

SUBJECT: LOPEZ, Henry P.

D.O.B. - 28 May 1920
P.O.B. - Denver, Colorado

Subject, a Harvard Law School graduate, has been in private law practice in the Los Angeles area since 1949.

He was favorably investigated by the FBI in 1948 presumably at the request of the ILRB with whom he was briefly associated as an examiner on the West Coast.

This was the Dept of Justice or State records

In 1959 he was of covert interest to the Agency for use under an OA in an advisory capacity by PP/PAD (world-wide) under Project SCLACRIM.

A full field investigation by SSD in the Los Angeles area, generally favorable; however, revealed considerable derogatory information in that his name appears a number of times in subversive files on the West Coast.

In 1949 he was listed as a member of the Bar Committee of the Democratic Minority Conference. This organization, according to a confidential informant well versed in subversive activities in the Los Angeles area, was believed to be infiltrated by Communist sympathizers. Subject's committee opposed loyalty oaths for attorneys.

From 1952 to 1958 Subject's name was mentioned favorably in the Daily Peoples World, a West Coast CP organ.

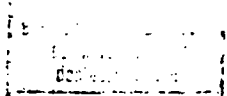

Subject has been an associate of a number of well known West Coast individuals who are either leftist or CP sympathizers over the years.
