She still visits this establishment and comes in constant contact with MIKE GENOVESE and other members of Pittsburgh's racketeering element in her role as a medium-priced prostitute. PRIAM is presently traveling with Mrs. JULIA MINTZ, widow of JAKE MINTZ, co-owner of EZZARD CHARLES, former World's heavyweight boxing champion. She is presently being utilized for the coverage of the GENOVESE-LA ROCCA-NELSON interests.

GEORGE "MOON" MESSER, a PCI who is presently very active in Pittsburgh numbers operations and who was arrested during the month of August, 1958, in connection with his operation. MESSER is intimately acquainted with many Pittsburgh top hoodlums and racketeers through association with them when they began their racket careers. engaged in racket activity in the City of Pittsburgh who is being utilized for general coverage of lottery and numbers operations in the Pittsburgh area.

HENRY J. BARBER, a PCI of the Pittsburgh Office who is part owner of the notorious gambling establishment at Chester, W. Va., known as Club 30, who is being utilized for information concerning the club and the interest in it of Pittsburgh hoodlums associated with both LA ROCCA and GENOVESE.

Miss MARIAN FOGEL, a PCI of the Pittsburgh Office who is being utilized for information concerning Pittsburgh prostitution activities and as a check on the activities of Miss FRANCES PRIAM.

establishments frequented by the subject when he is in the Pittsburgh vicinity.

The identity of the anonymous informant calling himself "TIGER" is still being sought so that he may be contacted personally and will no longer have to depend on the written word for the furnishing of his racket information to the Pittsburgh Office.

It is anticipated that THOMAS MARTIN, Vice President of the Real Estate Department of the Potter Bank and Trust Company in Pittsburgh, will keep the Pittsburgh Office advised of any new developments concerning the proposed construction of a motel financed by MIKE GENOVESE and ARTHUR D. NELSON in the Monroeville, Pa., vicinity which would undoubtedly have to have the approval and overall financial backing of SEBASTIAN JOHN LA ROCCA.

It is further anticipated that former Pittsburgh top hoodlum, SAMUEL NATHANIEL LEVINE, who is now a PCI for the Pittsburgh Office and who is well acquainted with LA ROCCA, will be contacted at regular intervals so that a more complete picture of the racketeering activities in the City of Pittsburgh may be obtained. It should be noted that contacts with LEVINE to date have achieved the latter objective to a degree but have not been productive in furnishing information concerning LA ROCCA.

BALTIMORE, JACKSONVILLE, MIAMI AND PHILADELPHIA - INFORMATION

One copy of this report is being furnished to the Baltimore Office inasmuch as MAX LOUIS GOLDBERG, the personal accountant and close associate of the subject, makes his permanent residence in that city. Although the Baltimore Office has temporarily given up contacting GOLDBERG because of his critical illness, it is felt that he may be contacted at a future date. It should be noted that LA ROCCA owes GOLDBERG more than $5,000 at present and that if his illness does prove to be fatal, it is a foregone conclusion that LA ROCCA will travel to Baltimore to see the GOLDBERG family.

One copy of this report is being furnished to the Jacksonville and Miami Offices for information purposes because of allegations made by the wife of LA ROCCA and Pittsburgh informants concerning Allegheny County. Records in this regard were reviewed by THOMAS MC QUAIDE and PATRICK MC CORMICK, Identification Officers for the Pittsburgh Police Department and Allegheny County Detective Bureau, respectively.

Miss ALYCE TAFELSKI, Clerk, Pittsburgh Credit Bureau, Inc., 635 Smithfield Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., advised on October 17, 1958, that she has a record for JAMES CEFALO and his wife, ISABELLE dated February 15, 1956, at which time he lived at 59 Cheyenne Drive, Pittsburgh 5, Pa., and was buying his own home. The report stated that he had lived at this address for two years and had formerly resided at 829 Inwood Street and at 7139 Fleury Way, both Pittsburgh. He was listed as being from 38 to 40 years of age in 1956, and had two children at that time. His employment was shown as that of a driver for Continental Transportation Lines at McKees Rocks, Pa., since 1935. Former employments were shown as Conte Brothers and Kramer Brothers. It was also reflected that his credit record was satisfactory and that he had a satisfactory checking account at the Crafton Branch of the Peoples First National Bank.

