MISCELLANEOUS

The Wall Street Journal, Pacific Coast edition, reported in September, 1953, that Las Vegas, Nevada is one of the nation's top boom towns. The report states that the whirl of the roulette wheels, the clatter of slot machines, and the pop of champagne corks are playing a medley of booming business for this gambling mecca in the Nevada desert.

A representative of the Boulder Club reports that there was a 500% increase over their 1948 level. JAKE KOZLOFF of the Golden Nugget reported that the volume is up 25% over last year and has doubled since 1948. KOZLOFF reported that 40,000 persons visited the Golden Nugget on Decoration Day, 1953, as compared with 24,000 the same day in 1949.

The Journal further reported that the famed "strip" is the newest and most flamboyant addition to the city, and that the El Rancho Vegas Hotel is planning to build a new swimming pool twice the size of its present one, and will also add 300 rooms, and will build "a new play house", total cost $1,000,000.00. HIBUN CLARK of the pesert Inn is quoted as having stated that they plan to build a 135 room 5-story Brazilian type addition to the Desert Inn. Parking and housing have become severe problems. A strip hotel owner was quoted as saying "Let's face it. Sure, we've got the desert air, nice weather, annual rainfall of only h.84 inches; Hoover Dam is hearby, the mountains only 35 miles away for winter skiing, but if we didn't have legal gambling, this town would not be in business".

A. ORGANIZED GANCS

Informants SU-295-C, SU-336-C, SU-325-C and SU-283-C advised that there are no organized gangs operating to their knowledge in the Las Vegas area.

Chief of Police AL KENNEDY, Sheriff GLEN JONES, Chief of Detectives JACK BARLO , and Captain L. L. PEYTON, Chief Criminal Deputy, Clark County Sheriff's Office, all advised that there are no organized gangs operating in the Las Vegas area.

BINION entered a plea of guilty to 8 counts of an indictment charging him with evasion of income taxes from 1945 through 1948. BINTON has made numerous trips in the very recent past to Austin, Texas in connection with this tax matter, and SU-336-C stated that BINION said on December 7, 1953, that his date for sentence had been set for December 14, 1953, and that if he came back after his appearance on that date, he would be very happy.

BINION has paid over $500,000.00 in delinquent taxes in connection with the 8-count indictment on which he entered pleas of guilty to four counts, and four counts were reportedly dismissed.

Owners with BINION of the Horse Shoe Club are reported at the present time to be ROBERT "DOBY DOC" GAUDILL, W. C. DORSETT, and JOE BROWN. CAUDVLL is the owner of  $2\frac{1}{2}\%$ ; BINION owns  $47\frac{1}{2}\%$ , and BROWN and DORSETT own the imagining 50%.

EDWARD CLIPPINGER

EDDIE CLIPPINGER is still operating woxie's Formyle, a house of prostitution, located four miles outside of Las Végas on the Boulder City highway. This house of prostitution sits approximately 200 yards off the Boulder City highway; however, it is marked with a well lighted sign. The house itself is obscured from view by hills and a growth of trees from the highway.

CLIPPINGER was interviewed by SAS BRYON C. WHEELER and LEO E. KUYKENDALL on December 2, 1953, relative to a White Slave Traffic Act violation, at which time CLIPPINGER advised that he was of the opinion that one of the victims mentioned by agents had been employed at his house of prostitution some time in the past but he could not recall when. During the interview, CLIPPINGER stated that he was a member of the Los Angeles Police Department at one time immediately after World War I, and that he remained in this department for about 3 years. Part of the time he was on the patrol, and during the time he was so assigned, he made 3 arrests; and that he was on the Vice Squad for approximately one year and made no arrests. CLIPPINGER stated, "I was not much copper, I was strictly a businessman".

CLIPPINGER advised that at the present time he had approximately girls prostituting at Roxie's Formyle, and that he had approximately 20 male apployees such as maintenance men, bouncers, greeters, etc. CLIPPINGER stated that it was almost impossible for him to identify a prostitute who had been in his place of business by name or description; however, he would be willing to advise of those who had worked at Roxie's if he had an opportunity to view their photographs.
