately $30,000. He stated he is having difficulty making ends meet and he is paying MARANCA off in small amounts each week.

By letter dated February 19, 1958, the New York Division advised that New York Confidential Informants had stated the subject was not known to them and they had never heard his name mentioned in criminal circles in the New York area.

The New York Office also advised that the records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, as furnished by PAULINE DE FIORE to SA PAUL F. ROLANDS on February 10, 1958, failed to reflect any record of the subject.

The files of the New York City Police Department Identification Division as checked by a clerk of that department, and furnished to SA AUGUST J. MICEK on February 3, 1958, failed to reflect any record for the subject.

(E) LEGITIMATE ENTERPRISES

Dade County, Fla.,
Trash Collection Contract

By airtel dated February 6, 1958, the Miami Division advised that DANIEL P. SULLIVAN, Operating Manager, Miami Crime Commission, had advised on February 5, 1958, that he personally, in a very discreet manner, ascertained that the garbage and trash contracts for Miami, Miami Beach and Dade County, Fla., are being handled by municipal employees and that these three municipalities do not contemplate making any contracts regarding garbage and trash handling to any private enterprises or contractors.

The Miami Division also advised that no inquiry would be made at the Golden Nugget Motel, Miami Beach, Fla., unless advised to the contrary, in view of the fact the Golden Nugget Motel is a known hoodlum hangout and the possibility exists the inquiry would reach BRUNO and have an effect on negotiations of BRUNO, Philadelphia Confidential Informant T-10 and others involved in the garbage and trash contract.

On February 18, 1958, Philadelphia Confidential Informant T-10 identified the Senator from Florida, previously referred to by him as "Senator MORRIS," as being Florida's State Senator JOSEPH EATON. The informant insists that the trash collection contract is to be awarded in Dade County, Fla., which includes Miami and Miami Beach, for both commercial and residential. T-10 stated he did not know who the Attorney HAFT or Senator EATON would contact to obtain such a contract. He stated that necessary negotiations are being handled by the Italian element, apparently through BEN GALLUP (phonetic).

By airtel dated March 19, 1958, the Miami Division advised that DAVID GLASS, FBI #3733899, formerly from Philadelphia, and the present owner and operator of the Golden Nugget Motel, Miami Beach, Fla., was interviewed on February 19, 1958, by SAs ROBERT K. LEWIS and ELMER F. EMRICH in connection with another matter. GLASS advised that he knows BRUNO and that BRUNO was not registered at the Golden Nugget Motel at that time. GLASS was not receptive to questions regarding BRUNO; therefore, his association with BRUNO was not pursued any further.