The "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette" carried an article in its October 23, 1958, issue which indicated that JOSEPH VOLPE, a close associate of the subject, and his friend, THOMAS XNELIS, were indicted by the Allegheny County Grand Jury on October 22, 1958, at Pittsburgh, for attempting to bribe a juror in the Katz-Stupak Racket Trial. The article stated that both were charged with conspiring to commit "embracery" which the paper defined as the legal term for approaching a juror and solicitation to commit embracery. The article described VOLPE as the owner of the Rainbow Gardens at McKeesport, Pa., and "youngest member of the notorious Volpe clan." PA

On November 26, 1958, ALBERT DIMEOLO, United States Marshal for the Western District of Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh, advised SA ROBERT A. VOEGE that he had just received subpoenas to be served to [redacted] and his partner, [redacted] ordering them to appear before the Grand Inquest for the [redacted]

[redacted] at 9:45 AM on [redacted] to testify and give evidence in regard to an alleged violation of the following sections of the United States Code:

Sections 371, 1406, Title 18, United States Code
 Sections 174, 184A, Title 21, United States Code
 Section 7237 (A and B), Title 26, United States Code

He advised that the subpoenas were signed by [redacted]

[redacted] He stated that the subpoenas would be served on that date and that he would notify the Pittsburgh Office if any problems arose. He also advised that a subpoena was being issued to be served at the same time to [redacted] for his appearance before the [redacted] session of the Federal Grand Jury as requested by HUBERT I. TEITELBAUM, United States Attorney, Western District of Pennsylvania, at Pittsburgh.

On October 29, 1958, the Philadelphia Office was advised that T-4, who has furnished considerable reliable information concerning the legitimate enterprises of the MANNARINO brothers and particularly information concerning real estate transactions involving SAMUEL MANNARINO, had advised during February, 1958, that SAMUEL MANNARINO, during the early portion of 1957, mentioned that he had purchased a hunting lodge surrounded by 200 acres of land. At that time the informant understood MANNARINO to say that the lodge was located in Somerset County, Pa., and extensive investigation thereafter was conducted to identify the hunting lodge since several sources in the Pittsburgh vicinity believe the lodge would be an excellent hide-out for GABRIEL MANNARINO and his close friend, SEBASTIAN JOHN LA ROCCA, who disappeared from the Pittsburgh vicinity during December, 1957, to [redacted] with subpoenas to appear before a Federal Grand Jury in the [redacted] [redacted] inquiring into the significance of the [redacted]

The Philadelphia Office was further advised that the two aforementioned top national hoodlums were also being sought by Senator JOHN MC CLELLAN, Chairman of the U.S. Senate Select Committee on Improper Activities in the Labor or Management Fields.

In connection with the aforementioned efforts to identify the location of the hunting lodge, the informant originally furnishing this information, learned on October 28, 1958, through JACK KRUPA, a New Kensington, Pa., councilman and life-long friend and hunting companion of the MANNARINO brothers, that SAMUEL MANNARINO's hunting lodge is not located in Somerset County, Pa., but is actually a twenty-room farm house generally referred to as a hunting lodge, surrounded by approximately 200 acres of densely wooded land in Pennsylvania near the Pennsylvania-Maryland border, approximately a fifteen minute drive by automobile from Hagerstown, Maryland. The informant recalled that he had been in the office of SAMUEL MANNARINO during December, 1957, when the press and radio carried the first accounts of the fact that GABRIEL MANNARINO had been called before the Federal Grand Jury in New York. He stated that shortly thereafter SAMUEL MANNARINO received a telephone call from GABRIEL MANNARINO in his presence and hurriedly told him "they are trying to serve you with a subpoena. Take off for the brush." The informant stated that it seemed logical to him that if SAM MANNARINO's remarks were interpreted literally his advice could have been his subtle way of telling his brother to proceed to the hunting lodge.

The aforementioned informant said that according to his source of information, the general area surrounding the lodge is thickly populated with whiskey stills, and that local game wardens are reluctant to enter the area because some of them have been mistaken for Agents of the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Unit and have been fired upon by the moonshiners.

