This reference in the file captioned "Alto Case" (65-43302) set forth information concerning the activities and contacts of Teresa Proenza in Havana, Cuba and Mexico. Proenza was associated with Jacob Landau, Managing Editor of "Overseas News Agency" (ONA), publication of the Overseas News Agency Organization, with the main office in NYC, as an ONA representative in Havana. She resigned this position on 12/12/44. Proenza wrote letters, made phone calls and assisted Landau, when requested, in obtaining his Cuban visa to visit Havana 3/1-25/45. It was ascertained that Proenza, was a member of the CP of Cuba, and active in CP front organizations. Proenza made a trip to Mexico and while there she spoke with the former Soviet Ambassador, Constantin Oumansky.

A Legat summary report made at Havana, Cuba, dated 5/14/45, contained a summary of current information obtained and reported during the period of February, March, and April, 1945, concerning the general trends of Communist activities in Cuba. Among the personality summaries reported was that of Maria Teresa Proenza Y. Proenza. Proenza and family were active revolutionaries. Reliable sources disagreed on whether she was a CP member, [but all sources agreed that she was in close contact with the Russian Diplomatic Mission in Havana. After the departure of Nora P. Chegodaeva, former Press Attache, Proenza's contacts at the Russian Legation ceased but she continued to contact many prominent CP members.] Proenza's employment record was set forth.
