He served as manager of this club for about four or five weeks, until the club folded and went into bankruptcy. During this period, SALLY BURNS contributed a total of approximately $13,000 to the operation of the club and he, TONY, personally contributed close to $30,000 which he had been able to borrow from close friends.

While the club was in operation, BURNS gave the indication that the $13,000.00 contribution was an investment in this venture. However, when the club went into bankruptcy, BURNS informed TONY that he was responsible for the $13,000.00 as a personal loan from BURNS. Again, BURNS began demands on TONY not only for the $13,000.00, but for exorbitant interest on this "loan" which, as of September, 1958, amounted to a total of approximately $16,000.

Though BURNS took no active part in managing this club, he was often there during the evening hours, as were some of his underlings, specifically the individuals referred to previously as BABE, CHICK and BUDDY.

Part of the $13,000 contributed by BURNS was, according to TONY, raised in the following manner:

At a particular time when TONY was having difficulty making the payroll, BURNS instructed him to accompany JOE QUAGLIARELLO to New Jersey, where they were to pick up $2500.00 from RAY (previously mentioned as having been in the office of VITO GENOVESE on Thompson Street). TONY accompanied QUAGLIARELLO to New Jersey to a roadside club where they met RAY, who turned over $2500.00 to QUAGLIARELLO. The RAY referred to above, according to NY T-7, is ANGELO DE CARLO. NY T-7 further advised the roadside club where the meeting was held was the Martinique Restaurant, operated by DE CARLO in Mountainside, New Jersey.

Following the closing of the Cafe De Paris, TONY's only contacts with BURNS and his element have been at times when BURNS has demanded payment, plus interest, on the $13000.00 he put into this club.

At one time, during early 1958, while TONY was with BURNS at a tavern in Atlantic Beach, Long Island, New York, an individual identified by BURNS as Mr. JOHN ORMENTO came over to their table and said "Hello" to BURNS on his way out of the tavern. This appeared to be a chance meeting and there was no discussion between BURNS and this individual.

While in Havana, Cuba, on one of his visits to GEORGE LEVINE, LEVINE introduced TONY to a casino manager identified as JOE RIVERS, with whom LEVINE appeared to be quite friendly.

NY T-7 was recontacted on October 15, 1958, and advised that during one of TONY's visits to Havana, Cuba, during 1957, previously discussed, TONY met an American named LOWELL BIRRELL, who requested the Oriental Park Racetrack near Havana, which was operated by GRANELLO and LEVINE. The informant related that BIRRELL was a New York City lawyer who was in trouble with the United States Government in connection with large scale stock manipulations and BIRRELL was reportedly in Havana at the time to avoid investigation or prosecution in connection with the matter.

The informant related that it was his impression that BIRRELL seemed to be in close contact with the interests of GRANELLO and LEVINE in Cuba. He stated that in relation to the stock issued in the Oriental Park Racetrack in Havana, originally the stock had been placed on the market at about twenty cents per share and that during a comparatively short time, the stock rose to around a $1.50 per share. The informant stated that LEVINE and GRANELLO were reported to have made a "killing" on the manipulation of this racetrack stock. The informant advised further that it would not be surprising if BIRRELL had a hand in the above manipulation.

TALTY identified the girl as FLORA ANN BILETTO, 52 West Oakdale Street, Brentwood, Long Island, New York, but at the time of the incident, she resided at 274 Mott Street, New York City. TALTY stated he recalls interviewing the girl, her mother and her aunt. The father was an elevator operator on 58th Street, New York City.

Detective TALTY stated he could not recall any additional details regarding the incident, but believes that it was his conclusion that the allegation did not warrant any further investigation.

On May 23, 1962, Detective LES MC GOWAN, 5th Squad, New York City Police Department, made available the following information from a report concerning the investigation of an alleged rape by the subject:

On September 23, 1959, information was received from a confidential source by the New York City Police Department that the subject had sexually assaulted a 15 year old girl at Greenwood Lake, New Jersey, sometime between May and August, 1959. In addition, the subject is supposed to have paid the girl's father $15,000.00 in order to compromise the alleged rape.

Subsequent investigation developed that the girl's name was FLORA ANN BILETTO, Date of Birth, July 2, 1944, and she formerly resided in Apartment 3C, 274 Mott Street, New York City. At the time of the investigation, she resided at 52 West Oakdale Street, Brentwood, Long Island, New York.

During the investigation, Detective Lieutenant CHARLES C. DAUNER and Detective TIMOTHY V. TALTY, 5th Squad, New York City Police Department, interviewed that subject, his wife, his daughter, and the alleged victim and her father, but were unable to develop any information to substantiate the allegation.
