Administrative Data

Investigative period of this report has an extended period to avoid submission of a status report to the Bureau and also to enable the Philadelphia Division to attempt to endeavor whether BRUNO contemplated permanently residing in Philadelphia or moving elsewhere.

Chicago airtel to Director, dated 9/9/59, captioned "Top Hoodlum Program, Chicago Division, Anti-Racketeering, " cc Philadelphia, reports information received from CG 6343-C* on 9/8/59, in which a conference was held in Chicago attended by ANTHONY J. ACCARDO and SAMUEL M. GIANCANA. GIANCANA discussed a recent trip to the East Coast and Las Vegas and had appointments with VITO (GENOVESE) and TOMMY BROWN (THOMAS LUCHESE). During GIANCANA's conference with VITO GENOVESE, GIANCANA stated he had been advised by VITO that "they should get together and harmonize." GIANCANA said that JOE IDA had been a boss in Philadelphia but they made a "new boss" and "we're trying to straighten it out." GIANCANA and ACCARDO then discussed a nine or twelve man "commission" whose purpose is apparently to mediate on matters involving jurisdictional disputes in so-called "open territory." In discussing the men on this commission who would side with GIANCANA on the matter in question, ACCARDO said that GIANCANA could count on VITO (GENOVESE), JOSE PROFACI, JOE BONANNO from New York, and JOE IDA from Philadelphia.

It should be noted here that information reported in instant report indicates that ANGELO BRUNO has gained prominence as a leader in the Italian racketeers. It does not appear, however, that he has taken over the command of the racket activity of the organization in Philadelphia and New Jersey, his prominence appearing to be located in Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey exclusively.

JOSEPH IDA, mentioned above, according to information received in the past, resides in New Brunswick, N.J., and rules Italian racketeers. PH 251-C on 3/3/59 reported that IDA had gone to Italy for an extended visit two months previously. No information has been received by the Philadelphia Division indicating that BRUNO has taken IDA's place in command of the Italian racket element in this vicinity.

BRAYLENSKI said that he has never had any contact with ANGELO BRUNO in Miami, Fla., and claimed that he only visited Miami on an average of every two or three years.

BRAYLENSKI was questioned as to whether or not BRUNO had any active business association with the Plaza Gambling Casino, but BRAYLENSKI claimed he was not personally acquainted with this phase of BRUNO's activity. BRAYLENSKI said he had no information concerning BRUNO's alleged activities in the Dominican Republic, but did say that BEN ~~GALLUP~~ of Miami Beach, or GALLUP's partner, NORMAN ~~FROMPKIN~~, had a carnival operating in the Dominican Republic. FLA.

(Here it should be noted that PH T-2 has identified BEN GALLUP as operating a pinball machine business in Miami and a close associate of BRUNO in that city.)

BRAYLENSKI said he could furnish no information concerning the relationship of GALLUP or FROMPKIN with ANGELO BRUNO. BRAYLENSKI recalled that GALLUP at one time resided in Trenton, N.J., approximately 40 years ago prior to moving to Miami, Fla., and while in Trenton, N.J., GALLUP, as well as NORMAN FROMPKIN, was in the pinball machine and vending machine business. It was noted that BRAYLENSKI attempted to appear cooperative by furnishing some information, but it was apparent that he was considerably reluctant to furnish details as to his knowledge of the association between BRUNO and BEN GALLUP.

On August 28, 1959, Lt. WILLIAM BURNS of the Trenton, N.J., Police Department said that he was acquainted with ANGELO BRUNO's background and knew BRUNO to contact JOHN J. ~~SIMONE~~, aka John ~~Casablanca~~, during the periods that BRUNO visited Trenton. BURNS could furnish no background information regarding GALLUP or NORMAN FROMPKIN. N.J.

On September 11, 1959, PH T-1 advised SA J. ROBERT PEARCE that ANGELO BRUNO's wife has said that BRUNO was in business in Cuba with at least two other men, one of whom was identified as "BROWNIE" and the other as "PAPPY" IPPOLITO. Regarding "BROWNIE," T-1 recalled that approximately seven or eight years ago, BRUNO rented a large summer home on Atlantic Avenue in Atlantic City, N.J., and that IPPOLITO and "BROWNIE" visited ANGELO BRUNO at this residence. T-1 also said that ROBERT ~~MEYNER~~, the present Governor of New Jersey, visited BRUNO at this residence. T-1 did not know, however, with whom MEYNER came when he visited BRUNO, but gained the impression that he knew IPPOLITO and "BROWNIE," who was described as being tall, blond, and good looking. N.J.
