GOP Security Aide Among 5 Arrested In Bugging Affair

By Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein Washington Post Statt Writers

One of the five men arrested carly Saturday in the attempt to bug the Democratic National Committee headquarters here is the salaried security coordinator for President Nixon's reelection committee.

14-00000

The suspect, former CIA employce James W. McCord Jr., 53, also holds a separate contract to provide security services to the Republican National Committee, GOI² national chairman Bob Dole said yesterday.

Former Attorney General John N. Mitchell, head of the Committee for the Re-Election of the President, said yesterday McCord was employed to help install that committee's own security system.

In a statement issued in Los Angeles, Mitchell said McCord and the other four men arrested at Democratic headquarters Saturday "were, not operating either in our behalf or with our consent" in the alleged bugging allempt. Dole issued a similar statement, adding that "we deplore action of this kind in or out of polities." An aide to Dole said he was unsure at this time exactly what security services McCord was hired to perform by the National Committee.

Police sources said last night that they were seeking a sixth man in connection with the attempted bugging. The sources would give no other details. Other sources close to the

Other sources close to the investigation said yesterday that there still was no explanation as to why the five suspects might have attempted to bug Democratic headquarters in the Waterzate at 2600 Virginia Ave. NW, or if they were working for other individuals or organizations.

"We're baffled at this point... the mystery deepens," a high Democratic party source said.

Democratic National Committee Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien said the "bugging incident ... raised the uglicst questions about the integrity of the political process that I have encountered in a quarter century. "No more statement of in-

"No mere statement of innocence by Mr. Nixon's campaign manager will dispet these questions."

The Democratic presidential candidates were not available for comment yesterday.

O'Brien, in his statement, called on Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst to order an immediate, "searching professional investigation" of the entire matter by the FBL

A spokesman for Kleindienst said yesterday, "The FBI is already investigating ... Their investigative report will be turned over to the criminal division for sppropriate action."

The White House did not comment.

McCord, 53, retired from the Central Intelligence Agency in 1970 after 19 years of service and established his own "security consulting firm," McCord Associates, at 414 Hungerford Drive, Rockville, He lives at 7 Winder Ct., Rockville.

McCord is an active Baptist and colonel in the Air Force Reserves, according to neighbors and friends.

In addition to McCord, the other four suspects all Miami residents, have been identified as: Frank Sturcis (also known as Frank Fiorini), an American who served in Fidel Castro's revoltuionary army and later trained a guerrilla force of anti-Castro exiles; Eugenio R. Martinez, a real estate agent and notary public who is active in anti-Castro activities in Miami; Virgilio R. Gonzales, a locksmith; and Bernard L. Barker, a native of Havana said by exiles to have worked on and off for the CIA since the Bay of Pigs invasion in 1961.

All five suspects gave the police false names after being arrested Saturday. McCord also told his attorney that his name is Edward Martin, the attorney said.

Sources in Miami said yesterday that at least one of the suspects—Sturgis—was attempting to organize Cubans in Miami to demonstrate at the Democratic National Convention there next month.

The five suspects, welldressed, wearing rubber surgical gloves and unarmed, were arrested about 2:30 a.m. Saturday when they were surprised by Metropolitan police inside the 29-office suite of the Democratic headquarters on the sixth floor of the Watergate-

The suspects had extensive photographic equipment and some electronic surveillance instruments capable of intercepting both regular conversation and telephone communication.

Police also said that two ceiling panels near party chairman O'Brien's office had been removed in such a way as to make it possible to slip in a bugging device.

McCord was being held in D.C. jail on $30,000 bond yesterday. The other four were being held there or, $50,000 bond. All are charged with attempted bunglary and attempted interception of telephone and. other conversations.

McCord was hired as "security coordinator" of the Committee for the Re-cleetion of the President on Jan, 1, according to Powell Moore, the Nixon committee's director of press and information.

Moore said McCord's contract called for a "take home" calary" of $1,209 per month ' and that the ex-CIA employce was assigned an office in the committee's headquarters at 1701 Pennsylvania Ave., NW.