The Philadelphia Office was requested, through the Recorder of Deeds for Franklin County, Pa., to attempt to identify the aforementioned lodge and to display photographs of MANNARINO and LA ROCCA at Waynesboro, Pa., and vicinity near the Maryland border to game wardens, reliable police officers, and other sources to locate the hunting lodge and determine whether MANNARINO and LA ROCCA are hiding out in that locality or have been there in the past six to ten months.

The New York Office advised on November 20, 1958, in reply to a request to interview FRANK JOSEPH VALENTI, who is confined to the New York City Civil Jail, that the New York Office believes it inadvisable to conduct such an interview inasmuch as there is no indication that he would be willing to cooperate with the law enforcement officers at this time. It was further noted that there is no indication that he could be interviewed with full security and that his interview might be subjected to public notice. It was also advised that the activities of those confined are being very closely followed by the New York State Crime Commission, and that former Special Agent JOSEPH MILENKY, Chief Investigator for that body, is advising the New York Office of pertinent developments.

The Baltimore Office advised on November 17, 1958, that Mrs. LILLIAN COHEN, 3701 Clarinith Road, Baltimore, Maryland, advised that she is the sister of MAX GOLDBERG, then personal accountant for LA ROCCA, and that she is employed as a secretary in his office. She advised that GOLDBERG is critically ill in the New Kensington General Hospital and is suffering from an ulcerated colon and other complications. She advised that doctors have said that this illness could be fatal and if not, will cause GOLDBERG to be incapacitated for some time. She stated that she was certain that LA ROCCA had not contacted GOLDBERG or any of the members of his staff in the recent past and that if he does so, she will immediately contact the Baltimore Office of the FBI.

C. CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

T-5, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he has been unable to develop any information concerning the present whereabouts of LA ROCCA. He stated that LA ROCCA's associates have been very secretive of late, but that he has an idea that LA ROCCA and GABRIEL MANNARINO may again be in Warren, Ohio. He again surmised that they had been hidden in the past by CHARLIE MURGIE of Warren, Ohio, and that MURGIE had taken them to Florida. He stated that he had reason to believe that they were staying close to home as he had learned that the wife of LA ROCCA is going to have an operation soon.

service to [redacted] He advised that the first is a subpoena for the appearance of [redacted] before the Federal Grand Jury for the [redacted] to testify and give evidence in regard to an alleged violation of [redacted] and that the second is a subpoena for the appearance of LA ROCCA before the U.S. Senate Select Committee on Improper Activities in the Labor or Management Field. He again stated that the dates for these appearances have still not been set and that he cannot do anything further regarding them until LA ROCCA returns to Pittsburgh or is located in some other jurisdiction. He advised that he will notify the Pittsburgh Office in the event he should learn anything regarding LA ROCCA in this regard.

Surveillances Conducted Relating to this Investigation

Other than those surveillances conducted at Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, which have already been set forth, spot surveillances were made on October 24; November 3, 7, 24, 28; and December 10, 1958, at 900 West Ingomar Road, Ingomar, and at 12 McCandless Street, Pittsburgh. Nothing of interest to this investigation was observed during these spot surveillances.

Other Matters of a Miscellaneous Nature

"The Pittsburgh Press" carried a front page article in its October 28, 1958, issue entitled, "Probe Spotlight on Chauffeur of Mannarino." The article stated that a new Kensington, Pa., man named THOMAS "SONNY" CIANCUTTI spent sometime on October 28, 1958, with the Federal Grand Jury at Pittsburgh. The article stated that there was speculation that the Grand Jury was asking CIANCUTTI, reputed to be the chauffeur of racket boss GABRIEL "KELLY" MANNARINO, where MANNARINO is presently hiding. It said "KELLY" MANNARINO had been ducking process servers with amazing success for several months since New York authorities started investigating the "crime convention" which MANNARINO attended at Apalachin. The paper said that another man testifying before the Federal Grand Jury on October 28, 1958, was JOHN FONTANA, convicted of vote fraud in 1954 and the reputed operator of New Kensington's Barbout game. It should be noted that FONTANA is a close associate of MIKE
