WEEKLY SUMMARY

MM 509-C-TE reported that MURRAY FRANKLIN, an entertainer, who for years operated a night club and restaurant, got together with FRANK DIOGUARDI (MM 92-405) and made a business deal, since FRANKLIN had no location, but had a very good following. As a result, DIOGUARDI is providing Dore's Restaurant and Lounge, which he owns, and FRANKLIN is providing the entertainment and additional customers. Allegedly, they split 50-50 after they deduct the expenses.

the weekends and holidays it is jammed, more or less to capacity (MM 92-1241).

MM 962-C reported that the latter part of July, 1965, the National Plastering Company, Miami Beach, operated by MAX ~~EDER~~ (MM 92-467) and JACK ~~RUBIN~~, had only $46.00 in their checking account. The officials of the Bank of Dade County advised them that the bank would not honor any overdrafts. ~~EDER~~ promptly contacted CHARLES ~~DONNER~~, of the Southland General Builders, with whom they do business, and ~~DONNER~~ made available a $25,000.00 check. It was learned that ~~DONNER~~ did not have sufficient money in his account to cover the check, so ~~EDER~~ had to transfer some of his funds to the National Plastering Company account.

MM 673-C advised that RICHARD ~~SAMILLUCCI~~, aka Dick Cami, son-in-law of JOHN ~~BIELE~~ (MM 92-479), and TOMMY ~~MERRON~~, who runs Dinty Moore's Restaurant in Boston, Massachusetts, are going to operate Dinty Moore's Restaurant in Hollywood, Florida.

MM 984-PC reported that AUGIE ~~AMATO~~ (MM 92-1354) and JOE ~~INDELICATO~~ (MM 92-404), both operators of cigarette vending businesses, have changed their policy relative to giving a prospective customer or current customer financial aid, they now make them a shylock loan instead.