Within the last one or two weeks, Moore said, McCord made a trip to Miami Beach — where both the Republican and Democratic National Conventions will be theid. The purpose of the trip, Moore said, was "to establish security at the hotel where the Nixon Committee will be staying."

In addition to McCord's monthly salary, he and his firm were paid a total of $2.836 by the Nixon Committee for the purchase and rental of television and other security equipment, according to Moore.

Moore said that he did not know exactly who on the committee staff hired Me-Cord, adding that it "definitely wasn't John Mitchell." According to Moore, Me-Cord has never worked in any previous Nixon election campaigns "because he didn't leave the CIA until two years ago, so it would have been impossible." As of late yesterday, Moore said, MeCord was still on the Re-Election Committee payroll.

In his statement from Los Angeles, former Attorney General Mitcheil said he "surprised and dismayed" at reports of Me-Cord's arrest.

"The person involved is the proprietor of a private security agency who was employed by our committee months ago to assist with the installation of our security system," said Mitchell. "He has, as we understand it. a number of business clients and interests and we have no knowledge of these * relationships."

Referring to the alleged attempt to bug the opposition's headquarters, Mitchell said: "There is no place in our campaign, or in the electoral process, for this type of activity and we will not permit it nor condone it."

About two hours after Mouth and two hours after Mitchell issued his state-ment, GOP National Chair-man Dole said, "I under-stand that Jim McCord ... is the owner of a firm with which the Republican National Committee contracts for security services . . . If our understanding of the facts is accurate," added Dole, "we will of course discontinue our relationship with the firm."

Tom Wilck, deputy chair-man of communications for the GOP National Committee, said late yesterday that Republican officials still were checking to find out when McCord was hired, * how much he was paid and t exactly what his responsibilities were.

McCord lives with his wife in a two-story, $45,000 house in Rockville.

After being contacted by The Washington Post yester-day, Harlan A. Westrell, who said he was a friend of McCord's, gave the following background on McCord:

He is from Texas, where he and his wife graduated from Baylor University. They have three children, a on who is in his third year t the Air Force Academy, d two daughters.

The McCords have h active in the First Daptist Church of Washington.

Other neighbors said that McCord is a colonel in the Air Force Reserve, and also has taught courses in security at Montgomery Community College. This could not be confirmed yesterday.

McCord's previous em-ployment by the CIA was confirmed by the intelli-gence agency, but a spokesman there said further data about McCord was not available yesterday. Several address books seized from the suspects contained mostly Spanish names with Miami address es. Police sources said all of the names in the books were being checked.

In Miami, Washington ost Staff Writer Kirk Tost Scharfenberg reported that two of the other suspects-Sturgis and Barker - are well known among Cuban exiles there. Both are known to have had extensive con-tacts with the Central Intelligence A g e n c y, exile sources reported, and Barker was closely associated with Frank Bender, the CIA operative who recruited many members of Brigade 2506: the Bay of Pigs invasion force.

Barker, 55, and Sturgis. 37, reportedly showed up un invited at a Cuban exile meeting in May and claimed to represent an anticom munist organization of refugees from "captive na-tions." The purpose of the meeting, at which both men reportedly spoke, was to plan a Miami demonstration in support of President Nixon's decision to mine the harbor of Haiphong.

Barker, a native of Ha-vana who lived both in the U.S. and Cuba during his youth, is a U.S. Army veteran who was imprisoned in -a German POW camp dur-ing World War II. He later served in the Cuban Buro de Investigaciones secret lice-under Fidel Castros and fled to Miami in 1958.

He reportedly was one of the principal leaders of the Cuban Revolutionary Council, the exile organization established with CIA help to organize the Bay of Pigs Invasion. Sturgis, an American soldier of fortune who joined Castro in the hills of Oriente Province in 1958, left Cuba in 1959 with his close friend, Pedro Diaz Lanz, then chief of the Cuban air force. Diaz Lanz, once active in Cuban exile activities in Miami, more recently has been re ported involved in such right-wing movements as the John Birch Society and the Rev. Billy James Hargis Christian Crusade.

Sturgis, more commonly known as Frank Fiorini, just his American citizenship in 1960 for serving in a foreign military force-Castro's army -but, with the aid of then-Florida Sen. George Smathers, regained it.
