Re Philadelphia letter to the Bureau dated 1/18/63.

There are enclosed herewith two (2) post cards
furnished SA JOSEPH C. LEARNED on 1/25/63 by Post Office

Mr. BELL advised on 1/14/63 that the Post Office

El Cajon, California."

The post card to MENNINGER bears the following:

"Food for Red China?"

"Not till they send home the 486 Korean War
Veterans that are still held prisoner in

"Dear Comrade:

"Did your communist friends murder Newton Armstrong, Jr.?"

Both post cards contain the symbol of a triangle in which is drawn three arrows.

Mr. BELL stated that the Postal Inspectors consider that the MENNINGER post cards mentioning the words "Concentration Camp" are possibly in violation of postal regulations or laws. He stated that the Post Office has been unable to determine who has been mailing these post cards, which apparently are mailed from different locations in the United States. He stated that approximately 200 post cards have been received by CASADY and MENNINGER. Mr. BELL exhibited a piece of paper which he stated was mailed with a post card to MENNINGER. The sheet of paper was signed by "331" and bore instructions to mail the card on a specific date.

Since 6/15/59, the Denver Office, from time to time, has conducted investigation of the organization known as the "MINUTEMEN." As a result of this investigation, we have developed a source in this organization named R. PATRICK PRICE, 237 Pearl Street, Denver, Colorado, (protect identity). During the past several years, Mr. PRICE, who is a member of the "MINUTEMEN," has been furnishing this office with information he obtains from this organization.

Photostats of certain material pertaining to the "MINUTEMEN" organization was furnished to Mr. BELL; however, the identity of our source was not revealed to him.
