2. AMBANG-1 expects that Subject (201-773270) will be returning to Cuba in the near future. (In relation to the return of Subject to Cuba, Subject told (C)PORT-1 on 22 July that he had received permission to return and had discussed this with AMBANG-1 on that same day.) Although AMBANG-1 expressed doubts concerning the character and general disposition of Subject, he nevertheless felt that Subject, in conjunction with his training, had potential for contact within military circles in Cuba.
3. In general no definite plans were made during the conversations between AMBANG-1 and Subject in Madrid. However, various means of communication were established for future contact:
A. Mail. AMBANG-1 gave Subject three different mail drops in the United States (New York, Miami, and San Juan, Puerto Rico) for his correspondence to AMBANG-1 from inside Cuba.
B. Telephone. In the event that telephone contact is desired, Subject is to call (maestro "Marrito" RODRIGUEZ) who resides in Miami and is the daughter of the former owner of the (Partagas Cigarette Company) in Cuba. (RODRIGUEZ) in turn is to contact AMBANG-1. (continued)

Personal Meetings. The following plan was established for personal meetings. Subject will send a picture of a boat that is utilized by INDER for excursions to AMBANG-1 via mail drop. It appears that INDER has boats which are rented to sportmen for deep sea fishing trips. AMBANG-1, in turn, will attempt to procure a boat identical to that in the picture sent by Subject. Accordingly, on given instructions the boat rented by INDER will depart from a point in Cuba, heading for another port in Cuba. All official Cuban Government communication regarding the clearances necessary for the INDER boat will be made by INDER prior to the departure of the boat. The INDER boat would then depart Cuba, heading out to sea ostensibly destined for Havana. The two boats (the INDER boat and the identical boat acquired by AMBANG-1) will rendez-vous on high seas and make appropriate exchanges; then the INDER boat will return to its port of destination.

3. Contact with 201-736492. In San Juan the contact between AMBANG-1 and 201-736492 will be made through ⁰⁶ (1 Person) who is a ⁰⁸ (relative of Subject's family) and resides in San Juan.

4. AMBANG-1 commented that he had a 107-foot boat which he is willing and intends to use against Fidel. He indicated the fact that approximately $80,000 worth of arms had been lost in Santo Domingo as a result of the insurrection in that country.
