On 1 May ..., [ALINA] was informed by subj that he had been surround to Lenin rad for a menting with a representative of the Soviat Internal Security Folice (prenumbly MAC). While there, subj. had been instructed to determine what becurity predoutions the Folice of Swelen, Norway and Dennark plan to take to insure the safety of KHEUSHDERY during his August visit to the Scandinavian countries. During the conversation, subj was very critical of his Soviet colleagues in Stor, Oslo, & Bops, for their failure to develop close relations with representatives of the Scanity Folice of those countries. Subj was worried not only about his own insbility to develop the information requested, but also for the safety of KHEUSHCHEV during this trip. Subj did not know for sure whether X, would visit Finland on this trip, but believed that if he did, it would occur after the visit to the other three countries, and that any visit to Finland would be purely unofficial.

17. Subj lives in a large sized apartment which is sparsely furnished.with semi-modern and not purticularly in good taste furnishings. No domestics seemed to be about. Subj invited AEPA.NED/5 and AEPANNEE/3 to dinner & subj's wife served meal. After dinner he showed blickey House & Donald Duck films & seemed to enjoy them tremeniously. Subj stated that before his wife and he were married they had known each other for a long time and marriage just scemed to be the next step. He said that now he & his wife are "good pals", and he also mentioned that his wife, althouse his wife, did not like the weather which caused her a lot of sickness. When OV[A57/5 said that the only thing for subj to do was to ask for a transfer as his wife's health is more important than his job, subj responded very quickly stating that she was wrong, that the job was certainly more important to him than his wife. Subj stated that he was an orches and that the Computat system had a ven him everyting.
