ADMINISTRATIVE

Investigation to date by Dallas Division has failed to indicate a possible violation on the part of MATTHEWS involving the Federal Gambling Statutes; however, it is noted investigation is still outstanding in the Oklahoma City Division. In the event the Oklahoma City investigation is negative concerning a violation, UACB, Dallas will close the 166 file with letterhead memorandum and re-open Dallas file captioned RUSSELL DOUGLAS MATTHEWS, AR, Dallas file 92-213, Bufile 92-4587.

On 7/30/63 and subsequent dates, PCIJACK RITTER of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised SA ROBERT W. KNIGHT that he had no information concerning GEORGE EDWARD BARNES having any interests in the gambling clubs in the Dallas - Fort Worth area. RITTER advised that although BARNES had interest in gambling clubs in Oklahoma City area, he had no information revealing BARNES' interest in the Dallas - Fort Worth area.

On 9/24/63, DL 185-C-TE advised that the subject, who is believed to be part owner of the Redman Club located at 1606 Young Street, Dallas, had been recently observed by the informant having lunch at the Club Montmartre with notorious Dallas bookmaker JOHN L. STONE. Informant stated that he has been advised that MATTHEWS is being used by STONE for the collection of unpaid gambling debts. TEXAS

DL 185-C-TE advised that on the night of 10/21/63 that a local Dallas gambler and hoodlum GLEN BURNETT had taken MATTHEWS to Mistys, a gambling club located at 4208 Live Oak, Dallas. After MATTHEWS departed with another individual, BURNETT was upset over the fact that when he picked MATTHEWS up at the Redman Club, 1606 Young Street, MATTHEWS placed a pistol and a sawed-off shotgun in BURNETT's car. BURNETT related that when he departed Mistys, MATTHEWS had left the weapons in the car and BURNETT feared that the local authorities might stop him and find the guns.
